Company Towns of the Pacific Northwest Linda Carlson,2017-09-01 Company town The words evoke images of rough and tumble loggers and gritty miners of dreary shacks in isolated villages of wages paid in scrip good only at price gouging company stores of paternalistic employers But these stereotypes are outdated especially for those company towns that flourished well into the twentieth century This new edition updates the status of the surviving towns and how they have changed in the fifteen years since the original edition and what new life has been created on the sites of the ones that were razed In the preface Linda Carlson reflects on how wonderful it has been to meet people who lived in these towns or had parents who did and to hear about their memorable experiences

Race Experts Linda Kim,2018-08-01 2019 Finalist for the Charles Rufus Morey Book Award from the CAA In Race Experts Linda Kim examines the complicated and ambivalent role played by sculptor Malvina Hoffman in The Races of Mankind series created for the Chicago Field Museum in 1930 Although Hoffman had training in fine arts and was a protégé of Auguste Rodin and Ivan Me trovi she had no background in anthropology or museum exhibits She was nonetheless commissioned by the Field Museum to make a series of life size sculptures for the museum's new racial exhibition which became the largest exhibit on race ever installed in a museum and one of the largest sculptural commissions ever undertaken by a single artist Hoffman's Races of Mankind exhibit was realized as a series of 104 bronzes of racial types from around the world a unique visual mediation between anthropological expertise and everyday ideas about race in interwar America Kim explores how the artist brought scientific understandings of race and the everyday racial attitudes of museum visitors together in powerful and productive friction The exhibition compelled the artist to incorporate not only the expertise of racial science and her own artistic training but also the popular ideas about race that ordinary Americans brought to the museum Kim situates the Races of Mankind exhibit at the juncture of these different forms of racial expertise and examines how the sculptures represented the messy resolutions between them Race Experts is a compelling story of ideological contradiction and accommodation within the racial practices of American museums artists and audiences

Ghosts of the Farm Nicola Chester, 2025-09-30 From the Wainwright Nature Prize Highly Commended author Nicola Chester, a rural narrative between two women in two different eras who both wanted to become farmers. Nicola Chester will come to be seen as a Nan Shepherd of our time. Nick Acheson, author of The Meaning of Geese. This is the story of Miss White, a woman who lived in the author's village 80 years ago, a pioneer who realised her ambition to become a farmer during the Second World War and how she worked to become accepted within this community. Nicola Chester too dreamed of becoming a farmer, but working with horses was the only path open to her. Was it easier for women to become farmers in the 1940s than it is now? Moving between Nicola's own attempts to work outdoors and Miss White's desire to farm a generation earlier, Nicola explores the parallels between their lives and the differences. Miss White buys a derelict farm and begins to renovate and modernize it. As ghost barn owls flit between these two worlds, Nicola draws connections with farming and rural life in both times, from the role of women in rural communities in the modern day to Miss White's experience in the 1940s. And how those farming modernizations have left the modern day with both a denuded landscape and farming community and a disconnect from nature. Increasingly, Nicola's research into past and present interlinks and illuminates her own battles to raise awareness of rural communities, outdoor work, and the ongoing loss of farmland birds that were so familiar to Miss White. An absolutely fascinating insight into women and farming. Nicola Chester really knows how to bring the past alive. Claire Fuller, author of The Memory of Animals.

National Geographic 125 Years Mark Collins Jenkins, 2012 A retrospective of the past 125 years of the National Geographic Society using photographs, time lines, maps, and stories to illustrate its history, milestones, and accomplishments.

Ghost Stories Peter J. Baldwin, 2024-07-15 It is not without irony that in an age characterised by the dissolution of certainty, a consequence of digital dematerialisation and the catastrophic destabilisation of our social institutions and natural world architecture, for so long the repository for our myths and the vessel for our intangible narratives and rituals has been stripped bare. Increasingly preoccupied with the physical, material, and measurable architecture has forfeited its original purpose as a mediating link between the tacit and the tangible. Drawing on the current resurgence and our enduring cultural fascination with the ethereal and uncanny, this AD frames the spectral as a deconstructive gesture that undermines the fixedness and certainties of binary logics, a means to develop new practices and positions from which to address our contemporary uncertainties. Gathering a body of work that explores and speculates on architecture's long romance with the incorporeal, the issue is intended as a catalyst through which latency contingency and indeterminacy inherent characteristics of the architectural condition can once more be valued cultivated and nurtured Contributors Kirsty Badenoch Michael Chapman Nat Chard Oliver G Goche and Peter P Goch Perry Kulper Ifigeneia Liangi and Daniel Dream Eva Menuhin Mark Morris Mike Phillips Ian Ritchie Chris Speed and Cameron Stebbing Featured architects and designers Captivate Spatial Modelling Research Group Daniel Libeskind Night Kitchen Studio Michael Sandle and Ritchie Studio National Geographic, the Wildlife Photographs John G.
