PART II: WHY STORY?

Preaching The Story

Preaching The Story:

Preaching the Story Edmund A. Steimle, Morris J. Niedenthal, Charles L. Rice, 2003-04-24 Preaching the Story Jeffrey W. Frymire, 2006-01-01 Preaching the Story explains why the attentiveness of your congregation rises when you become a sacred storyteller. It explores why communication is more effective when your sermons are no longer lectures but stories. In fact, it explains how to deliver your entire sermon in story form. Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W. Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice. Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry, it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching. This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity built upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture. Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out, providing a positive effect thereby affording non-narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles. Ultimately, it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way. However, in showing these practical examples, the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching. In the final analysis, it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching. Preaching the Story That Shapes Us Dan Boone, 2008 In our world, stories matter. Methods and systems are beneficial because they provide structure and help keep us on the right road, but the motivation and courage to keep walking the road come from the stories we hear and see and experience. Stories that inspire hope and bring us face to face with God. For ministers, the call to preach is a call into a story that forms and shapes us. It's about stumbling into revelation as life unwinds and scripture unfolds. It's about listening to God's voice and then sharing it with others. It's about recognizing that when people gather to hear a sermon, God speaks. And it's about understanding that when He speaks, He speaks through you. Preaching the Story That Shapes Us is more than a textbook on preaching. It's an empowering call for preachers to present a picture of the kingdom of God already at work among us, recognizing that the work of preaching is not just about arranging words; it's about people. With elegant prose and crafted reason, Dan Boone weaves together scripture, personal narrative, structure, and theological reflection to provide a satisfying, efficient guide to narrative preaching. From exploring the importance of biography to walking readers through creative processes that shape the sermon, Boone shows preachers how to awaken lives and share the stories of God that reveal who we are and lead us to who we will be. The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago, the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical. Unfortunately, they were sometimes tedious too. Narrative preaching aimed to fix that, advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture. Preaching

The Story of Preaching T. A. Prickett, 2011-06-09 The Story of Preaching is a fresh look at the preacher and preaching from the early days of the Church until today It is not a history of preaching because there are some obvious gaps in the timeline What I have attempted to do is to describe the preacher and the characteristics of the period in which he or she lived One of the things which I have tried to do is to show how the preachers handled the issues of their day One of my objectives in doing this is to help the preachers of my day to address the issues of this era as the preachers of old addressed the issues in their time The book will show that some who dared to challenge the attitudes of their day faced many challenges and some even faced death because of their commitment to apply the principles of the gospel to the status quo of their day However the book will show that there were those who challenged the mode of their time without facing death or threats of death They found a way to present their concerns to their constituents in a way that led to success The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman's preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn't always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O'Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching The Old, Old Story Cothen, Th.D., Joe H.,2003 Stewards of the Story James Earl Massey,2006-01-01 In this insightful study James Earl Massey offers an expanded version of the Twelfth Annual William E Conger Jr Lectures on Biblical Preaching that he delivered at Beeson Divinity School in February 2004 Through a unique collection of informative lectures and illustrative sermons the highly esteemed teacher and preacher considers four dimensions of the preacher as steward of the gospel story Pastors will warmly welcome this book as it provides them with both practical guidance and insight about their identity as preachers Telling the Old, Old Story (Larsen) David L. Larsen,2000 Telling God's Story John W. Wright,2007-04-16 John W Wright presents a new model of preaching that aims to connect the biblical text with a congregation so that they are formed into a true Christian community I Love to Preach the Story: summer series preaching from the RCL Year A, a semi-continuous alternative Old Testament reading Rolf Svanoe,2022 When looking for a way to produce a sermon series for the summer months pastors may struggle to find a theme that will be of interest to their congregation Rolf Svanoe has compiled some of his own sermons into I Love to Preach the Story as possibilities for busy pastors to draw from when writing their own sermons Svanoe has structured this book so that pastors could preach through Old Testament stories in a series format engaging their congregations and including often skipped over stories As an experienced pastor Svanoe offers this book as an opportunity for pastors to focus on lessons often excluded from the Revised Common Lectionary This book is one in an three part series by Svanoe detailing years A B his other books will focus on Lessons of Leadership and A Summer of Prophet Sharing What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves,2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell's telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff's memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God's angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you'll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen To Tell the Story C. Thomas Elkins,2011-02-10 Those of us hearing a Well Told Story may become more aware of the Implications of that story than by a mere recital of facts The use of the Story Form of relating an event may be the best method of capturing the significance of the actual event In the understanding and presentation of the Christian faith Story is considered as a fundamental category of reality It is the perfect vehicle for presenting the Good News of the Gospel John Paul Roth The presentation of real events in story form preserves the remembrance of reality without limiting its implications to the mere recording of historical facts The Gospel story carries us beyond the realm of human understanding into the higher realm of faith The power of story assists us in bridging the gap between the inexplicable in the Gospel Story and the human experience This holds true with the stories which accompany and support the underlying Story of God in Jesus Christ True stories as is the Gospel Story will take precedence over stories told only for entertainment or to serve a specific agenda Yet even the stories of integrity and truth need to be told well and with skill This is discussed in detail herein As Theologians we must tell the Story with truth and understanding as Evangelists with persuasiveness and tolerance and as Preachers or Witnesses we must share the Story often convincingly and with Love Loving God loving each other and the Story never ends

Imaginal Preaching James A. Wallace, 1995 Imaginal Preaching An Archetypal Perspective is based upon the analytical psychology of Carl Gustav Jung and the archetypal psychology of James Hillman This book validates the persistence of image and its integrity as the alternative to rhetoric It approaches preaching as poesis an act of making shaping and forming of and by images
