Reflecting On Nana:

Reflecting on Nana Bernice Chitnis, 2016-07-22 First published in 1991 this book radically challenged the view of Nana as the story of an old fashioned femme fatale and reinterprets her as a feminist heroine who manages to overturn patriarchy. The author shows how Nana confronts the traditional social order and offers an alternative version. This work gives not just an original approach to the heroine herself but the story of Zola's struggle with his vision of her and the subversive values she represents. This book will be of interest to students of literature and feminism. Narratives of Identity in Alban Berg's 'Lulu' Silvio J. dos Santos, 2014 This book explores the crossroads between autobiographical narratives and musical composition in Alban Berg's Lulu unveiling aspects of encoded social customs, gender identity and personal experiences within musical structures. Exploring the crossroads between autobiographical narrative and musical composition, this book examines Berg's transformation of Frank Wedekind's Erdgeist and Die B chse der Pandora, the plays used in the formation of the libretto for Lulu according to notions of gender identity, social customs and the aesthetics of modernity in the Vienna of the 1920s and 1930s. While Berg modernized several aspects of the plays and incorporated serial techniques of composition from Arnold Schoenberg, he never let go of the idealistic Wagnerian perspectives of his youth. In fact, he went as far as reconfiguring aspects of Richard Wagner's life as an ideal identity to be played out in the compositional process. In composing the opera, Berg also reflected on the most important cultural figures in fin de siècle Vienna that affected his worldview, including Karl Kraus, Emil Lucka, Otto Weininger and others. Combining analysis of Berg's correspondence, numerous sketches for Lulu and the finished work with interpretive models drawn from cultural studies and philosophy, this book elucidates the ways in which Berg grappled at the end of his life with his self-image as an incorrigible romantic and explains aspects of his musical language that have been considered strange or anomalous in Berg scholarship. Silvio J. dos Santos is an assistant professor of musicology at the University of Florida. Figures of the World Christopher Laing Hill, 2020-07-15 Figures of the World: The Naturalist Novel and Transnational Form overturns Eurocentric genealogies and globalizing generalizations about world literature by examining the complex, contradictory history of naturalist fiction. Christopher Laing Hill follows naturalism's emergence in France and circulation around the world from North and South America to East Asia. His analysis shows that transnational literary studies must operate on multiple scales, combine distant reading with close analysis and investigate how literary forms develop on the move. The book begins by tracing the history of naturalist fiction from the 1860s into the twentieth century and the reasons it spread around the world. Hill explores the development of three naturalist figures: the degenerate body, the self-liberated woman and the social milieu through close readings of fiction from France, Japan and the United States. Rather than genealogies of European influence or the domination of cultural peripheries by the center, novels by Émile Zola, Tayama Katai, Frank Norris and other writers reveal conspicuous departures from metropolitan models as writers revised naturalist methods to address new social conditions. Hill offers a new approach to studying culture.

on a large scale for readers interested in literature the arts and the history of ideas THOUGHTS OF A MAN Reflections Of Love and Society Raymond Spencer, 2011-02-04 Raymond began his path in Conflict Resolution and Advanced Problem Solving while in prison as an inmate representative He served as the liaison for the inmate population and the prison administration While in prison Mr Spencer graduated from Jim Brown s Amer I Can Program and became a facilitator and advocate Book knowledge and street credibility have made Raymond the voice of reason for the thug and the administrator Great communication skills coupled with the ability to negotiate on multiple levels makes Raymond a vital component in todays society Raymond also partnered with several community groups including DaScene Earl Best The Street Doctor The Street Warriors Ras Baraka and others to address the many injustices that plague The City of Newark and its residents Raymond is also affiliated with our local school system by way of partnerships with Louise A Spencer School and The Giants Academy East Orange High School alma mater 1985 and The Isaiah House a shelter for teenage girls Raymond Spencer s Love and passion for the family structure propels him forward in his personal journey to reconnect the family ties and save our children Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act of 1979 United States. Burnt Reflections J. Roman, 2014-11-19 For Scotty

