Marina Frolova Walker Nelly Kravetz Leonid Maximenkov Stephen Press and Peter Schmelz Living in Death's Shadow Emily K. Abel, 2017-02-28 Challenging assumptions about caregiving for those dying of chronic illness What is it like to live with and love someone whose death while delayed is nevertheless foretold In Living in Death's Shadow Emily K Abel an expert on the history of death and dying examines memoirs written between 1965 and 2014 by family members of people who died from chronic disease In earlier eras death generally occurred quickly from acute illnesses but as chronic disease became the major cause of mortality many people continued to live with terminal diagnoses for months and even years Illuminating the excruciatingly painful experience of coping with a family member's extended fatal illness Abel analyzes the political personal cultural and medical dimensions of these struggles The book focuses on three significant developments that transformed the experiences of those dying and their intimates the passage of Medicare and Medicaid the growing use of high tech treatments at the end of life and the rise of a movement to humanize the care of dying people It questions the exalted value placed on acceptance of mortality as well as the notion that it is always better to die at home than in an institution Ultimately Living in Death's Shadow emphasizes the need to shift attention from the drama of death to the entire course of a serious chronic disease The chapters follow a common narrative of life threatening disease learning the diagnosis deciding whether to enroll in a clinical trial acknowledging or struggling against the limits of medicine receiving care at home and in a hospital or nursing home and obtaining palliative and hospice care Living in Death's Shadow is essential reading for everyone seeking to understand what it means to live with someone suffering from a chronic fatal condition including cancer AIDS Alzheimer's and heart disease

Hard Times and Survival; the Autobiography of an African-American Son William A. James Sr., 2018-10-19 Hard Times and Survival The Autobiography of an African American Son is my story It is how I overcame all the heartbreaking brutal and horrendous circumstances that I was born into in 1947 I saw it all in my first sixteen years unbridled lust gross immorality damning lies and terrible brutality by my father against me and my mother He tried to kill me once but kept up a constant campaign of horrible abuses of my mother until I left home at sixteen However success is the best revenge After three years of alcoholism I pulled myself together and went back to school on my own That was after I spent a year in Job Corps from 1966 to 1967 From 1975 to 1977 I went to Piedmont Virginia Community College in Charlottesville From 1977 to 1980 I attended Virginia State University in Petersburg I earned my BA and MA degrees I studied above a master s at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville from 1980 to 1983 I did not graduate but I learned valuable life lessons I started to write in 1993 about what had happened to me over the years and how I used my dire circumstances as motivation to pick myself up and make my life better I hope I am an example that will help others who are suffering through similar atrocities to be motivated to not give up but persevere and that they will as I did overcome anything they are being faced with
