Natives Of Space 1st Edition:

Space Feminisms Marie-Pier Boucher, Claire Webb, Annick Bureau, Nahum, 2024-01-25 Employing a global approach to feminist theory this book examines how scientific popular scholarly and artistic imaginations of space have since the 1950s reflected and embedded Earthly hopes anxieties and futures Rather than simply a platform for imagining the future it cultivates radical and alternative modes of inquiry around space through seeing space as a material reality that reflexively encodes humans self perceptions of their planet and beyond Bringing together essayistic reflections artworks and interviews with space scientists engineers and astronauts past and present in one volume Space Feminisms inspects the transformation of terrestrially held notions of gender race class and ableism as they migrate to the extraterrestrial whilst drawing new connections between feminist thought and extraterrestrial power structures Space Feminisms makes a radical enquiry into how earthly power structures are already expanding into our skies facilitating a collaborative and interdisciplinary platform for scholars artists and designers to imagine radical constructions of human futures beyond Earth At the intersection of scientific cultural social and artistic speculations the book gathers leading scholars scientists artists and designers to develop innovative tactics and disruptive participations to create generative alternative and radical futures of and in space On

Video Games Soraya Murray, 2017-10-30 Today over half of all American households own a dedicated game console and gaming industry profits trump those of the film industry worldwide In this book Soraya Murray moves past the technical discussions of games and offers a fresh and incisive look at their cultural dimensions She critically explores blockbusters like The Last of Us Metal Gear Solid Spec Ops The Line Tomb Raider and Assassin's Creed to show how they are deeply entangled with American ideological positions and contemporary political cultural and economic conflicts As quintessential forms of visual material in the twenty first century mainstream games both mirror and spur larger societal fears hopes and dreams and even address complex struggles for recognition This book examines both their elaborately constructed characters and densely layered worlds whose social and environmental landscapes reflect ideas about gender race globalisation and urban life In this emerging field of study Murray provides novel theoretical approaches to discussing games and playable media as culture Demonstrating that games are at the frontline of power relations she reimagines how we see them and more importantly how we understand them Cloud Native Go Matthew A. Race and Ethnicity in America Russell M. Lawson, Benjamin A. Lawson, 2019-10-11 Divided into four volumes Race and Ethnicity in America provides a complete overview of the history of racial and ethnic relations in America from pre contact to the present The five hundred years since Europeans made contact with the indigenous peoples of America have been dominated by racial and ethnic tensions During the colonial period from 1500 to 1776 slavery and servitude of whites blacks and Indians formed the foundation for race and ethnic relations After the American Revolution slavery labor inequalities and immigration led to racial and ethnic tensions after the Civil War labor inequalities immigration and the fight for civil rights dominated America s racial and ethnic experience From the 1960s to the present the unfulfilled promise of civil rights for all ethnic and racial groups in America has been the most important sociopolitical issue in America Race and Ethnicity in America tells this story of the fight for equality in America The first volume spans pre contact to the American Revolution the second the American Revolution to the Civil War the third Reconstruction to the Civil Rights Movement and the fourth the Civil Rights Movement to the present All volumes explore the culture society labor war and politics and cultural expressions of racial and ethnic groups

Feminist Movements in Time and Space Giada Bonu Rosenkranz, Donatella della Porta, 2025-02-14 This volume provides a broad analysis of feminist movements both historical and present day in Europe It will fill the gap in the literature on feminist mobilizations through a systematic analysis of European third wave feminism from a cross national perspective covering Denmark France Greece Italy Poland Slovenia Spain and Turkey and a cross time perspective covering the time frame 2010 2021 In doing this the authors also single out the different constellations of feminist movements as related to specific national political opportunities and networks of alliance and opposition This book will be of interest to students and scholars in gender studies feminist theory and social movement studies

