Sviri, 2019-10-21 This monograph explores the original literary produce of Muslim mystics during the eighth tenth centuries with special attention to ninth century mystics such as al Tustar al Mu'sib al Kharriz al Junayd and in particular al akmal al Tirmidh Unlike other studies dealing with the so called Formative Period this book focuses on the extant writings of early mystics rather than on the later f compilations These early mystics articulated what would become a hallmark of Islamic mysticism a system built around the psychological tension between the self nafs and the heart qalb and how to overcome it Through their writings already at this early phase the versatility fluidity and maturity of Islamic mysticism become apparent This exploration thus reveals that mysticism in Islam emerged earlier than customarily acknowledged long before Islamic mysticism became generically known as fism The central figure of this book is al akmal al Tirmidh whose teaching and inner world focus on themes such as polarity the training of the self the opening of the heart the Friends of God al awliya dreams and visions divine language mystical exegesis and more This book thus offers a fuller picture than hitherto presented of the versatility of themes processes images practices terminology and thought models during this early period The volume will be a key resource for scholars and students interested in the study of religion f studies Late Antiquity and Medieval Islam

The Cycle of Life Erel Shalit, 2011-09-25 The art of life is the most distinguished and rarest of all the arts C G Jung CW 8 par 789 The Cycle of Life explores the patterns that unfold over the course of our lives as we set out to find our place in the world in our efforts to live authentically and in our search for home that place within ourselves that can so easily be neglected or disregarded in this fast paced modern world In the first half of life the task of the young traveler is to depart from home to adventure out into the world to find his or her own individual path However in the second half we find ourselves on what often amounts to a very long journey in search of home In many a tale the hero for instance Gilgamesh sets off on his road to find life's elixir while other stories such as the Odyssey revolve around the hero's long and arduous journey home Many are also familiar with the journey of Dante who at the very beginning of his Divine Comedy finds himself Midway along the journey of our life The archetypal journey of life is constantly reenacted in the never ending process of individuation We find ourselves returning to this venture repeatedly every night as we set out on our voyage into the landscape of our unconscious Many dreams begin by being on the way for instance I am on my way to I am driving on a road that leads into the desert I am walking through one room after the other in a long corridor like building I am walking towards my office but it looks different than in reality I walk on the pavement and on the opposite side of the street someone seems to be following me I go down into an underground parking I am in my car but someone I don't know is driving I have to go to the place from where I came

The New Age, 1922 Divine Love in Islamic Mysticism Binyamin Abrahamov, 2013-10-28

The two theories of divine love that are examined in this book have their foundations in Greek Jewish Christian and Muslim ideas Al Ghazali twelfth century was influenced mainly by Plato and Ibn Sina's teachings while al Dabbir thirteenth century who accepted some Ghazali notions developed a theory of divine love that can be traced back to Neoplatonism Both scholars created complete theories of divine love that include definitions of love its causes and signs the ways to love God God's love for man and kinds of love The book will interest students of theology philosophy and mysticism in general and students of Islam in particular
