Reducing Vulnerability And Increasing Opportunity Social Protection In Middle East And North Africa:

Reducing Vulnerability and Increasing Opportunity, 2002 The economies in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region are diverse in many ways making it difficult to develop a common social protection strategy Countries differ in size and per capita income There are differences between urban rural populations agricultural non farm employment and the structure of output between oil non oil economies However the countries of the MENA region share key socioeconomic characteristics and their social protection systems also confront similar design and implementation problems This report provides a framework for an integrated approach to social protection It also proposes general recommendations to guide the reform of social protection systems in the MENA region The report is organized into four chapters which cover highlighting social risks and policy challenges evaluating formal and informal social protection systems in the MENA region strategic directions for enhancing these social protection systems and the World Bank's contribution to social protection in the MENA region The aim of this report is to contribute to a better informed and more focused debate on social protection at the national regional and international levels Reducing Vulnerability and Increasing Opportunity, 2001 Reducing Vulnerability and Increasing Opportunity World Bank. Middle East and North Africa Region. Human Development Department. Social Protection Group, 2001 Social Protection in Developing Countries Katja Bender, Markus Kaltenborn, Christian Pfleiderer, 2013-09-02 Providing universal access to social protection and health systems for all members of society including the poor and vulnerable is increasingly considered crucial to international development debates This is the first book to explore from an interdisciplinary and global perspective the reforms of social protection systems introduced in recent years by many governments of low and middle income countries Although a growing body of literature has been concerned with the design and impact of social protection less attention has been directed towards analyzing and explaining these reform processes themselves Through case studies of African Asian and Latin American countries this book examines the global phenomenon of recent social protection reforms in low and middle income areas and how it differs across countries both in terms of scope and speed of institutional change Exploring the major domestic and international factors affecting the political feasibility of social protection reform the book outlines the successes and failures of recent reform initiatives This invaluable book combines contributions from both academics and practitioner experts to give students researchers and practitioners in the fields of social security economics law and political science an in depth understanding of political reform processes in developing countries Sustaining Gains in Poverty Reduction and Human Development in the Middle East and North Africa Farrukh Iqbal, 2006 This book reviews the experience of the MENA region with poverty and human development since the mid 1980s It finds that poverty rates did not decline by much during this period while health and education indicators improved substantially The stagnation of poverty rates is ascribed to the stagnation of the region's economies during this period while the improvement in human indicators is likely due to several factors including improvement in the delivery of public health and education services Social Protection and Labor at the World Bank, 2000-08 Robert Holzmann, 2009 Social Protection Labor at the World Bank 2000 2008 presents a progress review of the sector strategy by the World Bank published in early 2001 The strategy proposed a new conceptual framework OCo Social Risk Management OCoto review and reform existing interventions and propose new ones that better assist vulnerable people in addressing the many risks to which they are exposed HIV/Aids in the Middle East And North Africa Carol Lynn

Jenkins, David A. Robalino, World Bank, World Health Organization. Regional Office for the Eastern Mediterranean, Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS., 2003 Recent evidence suggests that the prevalence of HIV AIDS is increasing in the Middle East North Africa and Eastern Mediterranean MENA EM region and that the total number of AIDS related deaths has risen almost sixfold since the early 1990s Although this figure is low compared with those for Africa South Asia and the Caribbean low prevalence does not equal low risk The situation can change rapidly and even conservative estimates indicate that AIDS poses a real threat to the region s long term growth This book reviews the current knowledge available on the prevalence of HIV AIDS in the MENA EM region with the goal of stimulating discussion among policy and decisionmakers In other regions early investments in good surveillance and effective prevention programs have proved to be relative bargains compared with the costs of a full blown epidemic As the authors argue the time to act is now while prevalence levels are still low To that end they make specific recommendations and offer best practices and case studies from around the world Back cover Social Protection Sector Strategy, 2001-01-01 This book presents recent World Bank analytical work on the causes of violence and conflict in Columbia and the pilot lending programmes which have been designed to promote peace and help development It is divided into three sections The first sets the framework for the history of violence and the mechanisms of its propagation looks at its costs and also at current policy initiatives to reduce it The second part looks at the social economic causes of conflict and the costs of achieving peace The last part reviews the recent experience of the World Bank in assisting countries that are experiencing or have overcome domestic armed conflict Encyclopedia of Social Work, 1965 Unlocking the Employment Potential in the Middle East and North Africa World Bank, 2003 Challenges Of Economic Development In The Middle East And North Africa Region Julia C Devlin, 2010-01-20 This book surveys major economic issues in the development of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region since World War II It presents a framework of analysis highlighting underlying continuities in the region s approach to issues of growth management of oil and natural resources post conflict environments progress in trade liberalization and regional integration the use of industrial policy labor market adjustment and unemployment educational attainment and poverty incidence At the same time this book focuses on emerging differences across countries in the region in the prevailing approach to addressing such challenges most notably between the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council and other MENA countries This book also incorporates a discussion of tools and methods used by development practitioners and briefly examines issues of aid effectiveness The approach used is intended to appeal to a wide audience including students of economic development political scientists and development practitioners Poverty and Exclusion in North and South Elizabeth Dowler, Paul Mosley, 2005-07-25 Over the past decade there has been a worrying increase in poverty in the industrialised countries of the North while many of the developing countries of the South have experienced some improvement This collection argues that there are a number of likenesses between the predicaments of North and South and that these warrant further investigation and analysis

