Long Time Coming. Short Writings from Zimbabwe Jane Morris, 2008-10-15 Long Time Coming brings together short stories and poems from thirty three writers that provide snapshots of this turbulent period in Zimbabwe's history. Snapshots of living in a country where basic services have crumbled where shops have no food taps no water banks no money hospitals no drugs bars no beer. Snapshots of characters surviving against seemingly insurmountable odds. Horrific snapshots of the abuse of power of violence and oppression of the destruction of dreams. But this is Zimbabwe and there are lighter moments and moments of hope in some of life's simple pleasures in the coming of the rains in the wink and the smile of a stranger in a challenge to patriarchy in the inner strength of the people in fighting back. A Long Time Coming Evan Thomas, 2010-10-08 An adroitly distilled chronicle of the 2008 presidential campaign and the election of Barack Obama. This easily devoured crisply anecdotal account spiked with revealing side of the mouth comments charts the most cautious and reckless of political maneuverings and provides in action portraits of the major players both obvious and behind the scenes. Thomas writes that Obama an avid reader and gifted writer sees himself as a figure out of literature and indeed real life stories don't get more compelling than this.

Soul of the Man Charles Farley, 2011-02-07 Bobby Blue Bland's silky smooth vocal style and captivating live performances helped propel the blues out of Delta juke joints and into urban clubs and upscale theaters. Until now, his story has never been told in a book-length biography. Soul of the Man Bobby Blue Bland relates how Bland, along with longtime friend B.B. King and other members of the loosely knit group who called themselves the Beale Streeters, forged a new electrified blues style in Memphis in the early 1950s. Combining elements of Delta blues, southern gospel, big band jazz, and country and western music, Bland and the Beale Streeters were at the heart of a revolution. This biography traces Bland's life and recording career from his earliest work through his first big hit in 1957, "Farther Up the Road." It goes on to tell the story of how Bland scored hit after hit, placing more than sixty songs on the R & B charts throughout the 1960s, 70s, and 80s. While more than two thirds of his hits crossed over onto pop charts, Bland is surprisingly not widely known outside the African American community. Nevertheless, many of his recordings are standards, and he has created scores of hit albums, such as his classic 1961 Two Steps from the Blues, widely considered one of the best blues albums of all time. Soul of the Man contains a select discography of the most significant recordings made by Bland, as well as a list of all his major awards. A four-time Grammy nominee, he received Lifetime Achievement Awards from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences and the Blues Foundation, as well as the Rhythm & Blues Foundation's Pioneer Award. He was also inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Blues Foundation's Hall of Fame. This biography at last heralds one of America's great music makers.

Measuring Time - By an Hourglass Kitty Crockett Robertson, 2008-08 Ipswich Chronicle Photo Kitty Robertson's Measuring Time is an exquisite collection of essays, reflections on a 20th-century life in small-town New England that first were published in the Ipswich Chronicle. Kitty is the author of The Orchard, a memoir that, remembering of hard times and kind people, received glowing reviews. Boston Globe: In graceful prose, The Orchard makes the old seem new; it unsettles us from the uncertainties of our own modern truths. New York Times: The book is nothing short of a hymn. San Jose Mercury: This book is a gem. Washington Post: Adele Crockett Robertson turns out to have been a very good writer, and The Orchard is a lovely book. Kitty's writing has a rhythm like the tides. Like music. Like the best bluegrass music, which from me is the ultimate compliment North Shore Sunday editor Taylor Armerding continues Mostly she taught those of us who had the good fortune to know her that you can see the world without having to see the whole world That when you choose a tiny corner of it get to know its land and its people train your eyes and your mind to look for beauty in the great small and tiniest things that you have seen a world and lived a life as exquisite as any Measuring Time is like that petals perhaps of the apple blossoms of The Orchard Look through my eyes for a little while Kitty invites and may what you see bring you the joy it brings to me
