Robert Marshall Utley, 1988 The son of a village blacksmith in Ohio Custer qualified last in his class at West Point Yet he proved to be a brilliant Civil War commander from the moment he made his debut at Gettysburg At age twenty five he was promoted to the rank of major general a feat that earned him the sobriquet the boy general Following the war as part of the frontier army he was handed the task of protecting the railroads by reining in the Plains Indians Resplendent in buckskin he steadily built a reputation as an Indian fighter enhancing his legend with his own writings Always forthright with his opinions Custer may have held a future career some have suggested in politics However this will never be known for on June 25 1876 Custer reached his untimely end Heavily outnumbered by a combined force of Sioux and Cheyenne warriors at the Battle of Little Bighorn Custer s entire company was cut down Never before or since have Indians inflicted such a defeat on federal troops This new illustrated book combines over 200 photographs and paintings many in color with a revised edition of Robert M Utley s classic biography Cavalier in Buckskin Drawing on twelve years of additional research on Sitting Bull and the Battle of the Little Bighorn Utley has dramatically changed his original interpretations of Custer s Last Stand addressing the eternal question might Custer have won