Social Dictatorships Ferdinand Eibl, 2020-02-27 Why have social spending levels and social policy trajectories diverged so drastically across labour abundant Middle Eastern and North African regimes And how can we explain the marked persistence of spending levels after divergence Using historical institutionalism and a mix of qualitative and quantitative methods Social Dictatorships The Political Economy of the Welfare State in the Middle East and North Africa develops an explanation of social spending in authoritarian regimes It emphasizes the importance of early elite conflict and attempts to form a durable support coalition under the constraints imposed by external threats and scarce resources Social Dictatorships utilizes two in depth case studies of the political origins of the Tunisian and Egyptian welfare state to provide an empirical overview of how social policies have developed in the region and to explain the marked differences in social policy trajectories It follows a multi level approach tested comparatively at the cross country level and process traced at micro level by these case studies

Disaster Risk and Vulnerability C. Emdad Haque, David Etkin, 2012-04-11 From the Asian tsunami of 2004 to hurricane Katrina in 2005 and the Tohoku earthquake of 2011 our century has been fraught with catastrophic natural disasters Disaster Risk and Vulnerability assesses the human toll and economic losses of natural disasters and reasserts the importance of human collaboration and organization in disaster management In most cases policy makers planners managers and regulators who implement disaster risk reduction response planning and management strategies remain detached from local conditions failing to address them effectively Presenting case studies from Asia and North America as well as a broad range of approaches to community mobilization and partnership development contributors show that local communities all levels of government and non governmental organizations must work collectively in order to reduce the harm caused by disasters Despite unprecedented progress in science and technology and governments continued efforts in disaster risk reduction socioeconomic losses due to environmental disasters continue to rise Disaster Risk and Vulnerability provides knowledge and information that will benefit anyone working in the fields of environment disasters and community mobilization in an effort to reverse this trend

Finance & Development, March 2003 International Monetary Fund. External Relations Dept., 2003-03-21 This paper analyzes why the Middle East and North Africa MENA region has lagged in growth and globalization Despite attempts to spur recovery and initiate structural reforms many countries in the region remain on a slow growth path effectively sidelined from globalization and the benefits of closer economic integration with the rest of the world The benefits from oil failed to generate a sustained growth dynamic or bring about greater regional economic integration The paper highlights that the slowdown in economic reforms is a key factor for the economic depression in the MENA region Historical Dictionary of the World Bank Sarah Tenney, Anne C. Salda, 2013-10-30 When it was founded back in 1944 no one could possibly have foreseen how the World Bank known more formally as the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD would flourish Today with 188 members it is by far the largest lender for projects in agriculture health infrastructure and many other fields in developing countries around the world with a budget of billions of dollars and a staff of more than 9 000 and its advice is usually heeded by both the developing countries which borrow from it and the advanced ones which contribute This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the World Bank shows the substantial progress the Bank has made this mainly through the dictionary section with concise entries on its component institutions related organizations its achievements in various fields some of the major projects and member countries and its various presidents The introduction explains how the Bank works while the chronology traces the major events over nearly 70 years Meanwhile the list of acronyms reminds us just who the main players are And the bibliography directs readers to useful internal documentation and outside studies Privatizing Welfare in the Middle East Anne Marie Baylouny, 2010 Examines the effects of neoliberal economic reforms on middle classes in the Middle East Based on fieldwork and interviews with members non members and policymakers this title provides fresh insights into democratization liberalization and civil society The Middle East Barry Rubin, 2015-03-17 The Middle East is an area of great importance globally yet misperceptions abound Events have made it a region of special interest to the West and so the search for understanding gains momentum This publication is intended to clarify the region s complex history and issues In developing this project the contributors set out to explore seven significant themes that are usually not found in other sources While many books focus on political history and conflicts this two volume work deals specifically with culture religion women economics governance and media as well as the role that the region s modern history has played in shaping its society and worldview New Issues in Islamic Finance and Economics Hossein Askari, Zamir Iqbal, Abbas Mirakhor, 2011-12-19 New Issues in Islamic Finance Economics Progress and Challenges provides a review of the main issues and challenges facing Islamic finance The application of Islamic finance is currently limited to banking This book starts with an overview of the factors and motives behind the development of Islamic finance A critical review of issues facing the industry is provided followed by a detailed analysis of areas where further attention is required The book offers some original thinking on issues pertaining to governance institutions public finance and economic development within an Islamic financial system Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2023-05-01 In recent decades the culture society politics and economics of Bahrain have been transformed driving its global ambitions while retaining to a degree the rule of law and cosmopolitanism Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain examines the transformation of Bahrain from the 1930s from a regional trading port and then an important oil producer into the financial hub for the Gulf and into a global centre of Islamic finance It focuses on the changes and tensions that transformation brought to Bahrain's political legal economic religious and social structures In this book Rajeswary Brown explores the rising force of youth populism driven by the persistence of poverty and unemployment notably among rural Shi'ite communities and unemployed middle class youth as well as examining Bahrain's skillful reconciliation of the demands of Islamic faith expressed in the Sharia to the requirements of modern financial capitalism In this Bahrain's experience can be set against the modern history of much of the rest of the Middle East most strikingly with respect to the position of Islamic charities notably in Syria comparisons of which are fully explored here
