National Lampoon Presents Claire Bretecher:

National Lampoon Presents Claire Bretécher Claire Bretécher, 1978 Dreaming the Graphic Novel Paul Williams, 2020-01-17 Winner of the Best Book Award in Comics History from the Grand Comics Database Honorable Mention 2019 2020 Research Society for American Periodicals Book Prize The term graphic novel was first coined in 1964 but it wouldn't be broadly used until the 1980s when graphic novels such as Watchmen and Maus achieved commercial success and critical acclaim What happened in the intervening years after the graphic novel was conceptualized yet before it was widely recognized Dreaming the Graphic Novel examines how notions of the graphic novel began to coalesce in the 1970s a time of great change for American comics with declining sales of mainstream periodicals the arrival of specialty comics stores and at least initially a thriving underground comix scene Surveying the eclectic array of long comics narratives that emerged from this fertile period Paul Williams investigates many texts that have fallen out of graphic novel history As he demonstrates the question of what makes a text a graphic novel was the subject of fierce debate among fans creators and publishers inspiring arguments about the literariness of comics that are still taking place among scholars today Unearthing a treasure trove of fanzines adverts and unpublished letters Dreaming the Graphic Novel gives readers an exciting inside look at a pivotal moment in the art form's development

European Comics in English Translation Randall William Scott, 2002 European comic authors produced a steady stream of comic material throughout the twentieth century but gained the world's notice in 1975 when the French magazine Métal Hurlant was founded A new generation of artists and writers had begun Soon publishers were producing translations of the new comics into other languages including English and comics creators everywhere were inspired to innovation This is a reference work arranged by artist or writer to European comics from the last quarter of the twentieth century that have been translated from any European language into English It contains a variety of material from the innocent imperialism of Herge's Tintin to the sadistic murder for hire in Bernet's Torpedo Albums by a single creator or artist and writer team of European origin are the focus comics in periodicals and anthologies with multiple contributors are excluded Each entry provides a plot abstract and various notes about the original comic An author index provides brief biographical information There is a comprehensive general index

Human Behavior, 1978
The Comic Art Collection Catalog Michigan State University. Libraries. Special Collections Division, 1993 This is the most comprehensive dictionary available on comic art produced around the world The catalog provides detailed information about more than 60 000 cataloged books magazines scrapbooks fanzines comic books and other materials in the Michigan State University Libraries America's premiere library comics collection The catalog lists both comics and works about comics Each book or serial is listed by title with entries as appropriate under author subject and series Besides the traditional books and magazines significant collections of microfilm sound recordings vertical files and realia mainly T-shirts are included Comics and related materials are grouped by nationality e.g. French comics and genre e.g. funny animal comics Several times larger than any previously published bibliography list or catalog on the comic arts this unique international dictionary catalog is indispensable for all scholars and students of comics and the broad field of popular culture Mother Jones,1978 New Times ,1978 Ms. Magazine ,1978 Women's Comic Visions June Sochen,1991 Women's Comic Visions celebrates the resurgence of interest and research on contemporary women comic writers and performers and on long forgotten women humorists that has come about because of the feminist movement A collection of noteworthy essays commissioned especially for this volume the book focuses on the American experience and American women theorists on humor literary creators of humor and performers There is an interdisciplinary perspective to the book with scholars of literature psychology history and American studies analyzing America's attitudes and values regarding women and humor Included are examples of long lost women writers and cartoonists of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as well as contemporary performers such as Moms Mabley Lucille Ball Bette Midler Whoopi Goldberg and Lily Tomlin Attention is given to the similarities and differences between black and white women comic practitioners Finally the question of a woman's culture with a separate style perspective and content regarding humor is addressed giving rise to comparisons and contrasts between women's and men's humor Women's Comic Visions brings together the practical the abstract the applied and the theoretical The book dispels the conventional wisdom that women having no sense of humor could neither produce comic material nor laugh at appropriate times Time Britton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1978-04 Masters of the Ninth Art Matthew Screech, 2005-01-01 In English speaking countries Francophone comic strips like Hergé's Les Aventures de Tin Tin and Goscinny and Uderzo's Les Aventures d'Asterix are viewed and marketed as children's literature But in Belgium and France their respective countries of origin such strips known as bandes dessinées are considered a genuine art form or more specifically the ninth art But what accounts for the drastic difference in the way such comics are received In Masters of the Ninth Art Matthew Screech explores that difference in the reception and reputation of bandes dessinées Along with in depth looks at Tin Tin and Asterix Screech considers other major comics artists such as Jacques Tardi Jean Giraud and Moebius assessing in the process their role in Francophone literary and artistic culture Illustrated with images from the artists discussed Masters of the Ninth Art will appeal to students of European popular culture literature and graphic art
