National Languages in the USSR Magomet Izmailovich Isaev, 1977      Sociolinguistic Perspectives on Soviet National Languages Isabelle T. Kreindler, 2015-09-25 No detailed description available for Sociolinguistic Perspectives on Soviet National Languages      National languages in the USSR, 1977      National languages in the USSR M. I. Isayev, 1977      The Routledge International Handbook of Language Education Policy in Asia Andy Kirkpatrick, Anthony J. Liddicoat, 2019-04-17 This must have handbook offers a comprehensive survey of the field It reviews the language education policies of Asia encompassing 30 countries sub divided by regions namely East Southeast South and Central Asia and considers the extent to which these are being implemented and with what effect The most recent iteration of language education policies of each of the countries is described and the impact and potential consequence of any change is critically considered Each country chapter provides a historical overview of the languages in use and language education policies examines the ideologies underpinning the language choices and includes an account of the debates and controversies surrounding language and language education policies before concluding with some predictions for the future      Islamic Peoples Of The Soviet Union Shirin Akiner, 2013-09-05 First published in 1987 The aim of this historical and statistical handbook is to answer three basic questions about the Islamic peoples of the USSR who they are where they are and how many of them there are It is convenient to speak of them as Soviet Muslims grouping them all together under a single collective heading but they are in fact quite disparate For this reason it was decided to treat each ethnic group individually here      Language Planning In The Soviet Union Michael Kirkwood, 1989-10-24      Russian and Soviet Education 1731-1989 John T. Zepper, William W. Brickman, 2014-02-04 Volume 9 in the series of Reference Books in International Education This bibliography is intended to provide a reference aid to mature Russian Soviet scholars to those beginning a life long study of this field and to students in Russian Soviet Studies and allied fields This title provides a resource to scholars students and professionals seeking to understand the role played by education in various societies or regions of the world      The Germans of the Soviet Union Irina Mukhina, 2007-03-06 Using rarely seen archival information this book provides an account of the experiences of the Germans living in the Soviet Union from the early post revolution period to the post Soviet era following the collapse of communism      The Crimean Tatars Brian Glyn Williams, 2001-01-01 This volume provides the most up to date analysis of the ethnic cleansing of the Crimean Tatars their exile in Central Asia and their struggle to return to the Crimean homeland It also traces the formation of this diaspora nation from Mongol times to the collapse of the Soviet Union A theme which emerges through the work is the gradual construction of the Crimea as a national homeland by its indigenous Tatar population It ends with a discussion of the post Soviet repatriation of the Crimean Tatars to their Russified homeland and the social emotional and identity problems involved      The Crimean Tatars Brian Williams, 2021-11-22 Taking as its starting point the ethnogenesis of this ethnic group during the Mongol period 13th century this volume traces their history through Islam the Ottoman and the Russian Empires 15th and 17th century The author discusses how Islam Russian colonial policies and indigenous national movements shaped the collective identity of this victimized ethnic group Part two deals with the role of forced migration during the Russian colonial period Soviet nation building policies and ethnic cleansing in shaping this people's modern national identity This work therefore also has wider applications for those dealing with the construction of diasporic identities Taking a comparative approach it traces the formation of Crimean Tatar diasporas in the Ottoman Balkans Republican Turkey and Soviet Central Asia from 1944 A theme which emerges through the work is the gradual construction of the Crimea as a national homeland by its indigenous Tatar population It ends with a discussion of the post Soviet repatriation of the Crimean Tatars to their Russified homeland and the social and identity problems involved

The Slavonic Languages Professor Greville Corbett, Professor Bernard Comrie, 2003-09-01 In this scholarly volume each of the living Slavonic languages are analysed and described in depth together with the two extinct languages Old Church Slavonic and Polabian In addition the various alphabets of the Slavonic languages particularly Roman Cyrillic and Glagolitic are discussed and the relationships of the Slavonic languages to other Indo European languages and to one another are explored The last chapter provides an account of those Slavonic languages in exile for example Russian Ukrainian Polish Czech and Slovak in the USA Each language chapter is written by an expert in the field in a format designed for comparative study Information on each language includes an introductory description of social context and development where appropriate a discussion of phonology a detailed presentation of synchronic morphology noting major historical developments comprehensive treatment of syntactic properties a discussion of vocabulary an outline of main dialects and an extensive bibliography listing English and other sources

African Languages, Development and the State Richard Fardon, Graham Furniss, 2002-11 This shows that multilingualism does not pose for Africans the problems of communication that Europeans imagine and that the mismatch between policy statements and their pragmatic outcomes is a far more serious problem for future development

The Kurds Martin Short, 1981

Nationalism, Ethnicity and the State John Coakley, 2012-11-12 This exciting new book is the first to offer a truly comprehensive account of the vibrant topic of nationalism Packed with a series of rich illustrative examples the book examines this powerful and remarkable political force by exploring Definitions of nationalism Language and nationalism Religion and Nationalism Nationalist history The social roots of ideologies and the significance of race gender and class Nationalist movements from dominant majorities to peripheral minorities socio economic and sociological perspectives State responses to nationalism Supported by a number of helpful illustrations tables and diagrams the text is both engaging and highly informative Nationalism Ethnicity and the State Making and Breaking Nations will prove an insightful read for both undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in the area of Politics and International Relations

Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges
