A Little Out of the Ordinary John J. McIlhlon, 1994 A Little Out of the Ordinary

Cinema and Intermediality Ágnes Pethő, 2011-05-25 Within the last two decades intermediality has emerged as one of the most challenging concepts in media theory with no shortage of various taxonomies and definitions What prompted the writing of the essays gathered in this volume however was not a desire for more classifications applied to the world of moving pictures but a strong urge to investigate what the inter implied by the idea of intermediality stands for and what it actually entails in the cinema The book offers in each of the individual chapters a cross section view of specific instances in which cinema seems to consciously position itself in between media and arts employing techniques that tap into the multimedial complexity of cinema and bring into play the tensions generated by media differences The introductory theoretical writings deal with the historiography of approaching intermedial phenomena in cinema presenting at the same time some of the possible gateways that can open up the cinematic image towards the perceptual frames of other media and arts The book also contains essays that examine more closely specific paradigms in the poetics of cinematic intermediality like the allure of painting in Hitchcock s films the exquisite ways of framing and un framing haptical imagery in Antonioni s works the narrative allegories of media differences the word and image plays and ekphrastic techniques in Jean Luc Godard s total cinema the fl neuristic intermedial gallery of moving images created by Jos Luis Guer n or the types of intermedial metalepses in Agn s Varda s cin criture From a theoretical vantage point these essays break with the tradition of thinking of intermediality in analogy with intertextuality and attempt a phenomenological re definition of intermedial relations Moreover some of the analyses target films that expose the coexistence of the hypermediated experience of intermediality and the illusion of reality connecting the questions of intermediality both to the indexical nature of cinematic representation and to the specific ideological and cultural context of the films thus offering insights into a few questions regarding the politics of intermediality as well

Bong Joon Ho Joseph Jonghyun Jeon, 2024-11-19 Successful cult films like The Host and Snowpiercer proved to be harbingers for Bong Joon Ho s enormous breakthrough success with Parasite Joseph Jonghyun

Jeon provides a consideration of the director's entire career and the themes, ambitions, techniques, and preoccupations that infuse his works. As Jeon shows, Bong's sense of spatial and temporal dislocations creates a hall of mirrors that challenges us to answer the parallel questions: Where are we and When are we? Jeon also traces Bong's oeuvre from its early focus on Korea's US-funded modernization to examining the entanglements of globalization in Mother and his subsequent films. A complete filmography and in-depth interview with the director round out the book. Insightful and engaging. Bong Joon Ho offers an up-to-date analysis of the genre-bending international director. The Construction of Testimony Erin McGlothlin, Brad Prager, Markus Zisselsberger, 2020-04-21. Scholars and students of film studies and Holocaust studies will value this close analysis. Film Review, 1994. Film modernism Sam Rohdie, 2015-09-01. This book is at once a detailed study of a range of individual filmmakers and a study of the modernism in which they are situated. It consists of fifty categories arranged in alphabetical order among which are allegory, bricolage, classicism, contradiction, desire, deconstructing, and writing. Each category, though autonomous, interacts, intersects, and juxtaposes with the others, entering into a dialogue with them and in so doing creates connections, illuminations, associations, and rhymes which may not have arisen in a more conventional framework. The author refers to particular films and directors that raise questions related to modernism and inevitably thereby to classicism. Jean-Luc Godard's work is at the centre of the book, though it spreads out, evokes, and echoes other filmmakers and their work, including the films of Michelangelo Antonioni, Bernardo Bertolucci, John Ford, Howard Hawks, Alfred Hitchcock, João César Monteiro, Pier Paolo Pasolini, and Orson Welles. This innovative and eloquently written text book will be an essential resource for all film students. The Library Journal Book Review, 1971. Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors,
