Prejudice In Religion Can We Move Beyond It:

Prejudice in Religion Peter Cornwell, 1997 This is a debate on the historical roots of religious prejudice between Anglicans and Roman Catholics based on the Piccadilly Lectures This book examines the meaning of prejudice is it just the label we give to the convictions of people we don't agree with The book asks if unity is only possible when the sharp edges of conviction are blunted A team of contributors reflect on some of the issues raised by the original lectures The issues go beyond the world of Anglo Roman Catholic relations touching the very foundations of society Advances in the

Psychology of Religion Michael Argyle, 2013-10-22 This collection of previously unpublished papers written by well known researchers in the psychology of religion is unique in its broad coverage and in its comparison between quite different and strictly theoretical perspectives The subjects range from theoretical analyses of social science perspectives on religion and its methods to reports of experimental correlational or descriptive studies of religious experience and attitudes The emphasis throughout is on the directions in which this work might move in the future Religion or Belief, Discrimination and

Equality Paul Weller, Kingsley Purdam, Nazila Ghanea, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2013-11-07 In recent years controversial issues related to religion or belief discrimination equality and human rights have come to the fore especially in the context of public debates around multiculturalism following the social policy shock created by the impact of violent religious extremism For example should there be restrictions on what people can wear in the work place based on their religious identity Should religious organizations be exempt from aspects of equalities legislation which are not in line with their beliefs and values How should non religious identities be recognized In the context of increasing cultural and religion or belief diversity it is vitally important for the future to understand the nature and extent of discrimination and unfair treatment on the grounds of religion or belief and to assess the adequacy of policies practices and laws designed to tackle this This includes the overlap of religion or belief identities with other aspects of people's identity including characteristics such as age disability race sex and sexual orientation which can also be legally protected This volume is a benchmark publication on religion discrimination and equality It includes data and insights derived from the fieldwork focus groups and questionnaire survey of a recent national research project in Britain Its analysis presents a unique insight into continuity and change in people's reported experience over a decade of equalities legislation and political and social change of unfair treatment on the basis of religion or belief Grounded in empirical and contextualized data its findings are placed in the context of European and international human rights law Its findings will be of special interest to both scholars and practitioners working in the specific fields of education employment the media criminal justice and immigration housing health care social services and funding as well as in the broader fields of religion or belief the law and public policy Roman Catholic Saints and Early Victorian Literature Devon Fisher, 2016-04-08 Offering readings of nineteenth century travel narratives works by Tractarians the early writings of Charles Kingsley and the poetry of Alfred Tennyson Devon Fisher examines representations of Roman Catholic saints in

Victorian literature to assess both the relationship between conservative thought and liberalism and the emergence of secular culture during the period The run up to Victoria's coronation witnessed a series of controversial liberal reforms While many early Victorians considered the repeal of the Test and Corporation Acts 1828 the granting of civil rights to Roman Catholics 1829 and the extension of the franchise 1832 significant advances for others these three acts signaled a shift in English culture by which authority in matters spiritual and political was increasingly ceded to individuals Victorians from a variety of religious perspectives appropriated the lives of Roman Catholic saints to create narratives of English identity that resisted the recent cultural shift towards private judgment Paradoxically conservative Victorians handling of the saints and the saints lives in their sheer variety represented an assertion of individual authority that ultimately led to a synthesis of liberalism and conservatism and was a key feature of an emergent secular state characterized not by disbelief but by a range of possible beliefs Moving beyond Theoria toward Theosis Justin A. Davis, 2024-06-10 Moving Beyond Theoria

Towards Theosis focuses on the telos of man as understood in Plato's theoria envisioned in the allegory of the cave and early Christian reinterpretation of theoria as theosis In his famed allegory of the cave Plato maintains that real life exists beyond our base perceptions of reality and is found in the realm of ideas Theoria is eternal rest in this realm and is understood as the telos of mankind Plato's theoria underwent change as it was reinterpreted under middle Platonic and neo Platonic thought These systems incorporated a more mature idea of the divine than Plato but still minimized the material world This book explores how early Christianity inherited Plato's cosmology and terminology Theoria was also reinterpreted within the Christian context Eventually the term was abandoned for theosis Theosis is beyond theoria as it includes contemplation of the forms as well as union with the source of the forms and the affirmation of the material realm In this volume Justin A Davis shows how the Orthodox use of icons can be key to understanding theosis The icon is a material object that connects to a higher reality and ultimately toward union with the divine Plato's cosmology is collapsed and transfigured in union with the uncreated energy of God Icons are the depiction of spiritual ascesis and the new telos of man theosis The Psychology of Prejudice Mark P. Zanna, James M. Olson, 2013-04-15 This volume consists of expanded and updated versions of papers presented at the Seventh Ontario Symposium on Personality and Social Psychology The series is designed to bring together scholars from across North America who work in the same substantive area with the goals of identifying common concerns and integrating research findings The topic of this symposium was the psychology of prejudice and the presentations covered a wide variety of issues The papers present state of the art research programs addressing prejudice from the point of view of both the bigoted person as well as the victim of bigotry The chapter authors confront this issue from two major and previously separate research traditions the psychology of attitude and intergroup conflict The chapters are organized in the following sequence of topics the determinants and consequences of stereotypes individual differences in prejudicial attitudes intergroup relations the responses of victims to prejudice and discrimination and an integrative summary commentary