Riesen hiding his sexuality in Ma s Trick Louisiana hasn t been easy given his secret relationship with his next door neighbor football star and fellow closet case Jean Lafitte One night he decides that living in the closet is no way to go through life He comes out but he isn t prepared for the backlash from his parents and friends Scotty takes a bus to New Orleans to make a new life for himself Playing janitor and dancing boy at the gay bar Burnt Reflections is a lot better than living on the street but he can t forget Jean Lafitte no matter how many men throw themselves at him Despite everything Jean Lafitte may yet prove just how far he s willing to go to make a relationship with Scotty work Traveling down to New Orleans to find Scotty is just the start of a courtship that won t be stopped by anything less than a Louisiana hurricane Nana's Family Heritage

Doug Boylan,2019-08-09 This is the story of my wife Sandi s Mom s family Nana's Gift and the Red Geranium Janette Oke,2021-04-18 Bask in the sunshine of two heartwarming stories from best selling author Janette Oke In Nana s Gift a matriarch s heirloom pearls serve to remind a young woman of what s truly priceless And in The Red Geranium a loving child offers his great grandmother something uniquely precious and unforgettable Two beautiful stories gifts from the heart of immeasurable value The Archaean Geology of the Kaapvaal Craton, Southern Africa Alfred Kröner,Axel

Hofmann,2019-02-20 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the evolution of one of the oldest and best exposed Archaean cratons on this planet There is currently a renewed interest in the early Earth and the Kaapvaal craton has long served as a model for early crustal evolution This unique multidisciplinary resource features information on geology tectonics geochemistry and geochronology It offers a wealth of new data on various aspects of the craton as well as contributions on the various crustal units by international specialists Emile Zola and the Artistry of Adaptation Kate Griffiths,2017-12-02

Filmmakers have drawn inspiration from the pages of Emile Zola from the earliest days of cinema The ever growing number of adaptations they have produced spans eras genres languages and styles In spite of the diversity of these approaches numerous critics regard them as inferior copies of a superior textual original But key novels by Zola resist this critical approach to adaptation Both at the level of characterization and in terms of their own textual inheritance they question the very possibility of origin be it personal or textual In the light of this questioning the cinematic versions created from Zolas texts merit critical re evaluation Far from being facile copies of the nineteenth century novelists works these films assess their own status as adaptations playing with both notions of artistic creation and their own artistic act Kate Griffiths is a lecturer in French at Swansea University Reflections on a United Nations' Career Ian Howie,2021-09-15 This book is more than an autobiographical account of the career of a young graduate from Australia who spent his life working as a United Nations official It is in fact a critical indispensable debriefing of a UN insider s account as it follows the life of a development practitioner for more than three decades within the global aid sector It also goes where few others have dared to go before providing first hand insights into the realities of a UN career official s life While many throughout the world may wish to join the UN family or have already become part of the development sector it is presumed they all have a vision to act as vehicles for positive social change However expectations can and may differ once realities have sunk in The book opens a unique space in the international aid sector particularly population security around elements of personal and professional rewards and costs Improving Your Reflective Practice Through Stories of Practitioner Research Cath Arnold,2012

The authors of this thought provoking text explore and document a variety of small scale practitioner research projects in home and early years settings show how this level and depth of research has encouraged reflective practice and provide depth to the arguments for a research orientated stance towards study in the early years field Survey of Current Business ,2002 Developing Global Competence in World Language Education Soyhan Egitim,Seiko Harumi,2025-09-11

This book presents a four step framework to help English as a world language EWL learners successfully develop global competence which is defined as the skills values and behaviors that prepare young people to thrive in diverse environments The book showcases practical methods and strategies supported by autoethnography and empirical studies to detail the four elements of the framework towards developing global competence English language proficiency cross cultural knowledge adopting flexibility in oral communication and embracing values beyond our horizons While the English language and culture provide essential input for effective communication developing flexibility in communication styles and viewing conflict as an opportunity for growth can help L2 learners navigate intercultural encounters more effectively and achieve cross cultural adaptation This text will be beneficial to language learners intercultural communication majors researchers and educators in TESOL EFL ESL programs as well as in service teachers of English language learners ELLs
