The Real St. Nicholas Louise Carus, 2002-10-01 A collection of folktales and stories from throughout Europe reveals that the generosity and kindness attributed to Saint Nicholas goes beyond delivering toys to children The Rye Man David Park, 2015-05-07 To write well about Ulster while keeping terrorism from monopolising the foreground is infinitely hard This wise sincere troubling novel shows how it should be done The Times To pull off this sort of story satisfactorily demands a skill in timing and a clarity in presentation which are beyond most novelists but Park doesn't put a foot wrong Sunday Telegraph

Returning to rural Northern Ireland for a fresh start John Cameron takes on the role of headmaster at his old primary school But as dark memories are disturbed and his marriage falters Cameron is left feeling powerless in this fractured community Driven by unresolved grief and tormented by his waking dreams he is forced to confront his past as he struggles to prevent history from repeating itself Rich Man's War, Poor Man's Fight Jeanette Keith, 2005-10-12

During World War I thousands of rural southern men black and white refused to serve in the military Some failed to register for the draft while others deserted after being inducted In the countryside armed bands of deserters defied local authorities capturing them required the dispatch of federal troops into three southern states Jeanette Keith traces southern draft resistance to several sources including whites long term political opposition to militarism southern blacks reluctance to serve a nation that refused to respect their rights the peace witness of southern churches and above all anger at class bias in federal conscription policies Keith shows how draft dodgers success in avoiding service resulted from the failure of southern states to create effective mechanisms for identifying and classifying individuals Lacking local level data on draft evaders the federal government used agencies of surveillance both to find reluctant conscripts and to squelch antiwar dissent in rural areas Drawing upon rarely used local draft board reports Selective Service archives Bureau of Investigation reports and southern political leaders constituent files Keith offers new insights into rural southern politics and society as well as the growing power of the nation state in early twentieth century America South of South Beach Keith G.

Laufenberg, 2014-07-05 South of South Beach takes the reader back in time to the 60 s and 70 s during a time when South Beach was nothing like the glitzy Art Deco district it is today but more of a dilapidated run down section of real estate where Chris Dundee runs the 5th Street Gym and many transplanted prizefighters Muhammad Ali among them roam the streets looking for something to while away the hours while they prepare their bodies for the task of fighting another highly trained boxer who wants to beat their brains out even as they wish to do much the same to them The girls stroll parts of South Beach in bikinis and the Beatles have even visited the 5th Street Gym recently the beat generation is giving way to the hippie free love generation so come back in time and visit what today is one of the world's great vacation centers but at this time during the 1960 s was more of a slum or a ghetto to avoid at your own peril especially a small stretch of beach just south of South

