Edward F. Knight

Sheltered Haven:

Shelter From the Storm June Cameron, 2011-06-15 Buying Saffron a 24 foot racing sailboat was an act of desperation meant to help single parent June Cameron and her youngest son validate themselves. It did that and more. A friend persuaded June to race the boat and over the next decade June either solo or with her all female crew competed in BC's major sailing races taking home a lot of the hardware for their class. Shelter from the Storm is a fascinating memoir about finding one's place even if that place is at sea.

Pirate Nation David Childs, 2014-10-14 For all the romantic mythology surrounding the court of Queen Elizabeth I the financial underpinning of the reign of Gloriana was decidedly sordid Elizabeth s policy of seizing foreign assets made her popular at home but drew her into a public private partnership with pirates who preyed on the state's foes and friends alike being rewarded or punished depending on how much of a cut the Queen received rather than the legitimacy of their action. For this reason the rule of law at sea was arbitrary and almost non-existent. Even those such as the Lord Admiral and the Court of Admiralty who were tasked with policing the seas and eliminating piracy managed their own pirate fleets. While honest merchants could rail and fail the value to the exchequer of this dubious income was enormous, often equalling on an annual basis the input from all other sources such as taxation or customs dues. However, the practice of piracy taught English seamen how to fight and when the nation was at its greatest peril in 1588 it was pirates who kept the Armada away from the coast. Effingham, Grenville, Raleigh and Drake became admirals all for England's sake, but this highly original book argues that their deeply ingrained piratical approach to naval warfare almost allowed the Armada to succeed. This is only one of a number of startling insights into the reality of Elizabethan naval policy offered by this honest and eminently readable reappraisal. Rabaul 1943-44 Mark Lardas, 2018-01-25. In 1942 the massive Japanese naval base and airfield at Rabaul was a fortress standing in the Allies' path to Tokyo. It was impossible to seize Rabaul or starve the 100,000 strong garrison out. Instead the US began an innovative hard fought two year air campaign to draw its teeth and allow them to bypass the island completely. The struggle decided more than the fate of Rabaul. If successful the Allies would demonstrate a new form of warfare where air power with a judicious use of naval and land forces would eliminate the need to occupy a ground objective in order to control it. As it turned out the Siege of Rabaul proved to be more just than a successful demonstration of air power, it provided the roadmap for the rest of World War II in the Pacific. The Living Age, 1896 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1896

Littell's Living Age, 1896 Railway News, Finance and Joint-stock Companies' Journal, 1890 Pembrokeshire Thomas Lloyd, Julian Orbach, Robert Scourfield, Richard Scourfield, 2004-01-01. This authoritative guide to the southwest corner of Wales by three local experts encompasses a wide sweep of history from the rugged prehistoric remains that stud the distinctive windswept landscape overlooking the Atlantic to distinguished recent buildings that respond imaginatively to their natural setting. The comprehensive gazetteer encompasses the great cathedral of St David's and its Bishop's Palace, the numerous churches and the magnificent Norman castles that reflect the turbulent medieval past. It gives attention also to the lesser known delights of Welsh chapels, both simple rural and sophisticated Victorian examples in all their wayward variety and provides detailed accounts of a rewarding range of towns including the county town Haverfordwest, the attractively unspoilt Regency resort of Tenby and Milford Haven and Pembroke Dock with their important naval history. An introduction with valuable specialist contributions sets the buildings in context. Zaide Rich Merne, 2016-05-11. Adventure and romance by sea and land. Jan Janszoon van Haarlem was a notorious seventeenth century pirate who preyed on merchant ships and plied the vast slave trade to the Barbary coast. He was Dutch by birth but became naturalised to the Barbaries. Not confining his depredations to the Mediterranean he visited and slaved from England, Iceland and notoriously Ireland. His most daring raid was to Baltimore on Ireland's south coast on June 20th 1631 where he took most of the villages inhabitants to slavery This raid is remembered in song and story to the present day *The "Falcon" on the Baltic.
