Poetry of Human Suffering James H. Averill, 2019-06-30 Murderers crazed widows beggars betrayed women such are the pitiful figures who appear throughout Wordsworth's early narrative poetry Analyzing the poet's use of pathos from the two volumes of Lyrical Ballads through the completion of The Prelude James H. Averill argues that for Wordsworth the poetry of human life is inevitably the poetry of anguish and loss Averill examines the relation of the poet to his human subjects exploring the questions of tragic response and sentimental morality the literary uses of human misery and the pleasures of tragedy In Wordsworth and the Poetry of Human Suffering James H. Averill enriches our understanding and our appreciation of the peculiar power of Wordsworth's poetic vision

Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author's professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad Sonboldel, 2024-02-08 An analysis of the aesthetic cultural and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods the Constitutional Revolution 1900-1920 the post constitutional era 1920-1940 and the ascendancy of modernism 1940-1960 Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by reimagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual rational and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio political changes within Iranian society They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so called literary revolution These mainstream narratives minimize the socio political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern
