Looking Back 199:

Prologue, 1999 The New Old Julia Huber, Paul Skidmore, 2003 Baby Boomers can rewrite the political agenda on public spending quality of life or even conflict between the generations cover Scenario Based Strategy Paul de Ruijter, 2016-04-01 We need strategy The world is changing the future uncertain What is required is vision What might the future bring Where is our business going What are our fundamental business values This book is a manual for all those who want to apply strategy in organisations It is intended for everyone who wants to put the future on the agenda to look beyond the short term and beyond mere profit It describes in practical terms the eight questions we must continually discuss in order to pursue a future proof strategy in a dynamic and uncertain world mission trends scenarios options vision roadmap action and monitoring If you are dissatisfied with an approach to strategy based on simple backward looking analysis management controls and problems solving after the fact but would like to make a positive contribution to thinking about the future Scenario based Strategy offers the instruments to turn your intention into practice The text provides examples from commercial to government and trade organizations showing how others have undertaken future explorations and how they used these explorations to create a dynamic strategy Paul de Ruijter has a deep insight into the theory alongside practical experience working with some of the most highly regarded and resilient organizations The result is a rich combination of methodology and practical engaging examples that shows you how to go about creating an agenda for the future

Unmaking Waste Sarah Newman, 2023-05-26 In Unmaking Waste Sarah Newman asks what happens when there are disagreements about what constitutes waste and what one should do with it both at singular moments in time for example when ideas about waste collide in emerging colonial contexts and across time such as between those who left things behind in the past and the archaeologists who recover them Newman examines ancient Mesoamerican understandings of waste Euro American perceptions of waste in New Spain and early modern European ideals of civility and Christian understandings of good and bad expressed metaphorically through cleanliness and filth These differing perceptions Newman argues demands that we rethink centuries of assumptions imposed on other places times and peoples so long as waste remains a category misunderstood to be common sensical and stable archaeological methods will prove unequal to their task Newman instead proposes anamorphic archaeology an approach that emphasizes the possibility that archaeological objects have multiple physical and conceptual lives Treating Sex Offenders Jill D. Stinson, Judith V. Becker, 2018-03-23 This structured yet flexible manual presents an innovative group treatment approach that targets deficits in self regulation a central problem for sex offenders Safe Offender Strategies SOS comprises 10 evidence based modules that teach participants the skills to desist from problem behaviors manage their emotions and impulses and break unhealthy relationship patterns Motivational enhancement and validation techniques are woven throughout this collaborative treatment SOS can be used with a range of clients including high risk offenders and those with mental illness or intellectual disabilities in institutional or outpatient

Madsen, Kevin Gillespie, 2014-04-07 An interdisciplinary framework for sustainable helping through cross system collaboration This hands on resource provides clear practical guidance for supportive service professionals working in a home based environment Drawing on best practices from a range of disciplines this book provides a clear map for dealing with the complex and often ambiguous situations that arise with individuals and families with applications extending to supervision and organizational change Readers gain the advice and insight of real world frontline helpers as well as those who receive care highlighting new ways to approach the work and re think previous conceptualizations of problems and strengths Helping efforts are organized around a shared forward thinking vision that anticipates obstacles and draws on existing and potential supports in developing a collaborative plan of action The book begins with stories that illustrate core concepts and context presenting a number of useful ideas that can reorient behavioral services while outlining a principle based practice framework to help workers stay grounded and focused Problems are addressed and strength based work is expanded into richer conversations about strengths in the context of intention and purpose value and belief hopes dreams and commitments Topics include Contextual guidance with helping maps Engaging people and re thinking problems and strengths Dilemmas in home and community services Sustainable helping through collaboration and support A strong collaboration between natural networks communities and trained professionals across systems creates an effective helping endeavor Ensuring sustainability may involve promoting systems change and building institutional supports for specific supervisory management and organizational practices Collaborative Helping provides a framework for organizing these efforts into a coherent whole serving the needs of supportive services workers across sectors

Memoir of George Howard Wilkinson Arthur James Mason, 1909 Discipline and Desire Elise Morrison, 2016-10-12 Discipline and Desire examines how surveillance technologies when placed within the frames of theater and performance can be used to critique and reimagine the politics of surveillance in everyday life The book explores how rapidly proliferating surveillance technologies including drones CCTV cameras GPS tracking systems medical surveillance equipment and facial recognition software can be repurposed through performance to become technologies of ethical witnessing critique and action While the subject of surveillance continues to provoke fascination and debate in mainstream media and academia opportunities to critically reflect upon and more importantly to imagine alternative creative responses to living in a rapidly expanding surveillance society have been harder to find Author Elise Morrison argues that such opportunities are being created through the growing genre of surveillance art and performance defined as works that centrally employ technologies and techniques of surveillance to create theater installation and performance art Introducing readers to a broad range of surveillance art works including the work of artists and activists such as Surveillance Camera Players Jill Magid Steve Mann Hasan Elahi Wafaa Bilal Blast Theory Electronic Disturbance Theater George Brant Janet Cardiff Mona Hatoum and Zach Blas Discipline and Desire provides a practical and analytical framework that can aid the diverse pursuits of new media arts practitioners performance scholars activists and hobbyists interested in critical and creative uses of surveillance technologies
