Archaeology and the Social History of Ships Richard A. Gould,2000-04-13 Maritime archaeology deals with shipwrecks and is carried out by divers rather than diggers But this is by no means a marginal branch of archaeology It embraces maritime history analysing changes in ship building navigation reconstructing the infrastructure of waterborne commerce and offers fresh perspectives on the cultures and societies that produced the ships and sailors Drawing on detailed and recent case studies Richard Gould provides an up to date review of the field and a clear exposition of new developments in undersea technologies He also argues for the careful management of underwater cultural resources In the Wake of