Perspectives in Space Surveillance Ramaswamy Sridharan, Antonio F. Pensa, 2017-05-12 The development of deep space surveillance technology and its later application to near Earth surveillance covering work at Lincoln Laboratory from 1970 to 2000 In the 1950s the United States and the Soviet Union raced to develop space based intelligence gathering capability The Soviets succeeded first with SPUTNIK I in 1957 The United States began to monitor the growing Soviet space presence by developing technology for the detection and tracking of man made resident space objects RSOs in near Earth orbit In 1972 the Soviet Union launched a satellite into deep space orbit and the U S government called on MIT Lincoln Laboratory to develop deep space surveillance technology This book describes these developments as well as the later application of deep space surveillance technology to near Earth surveillance covering work at Lincoln Laboratory on space surveillance from 1970 to 2000 The contributors all key participants in developing these technologies discuss topics that include narrow beam narrow bandwidth radar for deep surveillance wide bandwidth radar for RSO monitoring ground based electro optical deep space surveillance and its adaptation for space based surveillance radar as the means of real time search and discovery techniques methods of analyses of signature data from narrow bandwidth radars and the collision hazard for satellites in geosynchronous orbit stemming initially from the failure of TELSTAR 401 They also describe some unintended byproducts of this pioneering work including the use of optical space surveillance techniques for near Earth asteroid detection Contributors Rick Abbott Robert Bergemann E M Gaposchkin Israel Kupiec Richard Lambour Antonio F Pensa Eugene Rork Jayant Sharma Craig Solodyna Ramaswamy Sridharan J Scott Stuart George Zollinger      Future Spacecraft Propulsion Systems and Integration Paul A. Czysz, Claudio Bruno, Bernd Chudoba, 2017-08-30 The updated and expanded third edition of this book focuses on the multi disciplinary coupling between flight vehicle hardware alternatives and enabling propulsion systems It discusses how to match near term and far term aerospace vehicles to missions and provides a comprehensive overview of the subject directly contributing to the next generation space infrastructure from space tourism to space exploration This holistic treatment defines a mission portfolio addressing near term to long term space transportation needs covering sub orbital orbital and escape flight profiles In this context a vehicle configuration classification is introduced covering alternatives starting from the dawn of space access A best practice parametric sizing approach is introduced to correctly design the flight vehicle for the mission This technique balances required mission with the available vehicle solution space and is an essential capability sought after by technology forecasters and strategic planners alike      Matriculture, Shamanism, and the Authority of Women Linnéa Rowlett, Angela Sumegi, 2025-07-31 This book is an edited collection of chapters featuring research into the history and contemporary expressions of matricultures in communities that include the Basque of northern Spain and southern France the Mosuo of China the Ahtna of southern Alaska the Pangcah Amis of Taiwan and the Ho chunk and Cherokee of the contiguous United States as well as present day settler American society Based on Geertzian theory matriculture is a term used here to encompass that entire cultural system present within every society pertaining to mothers women and the feminine in other words the various cultural worlds that women inhabit voluntarily or involuntarily Power in this context represents the authority that women wield or are denied in these worlds This book then explores intersections between matriculture and power among a wide range of societies contributors document the waxing and waning of matriculture across diverse realms of the spiritual shamanic and the socio political By examining the powers that be these contributions provide new avenues of analysis and throw light on the forces at work that support or suppress women s authority action and agency They point to the social benefits of a thriving matriculture and to the conditions necessary for all members of a society to flourish      Human Migration to Space Elizabeth Song Lockard, 2014-05-13 Human migration to space will be the most profound catalyst for evolution in the history of humankind yet this has had little impact on determining our strategies for this next phase of exploration Habitation in space will require extensive technological interfaces between humans and their alien surroundings and how they are deployed will critically inform the processes of adaptation As humans begin to spend longer durations in space eventually establishing permanent outposts on other planets the scope of technological design considerations must expand beyond the meager requirements for survival to include issues not only of comfort and well being but also of engagement and negotiation with the new planetary environment that will be crucial to our longevity beyond Earth Approaching this question from an interdisciplinary approach this dissertation explores how the impact of interior space architecture can meet both the physical and psychological needs of future space colonists and set the stage for humankind to thrive and grow while setting down new roots beyond Earth
