Mark Twain as a Literary Artist Gladys Carmen Bellamy, 2012-09-10 Mark Twain has been the subject of violent disagreement among critics Most of them have believed that he was an unconscious artist working by impulse Mark Twain as a Literary Artist shows that Mark Twain was much more the conscious craftsman than is generally believed Here is revealed Twain's violent mental conflict a logical dilemma which forced much of his work into distorted patterns of thought and structure Through years of practice he evolved methods to achieve detachment through techniques such as speaking through the lips of Huckleberry Finn or some other childlike person placing satiric scenes far off in time or space diminishing the human race to microscopic proportions so that its wrongs could be treated with detachment and reducing life to a dream in which the greatest wrongs become tolerable because they seem unreal Mark Twain as a Literary Artist is a mature thorough and revealing reassessment of the mind and methods of one of the most controversial figures in American literature

The Skyscraper and the City Don LePan, 2025-09-18 The Skyscraper and the City brings together thirty years of the artist s watercolor images of cities LePan s work goes against the tradition of presenting skyscrapers with a hard and precise verticality the lines of these towers blur and bleed into each other into the sky and the natural world and often into the human life of the city In their sense of movement these watercolor images of bridges and baseball stadiums as well as of skyscrapers at times recall the work of John Marin while in their viewpoint they may bring to mind the bird s eye view city paintings of Oskar Kokoschka or John Hartman LePan's paintings have been exhibited only once in a solo show in Brooklyn in 2008. Commenting on that exhibition Hartman whose sweeping canvasses have been acclaimed world wide described these watercolor works as very good and together they form a coherent and focused body of work. The Skyscraper and the City includes images from as far afield as Cape Town London and Sydney but the primary focus is on the North American city. Calgary Chicago Los Angeles New Orleans New York and Vancouver are each the subject of numerous paintings in all over fifty cities are represented. Substantial captions accompanying many of the images discuss the circumstances in which the work was painted various aesthetic issues and the architectural history of the buildings depicted. An appendix includes examples of the artist's preliminary sketches and photographs. In a brief introduction LePan discusses the history of skyscraper art the nature of watercolor as a medium and his own background as a watercolor painter.
