Race Experts Linda Kim, 2018-08-01 In Race Experts Linda Kim examines the complicated and ambivalent role played by sculptor Malvina Hoffman in The Races of Mankind series created for the Chicago Field Museum in 1930 Although Hoffman had training in fine arts and was a protégé of Auguste Rodin and Ivan Mestrovic she had no background in anthropology or museum exhibits She was nonetheless commissioned by the Field Museum to make a series of life size sculptures for the museum's new racial exhibition which became the largest exhibit on race ever installed in a museum and one of the largest sculptural commissions ever undertaken by a single artist Hoffman's Races of Mankind exhibit was realized as a series of 104 bronzes of racial types from around the world a unique visual mediation between anthropological expertise and everyday ideas about race in interwar America Kim explores how the artist brought scientific understandings of race and the everyday racial attitudes of museum visitors together in powerful and productive friction The exhibition compelled the artist to incorporate not only the expertise of racial science and her own artistic training but also the popular ideas about race that ordinary Americans brought to the museum Kim situates the Races of Mankind exhibit at the juncture of these different forms of racial expertise and examines how the sculptures represented the messy resolutions between them Race Experts is a compelling story of ideological contradiction and accommodation within the racial practices of American museums artists and audiences

Abimbola Adelakun,Toyin Falola,2018-07-26 This book explores the politics of artistic creativity examining how black artists in Africa and the diaspora create art as a procedure of self making Essays cross continents to uncover the efflorescence of black culture in national and global contexts and in literature film performance music and visual art Contributors place the concerns of black artists and their works within national and transnational conversations on anti black racism xenophobia ethnocentrism migration resettlement resistance and transnational feminisms Does art by the subaltern fulfill the liberatory potential that critics have ascribed to it What other possibilities does political art offer Together these essays sort through the aesthetics of daily life to build a thesis that reflects the desire of black artists and cultures to remake themselves and their world The Practices of the Self Charles Larmore,2010-12-15 What is the nature of the fundamental relation we have to ourselves that makes each of us a self To answer this question Charles Larmore develops a systematic theory of the self challenging the widespread view that the self s defining relation to itself is to have an immediate knowledge of its own thoughts On the contrary Larmore maintains our essential relation to ourselves is practical as is clear when we consider the nature of belief and desire For to believe or desire something consists in committing ourselves to thinking and acting in accord with the presumed truth of our belief or the presumed value of what we desire Larmore develops this conception with frequent reference to such classic authors as Montaigne Stendhal and Proust and by comparing it to other views of the self in contemporary philosophy He also discusses the important ethical consequences of his theory of the self arguing that it allows us to better grasp what it means to be ourselves and why self understanding often involves self creation Winner of the Acad mie Fran aise s Grand Prix de Philosophie The Practices of the Self is that rare kind of lucid yet rigorous work that transcends disciplinary boundaries Adam Smith Jesse Norman,2018-09-11 A dazzlingly original remarkable account of the life and thought of legendary economist Adam Smith Financial Times Adam Smith 1723 1790 is now widely regarded as the greatest economist of all time But what he really thought and the implications of his ideas remain fiercely contested Was he an eloquent advocate of capitalism and individual freedom A prime mover of market fundamentalism An apologist for human selfishness Or something else entirely In the tradition of The Worldly Philosophers Adam Smith dispels the myths and caricatures and provides a far more complex portrait of the man Offering a highly engaging account of Smith s life and times political philosopher Jesse Norman explores his work as a whole and traces his influence over two centuries to the present day Finally he shows how a proper understanding of Smith can help us address the problems of modern capitalism The Smith who emerges from this book is not only the greatest of all economists but a pioneering theorist of moral philosophy culture and society A Navy Chaplain'S Devotions for Afloat and Ashore Benny J. is because they have fallen out of touch with their personal cosmic being But there is hope To become reacquainted with your cosmic being you must begin consciously examining your Everyday actions and beliefs in an effort to get rid of outdated patterns of living and thinking He also explores the creation of the universe from a scientific standpoint Using physics the author shows that on its most basic level all matter is made up from nothing more than energy with an in depth explanation of the term energy Therefore the universe is the infinite totality or energy itself Finally the author presents a new and totally revolutionary model of the universe hitherto neither contemplated nor depicted
