Carceral Apartheid Brittany Friedman, 2025-01-07 It is impossible to deny the impact of lies and white supremacy on the institutional conditions in US prisons There is a particular power dynamic of racist intent in the prison system that culminates in what Brittany Friedman terms carceral apartheid Prisons are a microcosm of how carceral apartheid operates as a larger governing strategy to decimate political targets and foster deceit disinformation and division in society Among many shocking discoveries Friedman shows that beginning in the 1950s California prison officials declared war on imprisoned Black people and sought to identify Black militants as a key problem creating a strategy for the management segregation and elimination of these individuals from the prison population that continues into the present day Carceral Apartheid delves into how the California Department of Corrections deployed various official clandestine and at times extralegal control techniques including officer alliances with imprisoned white supremacists to suppress Black political movements revealing the broader themes of deception empire corruption and white supremacy in American mass incarceration Drawing from original interviews with founders of Black political movements such as the Black Guerilla Family white supremacists and a swath of little known archival data Friedman uncovers how the US domestic war against imprisoned Black people models and perpetuates genocide imprisonment and torture abroad

Game of Secrets Dawn Tripp, 2012-06-05 Jane Weld was eleven years old when her father Luce disappeared in 1957. His skiff was found drifting near a marsh empty except for his hunting coat and a box of shotgun shells. No one in their small New England town knew for sure what happened until three years later Luce's skull rolled out of a gravel pit, a bullet hole in the temple. Rumors sprang up that he had been murdered by the jealous husband of his mistress Ada Varick. Now half a century later Jane is still searching for the truth of her father's death, a mystery made more urgent by the unexpected romance that her willful daughter Marne has struck up with one of Ada's sons. As the love affair intensifies, Jane and Ada meet for their weekly Friday game of Scrabble, a pastime that soon transforms into a cat and mouse game of words long left unspoken and dark secrets best left untold. The Coldest Love She's Ever Known Leo Sullivan, 2020-07-28 Urban lit superstar and eBook bestseller Leo Sullivan debuts in print on the Dafina list with this urban love story of crime and betrayal. Sunday Kennedy has never had an easy life, but nothing has troubled her like the love she has for two men. Malik King Shields is the first man she's ever loved, but she walked away from him when he was arrested, and her broken heart was saved by rising street hustler Caesar Jones. Caesar knows Sunday will never love him the way she loved Malik, but she is a trophy in his eyes. Now the father of her son, he's determined to keep her by his side. But when he's forced to fend off attacks by Sunday's ex, he plots to use her as a pawn in his revenge. Malik is trapped in a whirlwind of murder and betrayal after being hit with a death sentence for a crime he didn't commit. As he fights to clear his name, he also begins to make amends for his past and reunite with Sunday. But getting her back seems impossible when he discovers she believes his enemies lie. Though Sunday's heart tells her to trust Malik, she doesn't want to destroy the family she's created with Caesar. Caught in the middle of a war that can only end in tragedy, who will Sunday choose?
