Shepherds Daniel C. Fredericks,2017-04-27 How does God manage his entire creation Has he had a plan a theme a metanarrative or something else which he follows that gives a unity to all of his efforts Shepherds describes the relationship between the Creator and his creation a relationship that is structurally integrated by the very core of who God is There is a design within creation that radiates from his personal unique being What God created and how he manages it is a marvelous extension of who he is and how he acts This relationship between God and his creation is not patterned only on his essence or being but on his powerful and loving will and acts Rather than a literary grid to which theme and metanarrative attempt to subject God s relationship with humanity Shepherds recognizes that all of creation bears the eternal design emanating from God s very nature Scripture is not a story about Israel or the church it is not simply a story of redemption it is a window into the eternal design by which God created reality and will eternally sustain that creation Shepherds of Christ Spirituality Newsletters 2 ,2002 Conceptual Blending in Early Christian Discourse Aleksander Gomola,2018-03-19 Cognitive linguists and biblical and patristic scholars have recently given more attention to the presence of conceptual blends in early Christian texts yet there has been so far no comprehensive study of the general role of conceptual blending as a generator of novel meanings in early Christianity as a religious system with its own identity This monograph points in that direction and is a cognitive linguistic exploration of pastoral metaphors in a wide range of patristic texts presenting them as variants of THE CHURCH IS A FLOCK network Such metaphors or blends rooted in the Bible were used by Patristic writers to conceptualize a great number of particular notions that were constitutive for the early church including the responsibilities of the clergy and the laity morality and penance church unity baptism and soteriology This study shows how these blends became indispensable building blocks of a new religious system and explains the role of conceptual blending in this process The book is addressed to biblical and patristic scholars interested in a new unifying perspective for various strands of early Christian thought and to cognitive linguists interested in the role of conceptual integration in religious language Produced with the support of the Faculty of Philology Jagiellonian University in Krak w Poland Aquinas the Augustinian Michael Dauphinais,Barry David,Matthew Levering,2007-09 The influence of St Augustine s thought upon that of St Thomas Aquinas is well known With the exception of particular philosophical controversies however relatively little research has been done in this area In summaries of medieval theology Aquinas is often seen as a follower of Aristotle over the traditional Augustinians of his day Against this emphasis on Aristotle the influence upon Aquinas of such thinkers as Pseudo Dionysius has been highlighted in recent research While happily granting the influence of such figures as Aristotle and Pseudo Dionysius this book explores the impact of Augustine s thought on Aquinas s theology philosophy and biblical exegesis The result is an enrichment of our understanding of Aquinas s contributions and a renewed awareness of his extraordinary indebtedness to his fifth century teacher The book is composed of eleven essays by an international group of renowned scholars from the United States England Switzerland Holland and Italy The contributors are Gilles Emery O P Harm Goris Wayne Hankey Mark Johnson Matthew Lamb Matthew Levering Guy Mansini O S B Bruce D Marshall John O Callaghan John Rist and Michael Sherwin O P ABOUT THE EDITORS Michael Dauphinais and Matthew Levering are associate professors of theology at Ave Maria University Barry David is associate professor of philosophy at Ave Maria Dauphinais and Levering are coauthors of Knowing the Love of Christ An Introduction to the Theology of St Thomas Aquinas and Holy People Holy Land A Theological Introduction to the Bible both are coeditors of Reading John with St Thomas Aquinas Levering is also author of Sacrifice and Community Jewish Offering and Christian Eucharist Scripture and Metaphysics as well as Christ s Fulfillment of Torah and Temple PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In this substantive collection scholars principally with theological leanings provide a rich array of analyses of various aspects of the oft muddled relationship between the bishop of Hippo and the friar from Roccasecca What is significant is that it brings together the work of both established philosophers and theologians including scholars from western Europe and the United States and of younger scholars It is a rich and rewarding mixture which begins with a substantive introduction providing the reader with a suitable roadmap indicating the direction taken by the contributors T his anthology is highly recommended Anthony J Lisska Journal of Ecclesiastical History The present volume Represents a refreshing and healthy exploration of various ways in which Aquinas was indebted to or stood in relation to Augustine The level of the scholarly contributions is high and they present some very enlightening perspectives on Augustine and Aquinas while respecting their