Never Blink In A Hailstorm And Other Lessons On Leadership:

Now to God Who Is Able Neal D. Presa, Anne E. Zaki, 2023-12-11 The triune God of justice has a mission in the world which we are called to participate and partner in. The awesome nature of that mission and vision inspires and animates this volume. Now to God Who Is Able An international array of Christian pastors, scholar, activists, parachurch ministry leaders and community organizers reflect critically on the theological, biblical, contextual and practical dimensions of what it means to bear witness of the gospel orientated and anchored in God's justice. Using a trinitarian framework within the prophetic call to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with God, this book speaks to the modern challenges and opportunities of the pastoral vocation, ecclesiology, hermeneutics, homiletics, ecumenism, theological education and missional theology. Each essay in this book honors the more than four decades of ministry of Mark Labberton, who retired as president of Fuller Theological Seminary in 2023.

Some Men Are Our Heroes KeumJu Jewel Hyun, Cynthia Davis Lathrop, 2010-08-01 Do the little things we do and say really make a difference in the lives of others? Some Men Are Our Heroes answers this question with a resounding yes, as eight accomplished Christian women tell the stories of the men in their lives who helped them achieve remarkable things for God's kingdom. These touching stories of women from around the world and the fathers, husbands, brothers, pastors, colleagues and friends who encouraged, strengthened and challenged them along their life journeys will warm the hearts of women and men alike.
