Managing Visitor Experiences in Nature-based Tourism Julia N. Albrecht,2021-03-19 This book focuses on the experiences of tourists visiting nature based destinations exploring current knowledge and providing insights into conceptual issues through the use of empirical evidence from five continents Presented as three topics the contents discuss tourism and naturebased experiences by looking at the role and relevance of nature and the uniqueness of such experiences The book identifies visitor management challenges and provides explanations for the solutions reached The final section takes a more overarching destination management perspective that transcends the tourism product or business level and focuses on destination and generic issues like indicators or marketing implications The book also includes research based case studies which contribute to an overall understanding of the core issues involved in managing visitor experiences in nature based tourism

Sustainable Tourism, Part B Disha Sharma,Hamid Abdullah,Pramendra Singh,2024-10-14 The ultimate goal of Sustainable Tourism is to empower the industry to achieve a harmonious balance between conservation and progress forging a responsible and resilient tourism sector that caters not only to contemporary travellers but also safeguards the well being of future generations

Tourism Enterprises and Sustainable Development David Leslie,2010-03-17 The tourism industry has increasingly recognized and responded to growing environmental concerns In recent years there has been an emergence of a variety of categories of tourism considered more environmentally friendly green eco tourism and sustainable tourism Much of the literature that has addressed these developments has been orientated to the destination locale or specific to a development These texts have not sought to investigate and examine the response of government national tourist organizations to the international sustainability agenda and the responses actions of tourism enterprises to this greening agenda This text aims to address this remarkable gap This indispensable contribution to the field provides a comprehensive state of the art perspective on progress towards the objectives of sustainable development within the tourism sector across the globe by focusing on the environmental performance and adoption of environmental management systems by tourism enterprises Management, Tourism and Smart Technologies Álvaro Rocha, Carlos Montenegro, Elisabeth T. Pereira, José A. M. Victor, Waldo Ibarra, 2024-11-20 This book features a selection of articles from the 2024 International Conference on Management Tourism and Technologies ICMTT 24 held at the Universidad Nacional de San Antonio Abad del Cusco in Cusco Peru between May 9 and 11 2024 ICMTT is an international forum for researchers and practitioners to present and discuss the most recent innovations trends results experiences and concerns in the several perspectives of Management Tourism and Technologies The main and distinctive areas covered are Area A Managements Area B Tourism Area C Marketing strategies in Management Tourism and Technology and Area D Technology The primary market of this book is postgraduates and researchers in Management Tourism and Technologies fields And the secondary market is undergraduates and professionals as well in management tourism and technologies fields Animals and Tourism Kevin Markwell, 2015-05-01 This book critically examines the many ways in which tourism and animals intersect whether as tourist attractions wildlife conservation tools as travel companions or as meat to be eaten It aims to make a meaningful contribution to the growing body of knowledge concerning the relationships between animals tourists and the tourism industry The chapters are organised into three themes ethics and welfare conflict contradiction and contestation and shifting relationships Theoretically informed and empirically rich the chapters examine topics such as whale watching animal performances the objectification and commodification of animals and stakeholder conflict among a range of others It is hoped that the book will help to highlight key research questions and stimulate other researchers and students to reflect critically on the place of animals within tourism spaces experiences practices and structures The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management Chris Cooper, Serena Volo, William C. Gartner, Noel Scott, 2018-08-06 The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Management is a critical state of the art and authoritative review of tourism management written by leading international thinkers and academics in the field With a strong focus on applications of theories and concepts to tourism the chapters in this volume are framed as critical synoptic pieces covering key developments current issues and debates and emerging trends and future considerations for the field Part One Approaching Tourism Part Two Destination Applications Part Three Marketing Applications Part Four Tourism Product Markets Part Five Technological Applications Part Six Environmental Applications This handbook offers a fresh contemporary and definitive look at tourism management making it an essential resource for academics researchers and students Multi-Criteria Methodology for the Dynamic Development of Tourist Areas Constantin Zopounidis, George Fakotakis, 2025-07-01 This book explores how multi criteria analysis MCA methodologies can enhance sustainable tourism management in protected areas with Samaria National Park in Crete as a primary case study Topics include the global impact of tourism the role of national parks in conservation and how nature based tourism NBT supports local economies Through the Multi Criteria Satisfaction Analysis MUSA method it examines visitor satisfaction over time including shifts due to the COVID 19 pandemic and provides actionable strategies for balancing visitor needs with environmental conservation Ideal for tourism professionals environmental policymakers and researchers in sustainable development this book bridges theory and practical applications for lasting success in tourism and conservation

Quality Assurance and Certification in Ecotourism Rosemary Black,Alice Crabtree,2007 Genuine ecotourism can have many positive impacts particularly the conservation of biodiversity and cultural heritage and the creation of economic opportunities for local communities While promoting these it aims to eliminate negative impacts such as environmental degradation cultural commoditisation and playground effects Unfortunately the concept is broadly misunderstood and its true definition is widely debated It is often used as a marketing tool with some operators taking advantage of the ecotourism label to attract more business while behaving in environmentally irresponsible ways This book considers the important topic of quality control and accreditation in ecotourism describing the mechanisms that can be implemented to ensure quality in all aspects of the industry namely protected areas businesses products and tour guides Creating a Sustainable Ecology Using Technology-Driven Solutions Carayannis, Elias G.,2013-03-31 As advancements in technology continue to influence all facets of society its aspects have been utilized in order to find solutions to emerging ecological issues Creating a Sustainable Ecology Using Technology Driven Solutions highlights matters that relate to technology driven solutions towards the combination of social ecology and sustainable development This publication addresses the issues of development in advancing and transitioning economies through creating new ideas and solutions making it useful for researchers practitioners and policy makers in the socioeconomic sectors The Management of Insects in Recreation and Tourism Raynald Harvey Lemelin,2012-11-22 Insects such as cockroaches mosquitoes and bed bugs are usually not highly sought amongst travellers or recreationists yet each year collectors butterfly enthusiasts dragonfly hunters and apiarists collect visit document and raise insects for recreational purposes Illustrating a range of human insect encounters from an interdisciplinary perspective this book provides the first insight into the booming industry of insect recreation Case studies and examples demonstrate the appeal of insects ranging from the captivating beauty of butterflies to the curious fascination of locust swarms and challenge the notion that animals lacking anthropomorphic features hold little or no interest for humans Throughout the book the emphasis is on the innovators the educators the dedicated researchers and activists who through collaboration across fields ranging from entomology to sociology and anthropology have brought insects from the recreational fringes to the forefront of many conservation and leisure initiatives Conservation Tourism Ralf Buckley,2010 Can tourism really support conservation by providing finance or political support for public private or community protected areas This volume tests such claims through a continent by continent review of commercial tourism enterprises worldwide The role of conservation tourism is increasingly important as human populations expand and climate change intensifies

Marine Wildlife and Tourism Management James E. S. Higham, Michael Lück, 2008 This book seeks to underscore the need for scientific approaches to first understanding and then managing tourist interactions with marine wildlife It draws upon the work of leading natural and social scientists whose work serves the interests of sustainable wildlife based marine tourism Thus from within the natural science disciplines of marine biology environmental science behavioural ecology conservation biology and wildlife management come chapters that provide insights into the effects of human disturbance on marine wildlife the impacts that tourists may have upon wild animals and the management approaches to mitigating impacts that may in the long term be biologically significant Equally from the social science disciplines of geography sociology management and social anthropology are drawn chapters that explore demand for marine wildlife experiences the benefits that visitors derive from their experiences ethical and legislative contexts and management issues that arise when tourists interact with populations of wild animals in coastal and marine environments
