Vision and Visual Perception Duco A. Schreuder, 2014-12-03 Vision is about insight and visual perception is about cognition and they form the foundation of how we see the world Duco A Schreuder a physicist and psychologist explores the finer details of each in this groundbreaking book that explores human consciousness and perception Sharing virtually everything he's learned over a varied career spanning more than sixty years he examines a wide array of topics including how we understand what we visually process how we store and retrieve information the role that neurons play in how what we see and much more While Schreuder isn't afraid to disagree with other leading thinkers he relies on science and focuses on the facts behind it so you can understand lighting visual perception engineering design and applied and experimental physics Looking is about insight whereas seeing is about knowledge and you need to know how each one works to truly understand how humanity views the world Whether you're an illuminating engineer considering the fundamentals of the trade or a student or professional in an allied discipline you'll be well served by taking a closer look at Vision and Visual Perception

Landscapes of Aesthetic Education Stuart Richmond, Celeste Snowber, 2020-06-12 This book brings together two experienced educators from the fields of teacher education and arts education The authors Richmond a photographer and Snowber a dancer and poet see aesthetic education as aiming to extend creativity appreciation of the arts and nature and the sensuous qualities of everyday life to gain a more intimate understanding of the self and the world They include poetic narrative philosophical and artistic ways of writing to support a more embodied and holistic aesthetics Landscapes of Aesthetic Education has significance for educators scholars students and artists and for all who would like to explore the connections between the arts aesthetics and transformation Small Press Review ,1998 Touching the Passion — Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith Donna L. Sadler,2018-03-06 In Touching the Passion Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith Donna Sadler explores the manner in which worshipers responded to the carved and polychromed retables adorning the altars of their parish churches Framed by the symbolic death of Christ re enacted during the Mass the historical account of the Passion on the retable situated Christ s suffering and triumph over death in the present The dramatic gestures contemporary garb and wealth of anecdotal detail on the altarpiece invited the viewer s absorption in the narrative As in the Imitatio Christi the worshiper imaginatively projected himself into the story like a child before a dollhouse The five senses the sculptural medium the small scale and the rhetoric of memory foster this immersion Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2000

The Visibility of the Image Lambert Wiesing,2016-09-22 Now available in English for the first time The Visibility of the Image explores the development of an influential aesthetic tradition through the work of six figures Analysing their contribution to the progress of formal aesthetics from its origins in Germany in the 1880s to semiotic interpretations in America a century later the six chapters cover Robert Zimmermann 1824 1898 the first to separate aesthetics and metaphysics and approach aesthetics along the lines of formal logic providing a purely syntactic way of using signs regardless of objective content Alois Riegl 1858 1905 who went on to further develop aesthetics on the model of formal logic creating a theory of style in response to Zimmermann s call for an aesthetics oriented toward formal logic Heinrich W lfflin 1864 1945 who represents a step toward an understanding of consciousness by using pictures as cognitive tools Konrad Fiedler 1841 1895 the Saxon philosopher who considered the possibility that some kinds of images are made and viewed not for what they show but for their visibility s sake alone Maurice Merleau Ponty 1908 1961 responsible for taking up the connections between the problems of reducing the range of potential meanings and contexts of a given image down to just the picture surface Charles William Morris 1901 1979 who set out to establish whether a picture with no objective reference such as an abstract painting still counts as a sign and if so in what sense Bringing these thinkers together and interlinking their ideas Lambert Wiesing presents an engaging history of formal aesthetics while reconstructing the philosophical foundations for the appearance of new image forms in the 20th century including the video clip abstract collage digital simulation and virtual reality Using this original approach The Visibility of the Image introduces the rise of modern image theory and provides a valuable account of our engagement with pictures in the 21st century Living, Thinking, Looking

