Learning Pragmatics from Native and Nonnative Language Teachers Andrew D. Cohen, 2018-05-25 This book deals with intercultural pragmatics and how both nonnative teachers NNTs and native teachers NTs may enhance their classroom instruction regarding target language TL pragmatics It focuses primarily on the experiences of instructors as they teach their learners about the pragmatics of the TL both in second and foreign language learning settings It makes clear that there are aspects of teaching pragmatics where it may help to be an NT and other areas where it may help to be an NNT and proposes creative ideas that both sets of teachers may draw on to compensate for gaps in their knowledge Further themes in the book include ideas for motivating students who want to learn about pragmatics the role of technology in teaching and learning pragmatics the role of learning strategies the assessment of pragmatics and ways to research pragmatics The book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators and students interested in researching and improving the teaching of pragmatics

Asian English Language Classrooms Handoyo Widodo, Alistair Wood, Deepti Gupta, 2017-06-14 The teaching of English in the Asian context is always challenging and dynamic because both teachers and learners have diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds Equally important where English is not widely used outside the classroom English language classrooms are an authentic site of learner engagement For these reasons for all those concerned with contemporary English language teaching ELT in Asia Asian English Language Classrooms Where Theory and Practice Meet provides an account of theoretical orientations and practices in the teaching of

English to multilingual speakers whose primary language is not English While covering the fundamental ELT areas e g the teaching of language skills educational literature the use of technology in ELT the role of pragmatics in ELT social psychology of the language classroom and language classroom management with which every language teacher and teacher trainer must be concerned this volume showcases how particular orientations shape ELT practices We believe that practicing English teachers must have a heightened awareness of the theory behind their practice At the same time the theoretical stance must be firmly anchored in actual classrooms Containing newly commissioned chapters written by well regarded and emerging scholars this book will appeal not only to beginning teachers or teachers in training but also to established teachers around Asia where English is used as a lingua franca If you are a student teacher of English or an English teacher who would like to see what other progressive teachers like you are doing across Asia this is the book you have been looking for

Language Learner Narrative Helen O'Sullivan, 2014-01-02 Increasing numbers of people have contact with other cultures and languages Language Learner Narrative examines representations of this phenomenon in literary texts using an applied linguistic approach This analysis of written narratives of language learning and cross cultural encounter complements objective studies in intercultural communication and second language acquisition research Kant's use of the term Mündigkeit in his essay What is Enlightenment is used to frame the complex issues of language identity meaning and reality presented by the texts Augmented by Pierre Bourdieu's concept of linguistic capital this framing forms a counterpoint to the positioning of these authors as avatars of poststructuralist wisdom Eva Hoffman The work includes a uniquely detailed linguistic analysis of Emine Sevgi Zdamar's Mutter Zunge and further texts by other widely studied and less familiar authors Yoko Tawada Eva Hoffman Vassilis Alexakis Z Do Rock It also lists literary sources of language learner narrative Through its fundamental examination of what and how language means to us as individuals this volume will be of wide appeal to students and researchers in applied linguistics second language acquisition intercultural communication and literary studies

Risk in Academic Writing Lucia Thesen, Linda Cooper, 2013-11-15 This book brings together a variety of voices students and teachers journal editors and authors writers from the global north and south to interrogate the notion of risk as it applies to the production of academic writing Risk taking is viewed as a productive force in teaching learning and writing and one that can be used to challenge the silences and erasures inherent in academic tradition and convention Widening participation and the internationalisation of higher education make questions of language register agency and identity in postgraduate writing all the more pressing and this book offers a powerful argument against the further reinforcement of a northern Anglophone understanding of knowledge and its production and dissemination This volume will provide food for thought for postgraduate students and their supervisors everywhere
