New Austrian Architecture:

The New Austrian Architecture Frank Dimster, 1995 Describes and illustrates 37 of the newest and best projects by contemporary architects in Austria New Austrian Architecture 1994-99 Otto Kapfinger, Walter Zschokke, Bettina Schlorhauser, 1999 A new wave of Austrian architecture Kenneth Frampton, 1980 Drawings Heinz Tesar, Matthias Boeckl, 2003-06-11 Heinz Tesar the well known Austrian architect built this church as a spiritual centre an oasis in the diaspora for Donau City a new residential and commercial centre of Vienna Austrian Information ,2002 Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world's most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 American Architect and Building News ,1878 The American Architect and Building News ,1892 IAUS, the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies Suzanne Frank, Suzanne Shulof Frank, 2010 The book is a combined memoir and impressionistic history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies At first affiliated with New York's Museum of Modern Art and Cornell University the Institute housed architects artists and historians who worked on creative design and intellectual projects and would become world renown Its creation and direction was in the hands of its able leader Peter Eisenman Besides a documentary study of the work that went on there among an international clearing house the book is laced with impressions of the author's experience there It has been in the works for over 12 years and was originally financed by the Graham Foundation for the Study of the Fine Arts and has subsequently been aided by Dr Jenny Kaufmann The photographs of the Institute at the height of its activity are included and so does an original ground plan of its West 40th Street office done by Scott Brandi who also designed the book It ends with 27 interviews of prominent members of the Institute who comment on it and their experiences The book should appeal to architecture students and those interested in architecture and urbanism of the seventies when the government in the United States was more reasonable in economic and political equity Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Bringing to light the debt twentieth century modernist architects owe to the vernacular building traditions of the Mediterranean region this book considers architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1980s The essays here situate Mediterranean modernism in relation to concepts such as regionalism nationalism internationalism critical regionalism and postmodernism an alternative history of the modern architecture and urbanism of a critical period in the twentieth century The Architect ,1889 Austria Marian Mazdra, 2004-12-30 Provides an overview of the geography history government people arts foods and other aspects of life in Austria Ornamentalism , Architecture in Dialogue with an Activated Ground Urs Bette,2020-03-30 Architecture in Dialogue with an Activated Ground sets out to validate the role of the unreasonable in the design process Using case study projects architect Urs Bette gives an insight into the epistemological processes of his creative practice and unveils the strategies he deploys in order to facilitate the poetic aspects of architecture within a discourse whose evaluation parameters predominantly involve reason Themes discussed include the emergence of space from the staged opposition between the architectural object and the site and the relationship between emotive cognition and analytic synthesis in the design act In both cases there is a necessary engagement with forms of unreasonable thought action or behaviours By arguing for the usefulness and validity of the unreasonable in architecture and by investigating the performative relationship between object and ground Bette contributes to the discourse on extensions growth and urban densification that tap into local histories and voices including those of the seemingly inanimate the architecture itself and the ground it sits upon to inform the site related production of architectural character and space In doing so he raises debates about the values pursued in design approval processes and the ways in which site relatedness is both produced and judged The Architect and Contract Reporter ,1914 Raimund Abraham [UN]BUILT Brigitte Groihofer,2016-12-05 No detailed description available for Raimund Abraham UN BUILT Sustainable Architecture in Vorarlberg Ulrich Dangel,2009-11-20 The successful combination of a regional building style of sophisticated simplicity with sustainable construction methods has made the architecture of Vorarlberg Austria a model for the rest of the world This book presents particularly successful projects from recent years involving various building types and portrays their development from design idea to built detail The documented structures by Cukrowicz Nachbaur Christian Lenz Oskar Leo Kaufmann Albert R f Hermann Kaufmann Dietrich Untertrifaller Baumschlager Eberle Marte Marte and Martin Rauch place the focus on their energy strategy and formally ambitious construction methods All of the plans and detail drawings were specially prepared for the book which makes it easy to compare the projects American Architect and the Architectural Review ,1901 Design and the Built Environment of the Arctic Leena Cho,Matthew Jull,2023-12-20 Design and the Built Environment of the Arctic is a concise introductory guide to the design and planning of the built environments in the Arctic region As the global forces of change are becoming more pronounced in the Arctic the future trajectories for living environments city making processes and their adaptive capacities need to be addressed directly This book presents 11 new and original contributions from both leading and emerging scholars and practitioners positioning the Arctic as a dynamic diverse and lived place at the nexus of unprecedented socioenvironmental transformations The volume offers key concepts for understanding and spatializing Arctic cities and landscapes similarities and differences in the development of design and planning approaches responsive to specific climatic and cultural conditions and historical and geographic case studies that provide unique perspectives for the management of the built environment from the scales of a building and infrastructure to cities and territories Altogether the contributions expand regional Arctic design scholarship to understand how the variability of the Arctic context influences the designed urban architecture and landscape systems and offer numerous lessons for design and other forms of spatial practice both within and beyond the Arctic This is a unique resource for researchers creative practitioners policymakers and community decision makers as well as for advanced undergraduate and graduate students