Illustrating both the diversity and vitality of research on the psychology of prejudice the editors hope that this volume will stimulate further research and theorizing in this area Communicating Prejudice Michael L. Hecht, 1998-04-13 A new integrative conceptual model of prejudice the layered perspective of cultural intolerance is presented in the volume This model is used to analyze the communication of prejudice in a variety of guises such as racism sexism homophobia ageism and classism Drawing on multidisciplinary perspectives the first two chapters present the model and theoretical foundation for the book Subsequent chapters examine specific foci of prejudice including personal prejudice in relationships organizations and the media A series of personal narratives are included to illustrate specific types and instances of prejudice

Religion, Equality and Employment in Europe Katayoun Alidadi, 2017-06-15 The management of religious and ideological diversity remains a key challenge of our time deeply entangled with debates about the nature of liberal democracy equality social cohesion minorities and nationalism security and foreign policy This book explores this challenge at the level of the workplace in Europe People do not surrender their religion of belief at the gates of their workplace nor should they be required to do so But what are the limits of accommodating religious belief in the workplace particularly when it clashes with other fundamental rights and freedoms Using a comparative and socio legal approach that emphasises the practical role of human rights anti discrimination law and employment protection this book argues for an enforceable right to reasonable accommodation on the grounds of religion and belief in the workplace in Europe In so doing it draws on the case law of Europe s two supranational courts three country studies Belgium the Netherlands and the UK as well as developments in the US and Canada By offering the first book length treatment of the issue it will be of significance to academics students policy makers business leaders and anyone interested in a deeper understanding of the potentials and limits of European and Western inclusion freedom and equality in a multicultural context Awarded an honourable mention from the International Academy of Comparative Law for the 2018 Canada Prize

Encounters for Change Dagmar Grefe, 2011-11-14 Weaving together insights from social psychology theology and experiences of interfaith religious leaders Dagmar Grefe develops practical strategies that support interreligious contact at a grassroots level She shows that by working together religious communities can more effectively address global and local problems that all people face poverty environmental destruction and armed conflict Grefe describes interreligious cooperation at work in local communities She develops tools that equip religious leaders with the interreligious competence needed for spiritual care and counseling with individual persons in crisis Cooperation is not only effective in the care for communities and persons in crisis it also heals distant and strained interreligious relationships In the process of working together perceptions of each other can transform

The Routledge Handbook of Religious Literacy, Pluralism, and Global Engagement Chris Seiple, Dennis R. Hoover, 2021-12-27 This pioneering handbook proposes an approach to pluralism that is relational principled and non relativistic going beyond banal calls for mere tolerance The growing religious diversity within societies around the world presents both challenges and opportunities A degree of competition between deeply held religious worldview perspectives is natural and inevitable yet at the same time the world urgently needs engagement and partnership across lines of difference None of the world's most pressing problems can be solved by any single actor and as such it is not a question of if but when you partner with an individual or institution that does not think act or believe as you do The authors argue that religious literacy defined as a dynamic combination of competencies and skills continuously refined through real world cross cultural engagement is vital to building societies and states of neighborly solidarity and civic fairness Through examination reflection and case studies across multiple faith traditions and professional fields this handbook equips scholars and students as well as policymakers and practitioners to assess analyze and act collaboratively in a world of deep diversity The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Figuring Racism in Medieval Christianity M. Lindsay Kaplan, 2019 M Lindsay Kaplan expands the study of the history of racism through an analysis of the medieval Christian concept of Jewish servitude Developed through exegetical readings of Biblical figures in canon law this discourse produces a racial status of hereditary inferiority that justifies the subordination not only of Jews but of Muslims and Africans as well

Religious Trauma and Misunderstandings: Richard Ravenbrook, 2024-11-26 What if you've been unintentionally causing harm even with the best of intentions As we navigate through this conversation we dissect the unfortunate reality of the corporate church's detachment from Christ's values and how this has given rise to religious zealots speaking for an omnipotent God We also celebrate our diverse traditions races and cultures as a God-given design In the second part of our discussion we face the uncomfortable clash between tradition and acceptance People often forsake their heritage in favor of something new and unfamiliar leading to spiritual confusion We consider a local bar in Lebanon Indiana wanting to host a drag show as a real life illustration of this clash We emphasize the importance of living true to oneself while advocating for freedom and peace Wrapping things up we explore the potential religious trauma that can stem from misunderstandings about our cultural and spiritual heritage So tune in and join us for a candid and enlightening conversation