considerable differences All told the volume makes a fine contribution to the appreciation of the two thinkers who were the most influential on the formation of Christian and Catholic philosophy and theology in the history of Western Christianity Roland J Teske S J American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly This collection of essays clarifies general divergences from and concurrences of St Thomas with Augustine The divergences do not follow a simple Aristotelian versus Augustinian divide This volume dispels this idea and provides guiding insights into Augustinian Thomistic renewal of biblical exegesis and the theologies and philosophies of the Trinity imago dei love and other crucial topics Andrew Jaspers S J Maritain Notebook A stimulating volume T his volume makes good on the editors stated goal of deepening our knowledge of the nature of Aquinas s reception of Augustine Indeed these essays provide a fascinating window into the dynamics of theologic The Beauty and Glory of Christ's Bride Joel R. Beeke, 2015-08-14 This collection of a dozen addresses given on the church as Christ s bride at the 2014 Annual Conference of Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary unpacks three overarching themes looking at the loveliness of Christ s bride walking in the path with Christ s bride and sharing in the sorrow and hope of Christ s bride Specific topics addressed include the beauty of the church s essence communion holiness unity diversity membership preaching worship sacraments discipline mission persecution and future glory Together these chapters form an appreciative and practical book on the doctrine of the church stirring up believers to

Commentary on the Gospel According to John John Calvin, 2018-03-18

A highly involved and intriguing look at the book of John John Calvin interacts with the text in a way that most other commentators of his time have never done He takes the book of John and reveals its nuances with such ease and intrigue that you cannot help be drawn into the text He takes comments and notes from other theologians and commentators of his day to give you a clearer picture of the agreements and disputed areas of the John account Calvin has always been a point of interest to modern theologians and his interpretation of John is a book that should not in any way be ignored Prepare Them to Shepherd Brian Croft, 2014-06-03 Are You Called to Ministry Those who are involved in full time ministry often say they have been called to do what they do But what does that mean Who does the calling and how is it received In Prepare Them to Shepherd pastor Brian Croft unpacks the biblical model for preparing individuals for full time ministry In the past training and sending individuals into full time pastoral ministry and missionary work was viewed as the responsibility of the local church Today much of that responsibility has been delegated to Bible colleges seminaries and parachurch and mission organizations The aim of Prepare Them to Shepherd is to challenge local churches to recover the biblical model for ministerial training and assume responsibility to identify and prepare gifted and godly individuals for service in Christ's body Part of the Practical Shepherding series of books this insightful book provides pastors and ministry leaders with the practical help they need to test train affirm and send those who are called into ministry Come Love with Me Gabriel Quicke, 2015-07-07 Explains why Augustine who experienced God's love in the humble Christ and was a witness of Christian unity can be considered to be a spiritual guide for a Christian today The Ministry, Vol. 04, No. 01 Various Authors, 1999-02-01 In this issue of The Ministry Brother Lee speaks from a heavy burden concerning fruit bearing In John 15 the Lord says that every branch in Him that does not bear fruit the Father will take away This does not mean that a branch of the vine that does not bear fruit will perish Rather it means that such a branch is in danger of losing the enjoyment of the rich supply of Christ On the contrary the more we as branches produce new believers as fruit the more we enjoy Christ The proper way to bear remaining fruit is not the way of gospel campaigns and big speakers but the inner hidden way of life As branches of the vine we must impart life to others to bring forth the fruit of life in a hidden way The three messages which follow are the conclusion of the messages given in the Memorial Day Conference in Chicago Illinois concerning the new revival The subject of Message Four in this series is living the life of a God man to be conformed to the death of Christ through the power of the resurrection of Christ for the reality of the Body of Christ Death and resurrection are vital to our Christian life and to God's economy Such a life of dying to ourselves and living to God is for Christ the first God man to be formed in His many members the many God men for the building up of His organic Body that the economy of God might be carried out Message Five indicates that we need to shepherd people according to the pattern of the Lord Jesus in His ministry for the carrying out of God's eternal economy and Message Six concludes with the fact that shepherding is to take all inclusive tender care of the flock Last of all we include reports concerning the Lord's move in Mexico Taiwan and Russia
