Muslim Womens Choices Religious Belief And Social Reality:

Muslim Women's Choices Camillia Fawzi El-Solh, Judy Mabro, 2020-08-21 This volume counters the prevailing Western views and stereotypes of Muslim women usually projected through male interpretations by presenting a cross cultural perspective of their experiences and choices in contemporary Muslim communities The main theme running through these papers is the manner in which Muslim women consciously as well as unconsciously manipulate religious belief to negotiate their gender roles within the context of their lives Women and Islam: Images and realities Haideh Moghissi, 2005 This three volume interdisciplinary collection is of use not only in Middle East studies but also in various other disciplines including women s studies political science religion cultural studies sociology of gender and anthropology The collection offers the most influential writings in the field by both renowned scholars as well as those by the new generation of scholars of Islam and gender and includes a wide variety of cases from Middle Eastern and Islamic societies By including case based articles the collection highlights the clear links between concepts and theories and actual practices Titles also available in this series include Shamanism March 2004 3 volumes 395 and the forthcoming titles Childhood 2005 4 volumes c 495 Gender 2005 4 volumes c 495 and Knowledge 2005 4 volumes c 495 Women from Traditional Islamic Educational Institutions in Indonesia Eka Srimulyani, 2012 Dit is de eerste Engelstalige publicatie over vrouwen in traditionele islamitische onderwijsinstellingen in Indonesi de zogenaamde pesantren Deze vrouwen spelen een belangrijke rol de genderproblematiek in de Indonesische moslimgemeenschap Deze informatieve en inzichtelijke studie dient twee groeiende onderzoeksgebieden in de studies over Indonesi de studie naar de islam en de studie naar moslimvrouwen Tevens voegt het een nieuw perspectief toe aan de bestaande Engelstalige literatuur over moslima s buiten de huidige dominante context van het Midden Oosten of Sub Indische continent Feminism and Islamic Fundamentalism Haideh Moghissi, 1999-07 A highly controversial intervention into the debate on postmodernism and feminism this book looks at what happens when these modes of analysis are jointly employed to illuminate the sexual politics of Islam As a religion Islam has been demonized for its gender practices like no other This book analyzes that Orientalism with particular reference to representations of Muslim women and describes the real sexual politics of Islam The author goes on to describe the rise of Islamic fundamentalism and the West s response to it She argues that regardless of the sophisticated argument of postmodernists and their suspicion of power as an intellectual and political movement postmodernism has put itself in the service of power and the status quo Moghissi brilliantly demonstrates how this trend has given rise to a neo conservative feminism A major feminist critique of Islamic fundamentalism this book asks some hard questions of those who in denouncing the racism of Western feminism have taken up an uncritical embrace of the Islamic identity of Muslim women It is urgent reading for all those concerned about human rights as well as for students and academics of women s studies political science social theory and religious studies Everyday Islam in Post-Soviet Central Asia Maria Elisabeth Louw, 2007-05-09 Providing a wealth of empirical research on the everyday practise of Islam in post Soviet Central Asia this book gives a detailed account of how Islam is understood and practised among ordinary Muslims in the region focusing in particular on Uzbekistan It shows how individuals negotiate understandings of Islam as an important marker for identity grounding for morality and as a tool for everyday problem solving in the economically harsh socially insecure and politically tense atmosphere of present day Uzbekistan Presenting a detailed case study of the city of Bukhara that focuses upon the local forms of Sufism and saint veneration the book shows how Islam facilitates the pursuit of more modest goals of agency and belonging as opposed to the utopian illusions of fundamentalist Muslim doctrines Encountering the Transnational Meena Sharify-Funk, 2016-04-29

When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and cliché bursting account of women's reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women's experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women's activism in a world of collapsing distances Womanhood in Anglophone Literary Culture

Robin Hammerman, 2009-03-26 Taken together the fourteen essays in this collection contribute to the discourse of social conditions for literary women The essays examine relevant social intellectual and professional questions about the ways in which women writers contributed to conceptions of womanhood in nineteenth and twentieth century Anglophone literary culture Contributors to this collection describe and examine several nineteenth and twentieth century women writers responses to patriarchal assumptions about literary merit in genres including poetry and fiction Womanhood in Anglophone Literary Culture Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Perspectives will be of special interest to students and faculty of women's studies and literature written in the English language Secularism, Gender and the State in the Middle East Nadjé

Al-Ali, 2000-07-27 A considerable literature has been devoted to the study of Islamic activism By contrast Nadjé Al Ali's book explores the anthropological and political significance of secular oriented activism by focusing on the women's movement in Egypt In so doing it challenges stereotypical images of Arab women as passive victims and demonstrates how they fight for their rights and confront conservative forces Al Ali's book also takes issue with prevailing constructions of the West and its perceived dichotomous relation to the East The argument is constructed around interviews which afford fascinating insights into the history of the women's movement in Egypt notions about secularism and how Islamist constituencies have impacted on women's activism generally. The balance between the empirical and conceptual material is adeptly handled. The author frames her work in the context of current theoretical debates in Middle Eastern and post colonial scholarship while some of the ideas are complex her lucid style means they are always comprehensible the book will therefore appeal to students as well as to scholars in the field.

Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas, 2019-01-16 Does Islam call for the oppression of women? Non Muslims point to the subjugation of women that occurs in many Muslim countries especially those that claim to be Islamic while many Muslims read the Qur'an in ways that seem to justify sexual oppression inequality and patriarchy. Taking a wholly different view Asma Barlas develops a believer's reading of the Qur'an that demonstrates the radically egalitarian and antipatriarchal nature of its teachings. Beginning with a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge Barlas shows how Muslims came to read inequality and patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures and demonstrates that the patriarchal meanings ascribed to the Qur'an are a function of who has read it how and in what contexts. She goes on to reread the Qur'an's position on a variety of issues in order to argue that its teachings do not support patriarchy. To the contrary Barlas convincingly asserts that the Qur'an affirms the complete equality of the sexes thereby offering an opportunity to theorize radical sexual equality from within the framework of its teachings. This new view takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women gender and patriarchy allowing them to understand Islam through its most sacred scripture rather than through Muslim cultural practices or Western media stereotypes. For this revised edition of Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas has written two new chapters: Abraham's Sacrifice in the Qur'an and Secular Feminism and the Qur'an as well as a new preface an extended discussion of the Qur'an's wife beating verse and of men's presumed role as women's guardians and other updates throughout the book.
