Early Graves Joseph Hansen, 2023-12-19 The brutality of the AIDS epidemic and a nation s growing homophobia set the stage for a serial killer targeting gay men in Los Angeles and Dave Brandstetter finds himself in the killer s path Dave Brandstetter s afternoon does not begin well his ex boyfriend picks him up at the airport and the ride home in bumper to bumper Los Angeles traffic is one long argument between them The insurance investigator s day gets worse when he finds a man bloody rain soaked and ice cold lying on his porch killed by a stab wound while Dave was out of town There is a serial killer loose in Los Angeles and this man is his sixth victim Like the others he had already been marked for death by the unforgiving plague known as AIDS Someone is targeting sick men in the city and Dave s search for the killer leads him into the dark side of gay Los Angeles where death comes without warning and life is a fearful dream Decades after its original publication in 1987 Early Graves remains an important literary achievement The exigence of Joseph Hansen s frontline reportage of the AIDS epidemic is as powerful as his prose craft and mystery plot are clever

Authentic Writing Jeffrey Rice, 2021-04-20 In typical academic circles texts must be critiqued mined for the obfuscated meanings they hide and shown to reveal larger broader meanings than what are initially evident To engage in this type of writing is to perform an authentic version of scholarship But what if a scholar chooses instead to write without critique What if they write about travelling their children food grocery shopping frozen garlic bread sandwiches condiments falafel yoga and moments that normally wouldn't be considered scholarly Can the writing still be scholarly Can scholarly writing be authentic if its topics comprise the everyday In Authentic Writing Jeff Rice uses this question to trace a position regarding critique the role of the scholar the role of the personal in scholarship the banal as subject matter and the idea of authenticity He explores authenticity as a writing issue a rhetorical issue a consumption issue a culture issue and an ideological issue Rather than arguing for a more authentic state or practice Rice examines the rhetorical features of authenticity in order to expand the focus of scholarship

Becoming George Sand Rosalind Brackenbury, 2009 Follows Maria Jameson a married woman in the midst of an affair and looks back at the life and numerous high profile love affairs of the French writer George Sand As Maria immerses herself in Sand's biography she moves from the self-centered intensity of her affair to a larger and deeper connection to herself her family and the wider world

Re-imagining International Relations Barry Buzan, Amitav Acharya, 2021-12-09 Buzan and Acharya challenge the discipline of International Relations to reimagine itself in the light of the thinking about and practice of international relations and world order from premodern India China and the Islamic world This prequel to their 2019 book The Making of Global International Relations takes the story back from the two century tale of modern IR to reveal the deep global history of the discipline It shows the multiple origins and meanings of many concepts thought of as only modern and Western It opens pathways for the rest of the world into this most Eurocentric of disciplines encouraging them to bring their own histories concepts and theories with them The authors have written this book with the hope of inspiring others to extend these pathways by bringing in a wider array of cultures and exploring how they thought about and acted in worlds composed of multiple independent collective actors
