Schiffhorst, John F. Schell, 1991 Revision Alice Horning, Anne Becker, 2006-05-22 Explores the wide range of scholarship on revision while bringing new light to bear on enduring questions in composition and rhetoric Handbook Writer's Essay and Thesaurus Visser, 1992 The Handbook for writers of essays and theses is designed to meet the needs of teachers and students from matriculation level to postgraduate university studies Both the Author Date Harvard method and the Author Title Modern language Association method for documenting sources are described in detail □□□□□□□□ Brian Devlin, 2003 The Culture and Commerce of the American Short Story Andrew Levy, 1993-09-24 The Culture and Commerce of the Short Story is a cultural and historical account of the birth and development of the American short story from the time of Poe It describes how America through political movements changes in education magazine editorial policy and the work of certain individuals built the short story as an image of itself and continues to use the genre as a locale within the realm of art where American political ideals can be rehearsed debated and turned into literary forms While the focus of this book is cultural individual authors such as Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton are examined as representative of the phenomenon As part of its project this book also contains a history of creative writing and the workshop dating back a century Andrew Levy makes a strong case for the centrality of the short story as a form of art in American life and provides an explanation for the genre's resurgence and ongoing success The Editor; the Journal of Information for Literary Workers ,1913 The Open Shelf ,1919 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997 The Writer's Digest ,1929 Knowing Differently Pranee Liamputtong, Jean Rumbold, 2008 This book explores the experiential research methods arts based reflexive collaborative that allow researchers to access their own and their participants knowing in richer ways It comprises chapters on innovative methods of research and analysis using literary forms performance and visual arts and through collaborative and interdisciplinary inquiry It offers methodological discussions and first person accounts of experiences in using these methods in order to fire the imagination of students and researchers Writers are drawn from various disciplines in the health and social sciences and the methodologies they discuss can be applied across these fields The Writer's Quotebook Jim Fisher, 2006 If you have ever stared a page that remains stubbornly blank if you have ever wondered why writers write or whether good writers are born or made if you are a novelist playwright poet or journalist or simply delight in the written word The Writer's Quotebook is for you Whether you keep it in your office on your coffee table next to your keyboard or your bed this rich compendium of over one thousand quotations will inspire invigorate and illuminate the often challenging sometimes humorous but always fascinating task of those who bring words to life From William Faulkner and Ernest Hemingway to Doris Lessing and Joyce

Carol Oates more than five hundred published writers put pen to paper on what the literary life is all about. Selections come from seasoned professionals as well as those just establishing their voice and they represent a variety of nationalities and genres. The book is divided into three sections. The first part is devoted to the creative process including thoughts on where writers get their ideas, the role of inspiration, what kind of people write and where talent comes from. In part two, the subject shifts to writing as a craft. Here authors ponder the creation of protagonists and points of view, the writing of dialogue, setting and description, creating plots and the anatomy of style. The final third of the book deals with the challenges and rewards that come with the writing life. Subjects in this section include the economic realities of writing, classes, conferences and workshops, dealing with rejection and bad reviews, writing habits and rituals, despair, alcohol, suicide and fame. Articulated with elegant metaphor in straightforward prose or with wry wit, the carefully selected and thoughtfully organized quotations come together to form a narrative that entertains, informs and in the case of aspiring writers, shows the way to better writing.

Perspectives on Plagiarism and Intellectual Property in a Postmodern World Lise Buranen, Alice Myers Roy, 1999-01-01
Contributors offer many definitions and facets of plagiarism and intellectual property, demonstrating that if defining a supposedly simple concept is difficult, then applying multiple definitions is even harder, creating practical problems in many realms. Quarterly Bulletin Hackley Public Library, 1924 The United States Catalog, 1924 The Writer, 1889

Who's who Among North American Authors, 1921. Covering the United States and Canada with their possessions and neighbors and containing the biographical and literary data of living authors whose birth or activities connect them with the continent of North America, with a press section devoted to journalists and magazine writers, varies slightly. The Cumulative Book Index, 1992. A world list of books in the English language.