New Faiths, Old Fears Bruce B. Lawrence, 2004-10-20 As a result of immigration from Asia in the wake of the passage of the 1965 Hart-Celler Immigration Act the fastest growing religions in America faster than all Christian groups combined are Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Sikhism In this remarkable book a leading scholar of religion asks how these new faiths have changed or have been changed by the pluralist face of American civil society How have these new religious minorities been affected by the deep-rooted American ambivalence toward foreign traditions Bruce Lawrence casts a comparativist eye on the American religious scene and explores the ways in which various groups of Asian immigrants have and sometimes have not been integrated into the American polity In the process he offers several important correctives Too often Lawrence argues profiles of Asian American experience focus exclusively on immigrants from East Asia to the exclusion of South Asian and West Asian voices New Faiths

Old Fears seeks to make all Asians equally important and to break free of traditional geographic markers most reflecting nineteenth century imperial values that artificially divide the people of the Middle East from the rest of Asia with whom they share certain religious and cultural ties Iranian Americans in particular emerge as a vital bridge group whose experience tells us much about how Asians of many different backgrounds have found their way in their new nation Beyond simply expanding and refining our conception of who Asian Americans are Lawrence draws instructive comparisons between Asian Americans experience and those of Native African and Hispanic Americans exposing undercurrents of racial and class antagonisms He concludes that we cannot fully comprehend the contours and valences of culture and religion in America without understanding how this racialized class prejudice shapes the views of the dominant class toward immigrants and other marginal groups

Celestial Order: Tracing Anthropocentric Racism in Mythology and Religion Kathlene Herberger, 2025-02-08 Throughout recorded mythology and religious texts a disturbing pattern emerges in the relationship between divine entities and humanity one that mirrors humanity's own relationship with livestock Celestial Order Tracing Anthropocentric Racism in Mythology and Religion offers a comprehensive analysis of the systematic devaluation of human life by divine beings across multiple civilizations and eras This book begins by defining the concept of anthropocentric racism and exploring its historical context and implications It delves into the hierarchical structures present in various mythologies and religions examining power dynamics between gods and humans Through a comparative analysis the book reveals how these divine hierarchies have shaped societal structures and influenced human perceptions of worth Unveiling consistent mythological evidence of anthropocentric racism Celestial Order offers profound insights into the complex dynamics between divine entities and humanity This scholarly examination is an essential read for those interested in the intersection of mythology religion and societal values

WIRED FOR RACISM? James Woodall, Mark Ellingsen, 2022-08-01 Why is there so much racism in America when most of us claim we are not racists Drawing on evolutionary insights the latest research on the human brain and wisdom from religious traditions Mark Ellingsen and James Woodall explore this question with a unique perspective They detail the ways in which we are in some ways wired for racism but they also show how the elasticity of the brain enables genuine progress particularly when aided by religious practices and best practices of the civil rights movement If you are looking for a way to challenge the racial idolatry and race based thinking that characterizes many of the social legal and economic structures in our world today this is the book for you

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Whose Responsibility? Tanja

Dreher, 2007-01-01 This research monograph documents and analyses the many ways in which communities experiencing racism after September 11 2001 have responded to increased prejudice harassment and discrimination While much research analyses the problem of racism this book highlights the responses developed by targeted communities including strategies of Interfaith cross cultural education media responses and community cultural development work A follow up to the 2006 work Targeted the research underlying this book is based on extensive community consultations and interviews with Arab Muslim and Sikh communities in Sydney It maps the field and identifies common challenges with the aim of contributing to wider processes of innovation in community anti racism work Xenosophobia and Religion. Biographical and Statistical

Paths for a Culture of Welcome Heinz Streib, Constantin Klein, 2018-07-20 This book documents the current polarization in Germany regarding the issue of refugee immigration It presents quantitative estimates for both xenophobia and xenophilia in the German population including short time changes The book suggests a conceptual change of perspectives It focuses not only on the pathogenic model that accounts for outcomes such as xenophobia Islamophobia and other forms of inter religious prejudice but on a salutogenic model In the book s view the salutogenic model entails xenosophobia the wisdom creativity and inspiration that emerges from the encounter with the strange and the strange religion The book addresses individual dispositions which may lead to xenophobia or xenosophobia and takes into account predictors such as religiosity religious schemata value preferences tolerance of complexity and violence legitimizing norms of masculinity A selection of case studies present typical biographical trajectories toward xenosophobia Divided by Faith Michael O. Emerson, Christian Smith, 2001

Through a nationwide survey the authors of this study conclude that US Evangelicals may actually be preserving the racial chasm not through active racism but because their theology hinders their ability to recognise systematic injustice On the Nature of Prejudice John F. Dovidio, Peter Glick, Laurie A. Rudman, 2008-04-15 On the Nature of Prejudice commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Gordon Allport s classic work on prejudice and discrimination by examining the current state of knowledge in the field A distinguished collection of international scholars considers Allport s impact on the field reviews recent developments and identifies promising directions for future investigation Organized around Allport's central themes this book provides a state of the art comprehensive view of where the field has been where it is now and where it is going
