Volume 5, Tome II: Kierkegaard and the Renaissance and Modern Traditions - Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 The long period from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century supplied numerous sources for Kierkegaard's thought in any number of different fields The present rather heterogeneous volume covers the long period from the birth of Savonarola in 1452 through the beginning of the nineteenth century and into Kierkegaard's own time The Danish thinker read authors representing vastly different traditions and time periods Moreover he also read a diverse range of genres His interests concerned not just philosophy theology and literature but also drama and music The present volume consists of three tomes that are intended to cover Kierkegaard's sources in these different fields of thought Tome II is dedicated to the wealth of theological and religious sources from the beginning of the Reformation to Kierkegaard's own day It examines Kierkegaard's relations to some of the key figures of the Reformation period from the Lutheran Reformed and Catholic traditions It thus explores Kierkegaard's reception of theologians and spiritual authors of various denominations most of whom are known to history primarily for their exposition of practical spirituality rather than theological doctrine Several of the figures investigated here are connected to the Protestant tradition of Pietism that Kierkegaard was familiar with from a very early stage The main figures in this context include the forefather of Pietism Johann Arndt the Reformed writer Gerhard Tersteegen and the Danish author Hans Adolph Brorson With regard to Catholicism Kierkegaard was familiar with several popular figures of Catholic humanism Post Tridentine theology and Baroque spirituality such as Francis Frelon Ludvig Blossius and Abraham a Sancta Clara He was also able to find inspiration in highly controversial and original figures of the Renaissance and the early Modern period such as Girolamo Savonarola or Jacob Böhme the latter of whom was at the time an en vogue topic among trendsetting philosophers and theologians such as Hegel Franz von Baader Schelling and Hans Lassen Martensen

Lady Day [25 March] 1751 Thomas Osborne, 1751 The Bookseller, 1876 Love and Friendship in the Western Tradition James McEvoy, 2023-08-18 Love and Friendship in the Western Tradition comprises a collection of essays written over a 25 year period by the late Rev Professor James McEvoy on the theme of friendship The book traces the genesis and development of philosophical treatments of friendship from Greek philosophy through the Middle Ages to modern and postmodern philosophy The collection's three major concerns are 1 the history of philosophical discussions of friendship 2 the role of friendship in the cultivation of the philosophical life 3 the marginalization of friendship as a theme for philosophical reflection and practice in the modern period As the author was primarily a medievalist a great deal of the focus of the essays is on the development of the theme of friendship in the Middle Ages in the thought of Augustine Aquinas Aelred of Rievaulx Henry of Ghent Robert Grosseteste etc However this focus while a value in itself also serves to connect philosophical perspectives on friendship from before and after the middle ages It connects to the time before inasmuch as much of the work done on friendship in the Middle Ages is anchored in interpretations of Aristotle and Plato and it connects to the time after by providing a counterpoint to the modern paradigm of what constitutes the philosophical life The collection combines historical with thematic approaches to scholarship on this issue and is one of the only books of its kind to do so It is perhaps unique in its historical sweep and will prove to be a canonical source for further research on this topic Johann