Siri Hustvedt,2012-06-05 Essays that explore what it means to be a human being draw upon the author's personal experiences thoughts on memory emotion and the imagination and the visual arts Conscious Seeing Roberto Kaplan,2011-06-21 If the eyes are indeed the windows to the soul then there might be a deeper significance to the emergence of an eye problem like nearsightedness than one might think In Conscious Seeing Dr Roberto Kaplan explains that how we see is the largest determining factor in what we see When we look at our eyes beyond the diagnosis of a problem we can come to understand that visual symptoms are valuable messages through which we can be more aware of our true nature An insightful practical and holistic approach to eye care Conscious Seeing gives you the tools to reprogram your consciousness and gain skills for modifying your perception Artistic Creation Jeff Mitscherling,Paul Fairfield,2019-04-29 Artistic creation has proven remarkably resistant to philosophical analysis Artists have long struggled to explain how they do what they do and philosophers have struggled along with them This study does not attempt to offer a comprehensive account of all creativity or all art Instead it tries to identify an essential feature of an activity that has been cloaked in mystery for as long as history records Jeff Mitscherling and Paul Fairfield argue that the process by which art is created has a good deal in common with the experience of the audience of a work and that both experiences may be described phenomenologically in ways that show surprising affinities with what artists themselves often report Cognising Asian Societies Through Psychological Underpinnings Aradhana Shukla,Anubhuti Dubey,Narendra Singh Thagunna,2022-01-01 Asia is the place of cultural diversity and this variation in culture can be found in each nation and every walk of life This may be noticed in terms of thought dialect behaviour parameters and so many other attributes There are about forty eight countries in Asia and they are at one side of the coin similar in some respects and different in others on the other side of the coin But there is an affinity that has tied them and this common thread has linked all in one garland This volume aims to collect the articles whether empirical or theoretical to cognize Asian societies through psychological underpinning The chapters presented here reveal various shades of Asian societies We hope that they will help the researchers and social science professionals to change and extend their views regarding cultural studies In this way this volume may add some new visions and directions to those who have a deep quench to know something new in cultural psychology The Elements of Power Terry Bacon,2011-01-26 Discover invaluable insights about power and leadership with up and coming influencers from the former CEO of a global consulting firm Author Terry R Bacon teaches you how things like your own knowledge expressiveness history character network and reputation can open the complex combination lock to true leadership and irresistible influence Whether you're interested in taking on a more substantial role in your professional or personal life these tools already at your disposal are the key to achieving success Applying the latest research on the nature of power all over the world Elements of Power shows you how power works in organizations how people use and lose power the relationship between power and leadership what makes famous people powerful and how to lead and influence others more effectively Complete with examinations of key business figures and world leaders and a handy self assessment tool Elements of Power offers an accessible and unprecedented pipeline to the many sources and types of internal and external power and provides insights on how to leverage each and how to exert the most important power of all the power of will

Arts-Based Teaching and Learning in the Literacy Classroom Jessica Whitelaw, 2019-05-01 This book highlights the unique and co generative intersections of the arts and literacy that promote critical and socially engaged teaching and learning Based on a year long ethnography with two literacy teachers and their students in an arts based public high school this volume makes an argument for arts based education as the cultivation of a critical aesthetic practice in the literacy classroom Through rich example and analysis it shows how over time this practice alters the in school learning space in significant ways by making it more constructivist more critical and fundamentally more relational

George Inness and the Science of Landscape Rachael Z. DeLue, 2008-09-15 George Inness 1825-94 long considered one of America's greatest landscape painters has yet to receive his full due from scholars and critics A complicated artist and thinker Inness painted stunningly beautiful evocative views of the American countryside Less interested in representing the details of a particular place than in rendering the subjective mystery of nature Inness believed that capturing the spirit or essence of a natural scene could point to a reality beyond the physical or as Inness put it the reality of the unseen Throughout his career Inness struggled to make visible what was invisible to the human eye by combining a deep interest in nineteenth century scientific inquiry including optics psychology physiology and mathematics with an idiosyncratic brand of mysticism Rachael Ziady DeLue's George Inness and the Science of Landscape the first in depth examination of Inness's career to appear in several decades demonstrates how the artistic spiritual and scientific aspects of Inness's art found expression in his masterful landscapes In fact Inness's practice was not merely shaped by his preoccupation with the nature and limits of human perception he conceived of his labor as a science in its own right This lavishly illustrated work reveals Inness as profoundly invested in the science and philosophy of his time and illuminates the complex manner in which the fields of art and science intersected in nineteenth century America Long awaited this reevaluation of one of the major figures of nineteenth century American art will prove to be a seminal text in the fields of art history and American studies

Merleau-Ponty Rosalyn Diprose, Jack Reynolds, 2014-12-05 Having initially not had the attention of Sartre or Heidegger Merleau Ponty's work is arguably now more widely influential than either of his two contemporaries Merleau Ponty Key Concepts presents an accessible guide to the core ideas which structure Merleau Ponty's thinking as well as to his influences and the value of his ideas to a wide range of disciplines The first section of the book presents the context of Merleau Ponty's thinking the major debates of his time particularly existentialism phenomenology the history of philosophy and the philosophy of history and society The second section outlines his major contributions and conceptual innovations The final section focuses upon how his work has been taken up in other fields besides philosophy notably in sociology cognitive science health studies feminism and race theory
