Superintendent of Documents, 1992. British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost, some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of deaccessioning, mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution, this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference, one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting. Olympic National Park Tim McNulty, 2018-04-10 Renowned for its old growth rain forest, wilderness coast, and glaciated peaks, Olympic National Park is a living laboratory for ecological renewal, especially as the historic Elwha River basin regenerates in the wake of dam removal. In this classic guide to the park, Tim McNulty invites us into the natural and human history of these nearly million acres, from remote headwaters to roadside waterfalls, from shipwreck sites to Native American historical settlements, and contemporary resource stewardship along the way. Detailing the park's unique plant and animal life, McNulty reminds us that though the mountains and rivers remain timeless, our understanding of the lifeforms that inhabit them and the effects our actions have on their future is an ongoing, ever deepening story.
