falling in love yet we never learn about it in school Societies and religions force us into models and thought forms that are often in opposition to an organic model of love which is instead institutionalised by marriage religious affiliations and nationalism This results in love that is for most people a painful challenge in one form or another throughout life In these modern days where the focus shifts more and more to realising one's individual potential Osho helps us to direct our search for love by widening our view showing us that love has many manifestations and is not limited to the other One manifestation of love is meditation a life changing experience that allows the flowering of real love within oneself and toward others The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on the most important questions in the life of the individual Each volume contains timeless yet contemporary investigations and discussions into questions vital to our personal search for meaning and purpose The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on questions specific to our inner life and quality of existence for example is it possible to have an authentic spirituality without a belief in God What is meditation and how does it work What can I do as an individual to make the world a better place Yell Less, Love More Sheila McCraith, 2014-11 Do you often find yourself losing your cool and yelling at your kids It happens to us all but it doesn't have to With Yell Less Love More you'll learn practical simple solutions to keep you focused on loving more and yelling less no matter what the circumstance It is possible to change and enjoy a calmer life because of it Take the Orange Rhino 30 day challenge to yell less In this guidebook to happier parenting author Sheila McCraith shares daily thoughts tips and motivational personal stories to help you toss out the screams and welcome in the peace Whether you have one child or twenty or one you still yell at who is twenty strengthen your relationships and maybe even laugh a little more by taking the challenge today The Rhino A naturally calm animal that charges when provoked The Orange Rhino A person that parents with warmth and determination and who doesn't charge with words when angry impatient or simply in a bad mood Sermon I. [on] 1 John v. 9-12. (Sermon II. Sermon III. Sermon IV. [By J. MacL. Campbell.]), 1830 Toward More Family-Centered Family Sciences Howard M. Bahr, Kathleen S. Bahr, 2009-03-16 Much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter Toward More Family Centered Family Sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both The authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways They place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures Drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society They argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families About Love Robert C. Solomon, 2006-09-30 A subtle and distinguished work by a philosopher renowned for his groundbreaking analysis of human emotions About Love Monetary Wisdom Thomas Li-Ping Tang, 2024-05-16 Money is the instrument of commerce and a measure of value Globalization has created economic prosperity for citizens around the world These challenges have changed how people work live and do business Monetary Wisdom Monetary Aspirations and Decision Making presents an excellent collection of innovative and a multi cultural view of how money has affected decision making not only at an individual level but at organizational level This book discusses the powerful motivators of money and the connection to ethical decision making both in organizations and social life Inspires readers to learn one of the world's most often used money attitude measures Notices that in modern societies money is power at the individual level Suggests that monetary aspirations not money itself predict cheating Profiles that reducing stress curbs dishonesty directly and indirectly Illustrates that leaders promote employees honesty and creativity Reveals how corruption expands prospect theory to a global level Explores the contexts to achieve balanced aspirations and serenity Love and Society Swen

Seebach, 2017-04-21 Why does love matter Love and Society discusses the meaning and importance of love for contemporary society Love is not only an emotion that occurs in our intimate relationships it is a special emotion that allows us to relate to each other in a lasting fashion to create out of our individual pasts a shared past which enables us to project a shared future Bringing together the idea of Simmel's second order forms with theories of love this insightful volume shows that the answer to why love is so central to society can be found in the social transformation of the last two centuries It also explains how we can build our strongest social bonds on the fragility of an emotions thanks to the creation of special moments love rituals and intimate stories love myths that are central to the weaving of lasting social bonds Going to the cinema reading a book together or sharing songs are forms of weaving bonds of love and part of the cycle of love But love is not only shared between two people the desire and the search for love is something we share with almost all members of society With rich empirical data an analysis of love's transformation in modernity and a critical engagement with classical and contemporary theorists this book provides a lively discussion on the meaning and importance of love for today's society It will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers who are interested in fields such as Sociology of Emotions Sociological Theory and Sociology of Morality A Dictionary of the English Language Noah Webster, 1831

Erotic Faith Mari Kim, 2022-03-24 The thought of contemporary North American theologian and ethicist Wendy Farley is an unflinching clarion call to justice and compassion Farley invites us to discover ways of embodying the deep compassion capable of resisting pernicious distortions and traumatizing injustices that harm and dehumanize us all This volume of essays embodies her invitation to awaken as beloved community And when we are overwhelmed by the magnitude of struggle and despair Farley reminds us that the powerful longing of hope at times against all evidence refuses to give up on seeking justice and wholeness Compassionate justice radical hospitality creative liberation and deep listening emerge as more than ethical values for Farley they are expressions of erotic faith a praxis of faithfulness born of divine desire These writings explore transformative perspectives and practices that have the capacity to help us recover and author our identity as the god bearers we are Erotic faith embodies the love seeking persistence of divine faithfulness necessary to transform us from within it meets the truth of human harm vulnerability and suffering by offering a complex struggling unscripted creativity capable of remaking us and our world until the beloved community is whole Tracking God Ivana Noble, 2010-01-01 This book offers an introduction to some of the fundamental themes of theology. From the very beginning however it insists on the contribution to be found in the different Christian traditions. The reader is enabled to view these traditions as part of a common heritage. Drawing on the wealth of these understandings of what it is to be Christian can be an inspiration for those from very different church structures and even for people who seek to understand their own spiritual journey and search for God without identifying themselves or their journey with any particular church. A number of important theological questions are covered in the book. It starts with a look at theological method before examining the idea of divine revelation. This is followed by investigating the nature of authority and authorities in different churches and where these coincide and come into conflict. The historical and cultural contexts of theology and its roots in religious experience are also examined. Each theme has a biblical and patristic part as well as a genuinely reciprocal discussion involving contemporary Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant theologians.

The Gift of Love Andrew Staron, 2017-02-01. The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine's claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love. Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship, Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits. Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self-revelation transforms and saves us. Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart. Jean-Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life. The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions of the Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love.

The Strand Magazine, 1922 Three to Get Married Fulton John Sheen, 1951. An incisive look at right and wrong notions about sex and love. The author covers marriage from practically every aspect with a view of imparting its proper role and purpose. From the damage caused by indiscriminate sex education to the three basic tensions in marriage he shows the Catholic Church's teaching on marriage from the standpoints of philosophy, theology and morality.
