

The World Trail Majors is the latest circuit to enter trail running. Since its announcement it attracted many fans due to the level and relevance of the races included. Indeed, the World Trail Majors focused on established races, from Transgrancanaria to Ultra Trail Cape Town and many others. The circuit prides itself to be community-based and generate positive synergies between the races thanks to the information shared between the race directors.

We looked back at its first 12 months together with founding member and HK100 race director, Steve Brammar
