New Age Handbook On Death And Dying:

The New Age Handbook on Death and Dying Carol Elizabeth Parrish-Harra, 1982-01-01 The New Age Handbook on Death and Dying Carol Elizabeth Parrish-Harra, Carol W. Parrish-Harra, 1989-01-01 A New Age Handbook on Death and Dying Carol Elizabeth Parrish-Harra, Carol W. Parrish-Harra, 1982

The New Age Handbook On Death And Dying offers insights from Carol Parrish Harra's ministries with terminally ill patients from her near death experience and from her grief following the sudden loss of her daughter and granddaughter.

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death. Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death, dying, grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging. Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete, limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field.

In Death and Dying: An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F. Szabo provides more than 2,200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying. Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological, philosophical and attitudinal aspects, coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions, instructional and educational topics for practitioners, primarily health care providers, cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief, mourning and loss. In addition, notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture, death themes in literature, methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses. This book will be helpful to students, researchers, academics, caregivers, health care professionals, psychologists, social workers and anyone with an interest in death, dying, bereavement or the care of the terminally ill.

New Religions and the Theological Imagination in America Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1989-11-22 Bednarowski is especially good at elucidating the theological daring of these new American religions. She demonstrates in a very few pages how theology and group adherence made the individual count a configuration simultaneously American, un-American and important. Jon Butler: The cultural confrontation with these new religions is very real and usually very misinformed. Bednarowski has gone to great lengths to dispel the ignorance.

The Christian Century A groundbreaking study. Syzygy Journal of Alternative Religion and Culture Organized as a series of theological conversations about ultimate questions, this book offers a guide to the answers these six religions offer. Drawing heavily on sources from the movements themselves, it presents a balanced comparative account of the emerging theological systems of America's new religions.

The Zen of Living and Dying Philip Kapleau, 1998-04-14 To live life fully and die serenely, surely we all share these goals so inextricably entwined. Yet a spiritual dimension is too often lacking in the attitudes, circumstances and rites of death in modern society. Kapleau explores the subject of death and dying on a deeply personal level, interweaving the writings of Western religions with insights from his own Zen practice and offers practical advice for the dying and their families Paranormal Experience and Survival of Death Carl B. Becker,1993-01-01 This text amasses data and surveys from a century of research on the paranormal on four continents Europe Asia and the Americas Studying the tensions between religious and scientific perspectives the author reviews numerous substantiated accounts of demon possession of memories of past lives of ghostly apparitions and out of body experiences He analyzes the medical evidence and what such experiences imply about survival after death The author then looks at the reasons for the taboos on scientific discussion of such research within the social sciences and proposes a new paradigm for a more holistic view of the field Making Sense of Your World W. Gary Phillips,William E. Brown,John Stonestreet,2009-01-01 Making Sense of Your World offers a basic accessible introduction to biblical worldview that covers all of these aspects of world view thinking Part One compares the basic worldviews Part Two contrasts and seeks to defend the biblical worldview with the others and Part Three constructs a biblical worldview in four key areas This book is an overview the Christian thinker is invited to continue his or her study through the recommended readings at the end of each chapter an ongoing task Paul labels the renewing of our minds Romans 12 2 The Way of the Explorer, Revised Edition Dr. Edgar Mitchell,2008-01-07 In February 1971 as Apollo 14 astroanaut Edgar Mitchell hurtled Earthward through space he was engulfed by a profound sense of universal connectedness He intuitively sensed that his presence and that of the planet in the window were all part of a deliberate universal process and that the glittering cosmos itself was in some way conscious The experience was so overwhelming Mitchell knew his life would never be the same Widowhood Michael Rock,Janice Rock,2004 Provides professional and personal insight into dying and death and includes stories of men and women who learned to accept and deal with the loss of their spouses Deathing Anya Foos-Graber,1989-01-15 Everyone who is born is someday going to die Some of us will die peacefully in our sleep some will die in accidents and some as the result of diseases cancer or AIDS Because we do not usually know when we are going to die most of us are frightened of death We do not want to talk about it do not want to face it and we run from it as long as we can And some of us die a lonely death in a hospital surrounded by strangers and white sheets while family and loved ones are kept out of the room at the final moment Anya Foos Graber believes that death like birth should be a shining light filled conscious moment Death is not a disease It is the most natural passage we will make since birth Looking at death before the time comes is like learning about natural childbirth before having a baby Just as women are choosing to be conscious participants in the birth process Foos Graber feels that all of us should be conscious as well of our eventual death that we should prepare for it the way the Tibetan Buddhists and American Indians used to do The author calls this process of conscious preparation and practice deathing The book presents two teaching stories illustrating both a conscious death and an unconscious one The second half of the book is a step by step manual containing complete instruction and simple exercises such as breathing visualization and the all important 6th technique or your chosen Name and form of God to which you direct your attention in life and the death transition You can
