The Lectionary Commentary Richard A. Burridge, Colin E. Gunton, Roger E. Van Harn, Preachers pastors ministers and priests know how rapidly Sundays come and go under the pressure of parish life Protecting time for study and theological reflection is increasingly difficult in the modern world These three masterly volumes provide tastes of theological exegesis for Sunday s texts that will stimulate reflection They are not books of sermons Each exegetical entry included three elements engagement with the biblical text theological reflection and awareness of the context within which the sermon will be spoken and heard They all respond to one central question What does the preacher need to know about this lesson in order to preach a faithful sermon from it New Proclamation Commentary on Feasts, Holy Days, and Other Celebrations Bill Doggett, Gordon W. Lathrop, 2007 New Proclamation Commentary on Feasts Holy Days and Other Celebrations continues the tradition of excellent biblical commentary that users of the seasonal New Proclamation volumes have come to expect This volume offers essential historical background about each of thirty five so called lesser feasts and places each day into the context of the church year Quotes related to the festival day from prayers liturgies and other sources have been included to help enliven the sermon and enhance worship along with other guidance for preaching Commentary and recommended texts for ten national days and nonliturgical celebrations are also included Into Your Hand Brueggemann Walter, 2015-10-27 This set of seven sermons follows the traditional church sequence of utterances that the gospel narratives place on the lips of Jesus They connect that reality of faith and abuse in our contemporary world of concentrated ruthless power Covenantal Conversations Darrell Jodock, Explores the eight most important topics in Jewish Christian relations Features the key leaders in Jewish Christian relations and theology Includes a study of the Arab Israel Palestinian conflict Christ in the Gospels of the Liturgical Year Raymond E. Brown, 2012-05-03 2009 Catholic Press Association Award Winner A decade after the untimely death of renowned Scripture scholar Father Raymond E Brown SS he continues to inspire and inform scholars and preachers students and pastoral ministers lay and ordained It was only days after Father Brown's death that his final book was published by Liturgical Press That book Christ in the Gospels of the Ordinary Sundays completed his six volume series on preaching the Scriptures a series that had begun in the mid 1970s with the publication of his popular An Adult Christ at Christmas Those six volumes are collected here in one convenient commemorative edition to mark the tenth anniversary of Brown's death Brown's work is left largely untouched and readers will find that his wisdom is lasting Yet Brown being a scholar's scholar would recognize the need for some enhancement in a work being republished some thirty years after the first volume appeared Appropriately then this edition contains introductory essays by Brown's colleagues and friends John R Donahue SJ and Ronald D Witherup SS as well as useful indexes and a bibliography of resources for preaching the word of God in the context of the lectionary As Witherup notes in his preface Brown had the rare capacity to simplify complex biblical studies in a manner that did not dumb down the material but allowed it to be understood by a wide audience He did this in a fashion that was both inspiring and educational That very broad audience those who grew up with Brown so to speak as well as a whole new generation of readers and preachers of the word will find this book to be a source of inspiration and knowledge that they will turn to again and again Raymond E Brown S S 1928 1998 was the Auburn Distinguished Professor of Biblical Studies at Union Theological Seminary in New York City He was author of some forty books on the Bible and past president of three of the most important biblical societies in the world By appointment of two popes Pal VI in 1972 John Paul II in 1996 Brown was a member of the Roman Pontifical Biblical Commission Time magazine called him probably the premier Catholic Scripture scholar of the U S The Lectionary Commentary Roger E. Van Harn, 2005-09-09 The three volume Lectionary Commentary gathers exegetical essays on 513 biblical texts from the Revised Common Lectionary spanning the three year liturgical cycle Seventy eight pastors priests and teachers from a variety of Christian traditions have contributed exegetical insights on the First Second and Gospel lections for the Sundays of the church year and for Christmas Day Epiphany and Ascension Day Preachers who follow the Revised Common Lectionary will find these volumes useful However the commentary's unique organization makes it useful to all preachers While the three volumes are organized according to the First Second and Gospel lections for each Sunday The Lectionary Commentary lists all texts in their canonical order This arrangement affirms the lectionary by identifying each reading according to its traditional place in the three year cycle but it also lends itself to other preaching patterns Whether used traditionally or thematically volume by volume or as a set The Lectionary Commentary will be an invaluable aid to those commissioned to preach the gospel from biblical texts for the congregations they serve Consulting Editors Richard A Burridge Thomas W Gillespie Colin E Gunton Robert W Jenson James F Kay Hughes Oliphant Old Fleming Rutledge Marguerite Shuster