Beach A Dictionary of Slang, Jargon & Cant Albert Barrère, Charles Godfrey Leland, 1890 Elders Revenge Adrian Kent, 2022-09-04 The highly anticipated sequel to Eden Awakening The second book in the Rye Braden series finds Rye dealing with more threats and battling against even more enemies The fast paced modern sci fi theme continues from the first book yet still manages to provide an even more edge of your seat experience Rye Braden saved thousands of lives from certain death when he and his team stopped the attack on Sky Zone One His enhanced capabilities and experience brought victory to the United Continents against those that would want to see them destroyed At the same time he made himself the prime target of the deadliest secret organisation on the planet the Elders With others now knowing about his enhanced capabilities he has caught the attention of various government organisations One particular organisation is the Special Warfare Cadre who want Rye to work with them to help defeat terrorism His skills and talents becoming a desirable commodity in the battle against those that would defy the United Continents As he takes on more high risk missions and learns to operate in the shadows he still can't stop his previous life from catching up with him In addition to protecting the world against terrorism and other threats Rye must protect himself and those close to him As his journey unfolds the lines between protector and killer start to blur Until it comes to a point where he must choose which path to take before it becomes too late Can Rye protect the world from those that would see it destroyed and at the same time protect himself against the Elders THE SECOND BOOK FROM THE RYE BRADEN SERIES Sparky and the Waarheid Camera Stephen DeLuca, 2008-11 Sparky and the Waarheid Camera is a darkly comic tale of oddballs subterfuge selfishness and disappointment which contrast with the title character's charming innocence The novel follows Sparky Donnelly a ten year old boy whose superficially idyllic home life is about to shatter Sparky is aware that something is wrong a feeling which he experiences as a vague indefinable dissatisfaction and naively attributes to his television fueled perception that other people are living far more fun and exciting lives than he is This idea obsesses Sparky and triggers an extraordinary dream of an entire day Armed with several hundred dollars and a special camera that purportedly reveals the true essence of things rather than their outward appearance Sparky gets a taste of a wide spectrum of dysfunctional and perverse adults in his travels The conversations that ensue from these surreal encounters serve up slyly ironic and raunchy humor including some unwittingly sardonic observations by Sparky himself Annual Report of the Secretary of the Board of Agriculture Massachusetts. State Board of Agriculture, 1875 Surnames of the United Kingdom Henry Harrison, 1969 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Three Million Stories The OMSCWP,2011-12-10 Welcome to the third instalment book three on the journey to a million stories but of course it is about more than just the numbers It is about the creative spirit that has given us the drive to write the energy to express what we think feel or desire This year has been a year of innovation and new ideas at millionstories net The 52 Shorts Challenge invited writers to respond to weekly writing prompts As an experiment it helped some authors achieve some incredible results with fantastic leaps of the imagination combined with terrific industry It was devised as a way to coach writers into a regular writing habit over the course of a year Some of these stories are right here in this collection Within these pages you will discover commentary on the London riots the monsoon living with HIV celebrity the perils of invisibility environmental vandalism ghosts monsters and a nice cup of tea Streetlife Keith G. Laufenberg Laufenberg,2014-07-18 Streetlife is a collection of stories that focuses on and vividly reveals the harsh realities of life on the streets in America It shows the edges of those streets and how we can easily fall through the cracks in the so called free market Capitalist system to end up there with little more than one unfortunate circumstance Here then is an offering of stories that interweave humor with the all too often coincidental and sometimes pathetic circumstances that land so many of these characters down a dark road to oblivion These offerings as well as the rest will keep the reader on edge until the story and book are finished Code of Federal Regulations ,1961 The Manly Art Keith G. Laufenberg,2014-05-19 The Manly Art is another collection of writer Keith G Laufenberg s short stories only this time with the defining factor being that they all involve the sport of boxing Having been in the sport himself beginning at age 17 when he entered Marine Corps boot camp and ending after seven years fought as a professional he is afforded a closer more intimate look into the boxers lives In Sonny Liston s Eyes the reader is taken into the Underworld of the sport when a writer interviews an ex mobster who is dying of lung cancer and claims to have killed Sonny Liston as well as JFK and Martin Luther King Jr He tells an incredible story but backs it up by saying he has absolutely verifiable evidence that he will produce for the writer In Frankenstein we see why a young amateur boxer should have picked boxing over football He has little say in the matter though as his father and uncle have trained him his entire life for football and it along with the other stories will keep you glued to the page Cottage Economy, to Which is Added The Poor Man's Friend William Cobbett,2022-08-01 In Cottage Economy to Which is Added The Poor Man s Friend William Cobbett presents a groundbreaking exploration of rural life and self sufficiency in early 19th century England This treatise rich in practical advice and straightforward prose advocates for the benefits of cottage industries and agrarian practices that empower the working class Cobbett employs a didactic yet engaging literary style interspersing personal anecdotes with statistical data to illustrate the economic advantages of local food production and the importance of self reliance The book serves as both a manual and a manifesto urging the lower classes to reclaim their dignity and independence through agricultural knowledge and skillful economy Cobbett a prominent social reformer and political writer was profoundly influenced by his own modest upbringing and experiences as a farmer His discontent with the industrial revolution s impact on rural communities fueled his passion to advocate for the rights of the laboring poor With an extensive background in journalism and a keen interest in agricultural practices Cobbett was uniquely positioned to address the struggles of his contemporaries while providing practical solutions for their socio economic challenges Readers seeking a profound understanding of early 19th century agrarian issues and a blueprint for sustainable living will find Cottage Economy invaluable Cobbett s insightful observations and practical guidance resonate beyond their historical context making this work a vital resource for anyone interested in the intersections of economy agriculture and social justice Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1890

Hansard's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1890 The Gentleman's Magazine ,1757 The Gentleman s magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader s monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month s new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs The Gentleman's Magazine: Or, Monthly Intelligencer Edward Cave,1757 Wandering Heart: a Gay Man'S Journey John Loomis M.D.,2010-02-04 John Loomis grew up in a small South Texas town during the last days of the Great Depression and World War II As an only child and with disturbed parents he was isolated from his peers Growing up shy bookish and knowing from a very early age that he was different in some unacceptable way he was very distressed to find out from the high school library that he was gay There was no one to turn to for help or information He thought the only other gay person on earth was Andre Gide the great French writer but he was too far away to visit Feeling alone but not lonely he went on to college and medical school and after that did psychiatric training and opened an office in New York City Gradually he made peace with being gay and began a search for love which led to many adventures disasters happiness and heartbreak After inheriting the family business he was torn between it and his medical practice He developed alcoholism the family disease and was also troubled by recurrent depressions Beginning his recovery from alcoholism in 1977 he has been able to construct a generally happy life
