Native American Action Stories Alvin Brown, 2016-01-29 Native American Action Stories relates exciting events that occurred hundreds and hundreds of years ago. This book concerns various tribes located throughout North America and Central America from frozen ice lands of the Arctic to steamy jungles of the Yucatan Peninsula. Using backgrounds based upon historical cultures and customs, the author accurately portrays some of the adventures experienced by nine diverse tribes who occupied totally different geographic regions. Major events important to a particular group are viewed through the eyes of a tribal 15 year old as he lived through these happenings. In all episodes, the positive traits of young adults are stressed. This book is distinguished from many others previously written. It is the manner in which unique tribal cultures are described in the first part of a chapter and then having such facts woven into adventure sequences featured in the latter sections. Stories are presented in play format as well as in narrative form with each tribe having its own descriptive chapter. Every chapter contains a map and several illustrations. Native American Action Stories is intended for young readers both male and female from 11 to 16 years of age.

With a goal to turn movie day into a teaching and learning opportunity rather than a virtual day off for students, this book will help invigorate classrooms of all disciplines by incorporating documentaries, feature films, short films, and animated films into the regular curriculum. Chapters begin with short and effective introductions to the specified concept with accompanying class discussion ideas and background information for the teacher. Each chapter will conclude with reproducible handouts and assignment sheets along with two to three sample activities. Opportunities for assessment suggestions for films to be used for each discipline will also be given. Grades 6-9.
