Investigating Franz Kafka's "Der Bau" Andrea Ebarb, 2023-04-27 In 2016 the Israeli Supreme Court ruled that Max Brod's posthumous papers which included a collection of Kafka's manuscripts be transferred to the National Library of Israel in Jerusalem If Kafka's writings may be seen to belong to Jewish national culture and if they may be considered part of

Israel's heritage then their analysis within a Jewish framework should be both viable and valuable This volume is dedicated to the research of Franz Kafka's late narrative The Burrow and its autobiographical and theological significance Research is extended to incorporate many fields of study architecture sound studies philosophy cultural studies Jewish studies literary studies to illustrate the dynamics at work within the text which reveal the Jewish aspects implicitly thematicized Examination of the structure created the nature of sound perceived the atmosphere experienced and the acts performed by the protagonist serve as the foundation of this analysis and offer new access to Kafka's work by presenting an interpretive space semantic approach Der Bau is presented as a life concept given the task of constituting identity highlighting the critical link between the literary and biographical Kafka and demonstrating the necessity of understanding the author as a Jewish writer to understand his late narrative For her outstanding research project Andrea Newsom Ebarb was awarded the Forschungspreis der Vereinigung der Freunde der Universität Mainz e V in 2023

Through the examination of a variety of narrative fiction and non fiction memoir poetry epistles journalism and music in Yiddish Spanish French German and English these essays unveil non canonic authors across the West and explore these works in the context of antisemitism orientalism and philo Sephardism among other cultural phenomena Jewish writings from the war have much to tell about the encounter between old traditions and new experimentations framed by urgency migration and messianic hope They offer perspectives on memorial and post memorial literatures triggered by transhistorical imagination and many were written against the grain of canonic literature where subtle forms of dissidence manifested through language structure sound and thought sought to tune with the anti fascist fight This book revindicates the polyglossia of Jewish cultures and literatures in the context of genocide and epistemicide and proposes to remember the cultural phenomena produced by the Spanish Civil War demanding a new understanding of the cosmopolitan imaginaries in Jewish literature

André Gide and the Second World War Jocelyn Van Tuyl, 2012-02-01 Arguably the most influential French writer of the early twentieth century Andr Gide is a paradigmatic figure whose World War II writings offer an exemplary reflection of the challenges facing a leading writer in a time of national collapse Tracing Gide s circuitous intellectual itinerary from the fall of France through the postwar purge this book examines the ambiguous role of France s senior man of letters during the Second World War The writer s intricate maneuverings offer privileged insights into three issues of broad significance the relationship of literature and politics in France during World War II the repressions and repositionings that continue to fuel controversy about the period and the role of public intellectuals in times of national crisis With the exception of the early wartime Journal Gide s publications during France s dark years have received little critical attention This book scrutinizes the entire wartime oeuvre in depth tracing the evolution of Gide s political views and most importantly reading the wartime texts against each other It is the interplay among these texts that reveals the full complexity of Gide s political positionings and the rhetorical brilliance he deployed to redress his tarnished image

key figures of our modernist tradition this work helps identify the sources of the postmodern condition It thus provides a theoretical foundation for contemporary art and literary criticism especially of those works to be found at the margins of our culture
