Smith, Julia Watson, Sidonie Smith, 2006-08-01 The life narratives in this collection are by ethnically diverse women of energy and ambition some well known some forgotten over generations who confronted barriers of gender class race and sexual difference as they pursued or adapted to adventurous new lives in a rapidly changing America The engaging selections from captivity narratives to letters manifestos criminal confessions and childhood sketches span a hundred years in which women increasingly asserted themselves publicly Some rose to positions of prominence as writers activists and artists some sought education or wrote to support themselves and their families some transgressed social norms in search of new possibilities Each woman s story is strikingly individual yet the brief narratives in this anthology collectively chart bold new visions of women s agency This rich new anthology sets in motion an inter textual conversation of remarkable vitality that will change the ways we understand gender class ethnicity culture and nation in nineteenth century America Susanna Egan author of Mirror Talk The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration s fundamental role in shaping modern Europe Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years But as we consider the current refugee crisis acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless Later as former colonial states gained national independence colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point Gatrell places migration at the center of post war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe Diversity and Society Joseph F. Matt, 2011-09-08 Using letters diaries memoirs medical records and psychological studies this wide ranging book uncovers the profound pain felt by Americans on the move from the country's founding until the present day Susan Matt shows how colonists in Jamestown longed for and often returned to England African Americans during the Great Migration yearned for their Southern homes and immigrants nursed memories of Sicily and Guadalajara and even after years in America frequently traveled home These iconic representatives of the undaunted forward looking American spirit were often homesick hesitant and reluctant voyagers Statistical Yearbook of the Immigration and Naturalization Service ,1991 Illegal, Legal Immigration Kofi Quaye, 2008-09-15 This book will inform and educate the general public on illegal immigration and its effects not only on those directly involved in the process but on the general population as well Writing about it in the context of its impact on contemporary society seems to be the best way to do it How the different media view it the degree to which the public has been influenced to view the question of immigration in the United States Europe and elsewhere are included in the issues discussed analyzed and elaborated on as we attempt to look at the process of immigration legal and illegal from the standpoint of its impact on society as a whole If some of the stories seem to be familiar it is because the people are real and the things they talk about actually happened They are essentially true stories told by people who want to share their real life experiences Only in a few instances have names been changed to protect the identities of those involved
