Looking For America Seven Schools Experimenting With Intergroup Relations:

Looking for America: Seven schools experimenting with intergroup relations Delia Pompa, Michael Reilly, 1995 In 1992 the National Coalition of Advocates for Students received a grant to support a national project to examine social relationships between immigrant students and children of established residents This book documents activities from the Looking for America project at seven diverse U S public schools and offers conclusions and recommendations to guide those undertaking similar efforts in other schools The experiences of these 7 urban schools 4 high schools 1 elementary school and 2 middle schools opinions of their students and responses of 182 staff members were used to distill the following action steps for change 1 create a climate for change 2 establish an intergroup relations team 3 develop a school profile 4 make an inventory of resources 5 involve the community and 6 make a plan Case studies of each of the project schools explore the intergroup relations activities in each Four appendixes discuss study methodology and intergroup relations describe 12 resource organizations and describe the National Coalition of Advocates for Students SLD Resources in Education, 1999 Ford Foundation Annual Report Ford Foundation, 1996 The president's report to the trustees and statement of grants Books in Print, 1991 Research in Education, 1971-12 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Resources in Education, 1996 The Routledge International Handbook of Educational Effectiveness and Improvement Christopher Chapman, Daniel Muijs, David Reynolds, Pam Sammons, Charles Teddlie, 2015-08-14 The International Handbook of Educational Effectiveness and Improvement draws together leading academics and researchers in the field to reflect on the history traditions and the most recent developments in this dynamic and influential field This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the foundations of the field the evolution of educational effectiveness theory and methodology the links with other research disciplines the links between policy and practice In conclusion the handbook sets out a new agenda for future educational effectiveness research This handbook is an essential resource for those interested in the effectiveness of educational systems organisations and classrooms It offers academics researchers students and policy makers new insights into the latest thinking and evidence about educational effectiveness The Oxford Handbook of Personality and Social Psychology Kay Deaux, Mark Snyder, 2012-02-10 In this text contributors explore the historical conceptual methodological and empirical foundations that link the two fields of personality psychology and social psychology across numerous domains Why Are Professors Liberal and Why Do Conservatives Care? Neil Gross, 2013-04-09 Neil Gross shows that the U S academy's liberal reputation has exerted a self-selecting influence on young liberals while deterring promising conservatives His study sheds new light on both academic life and American politics where the conservative movement was built in part around opposition to the liberal elite in higher education Youth-serving Organizations Merritt Madison Chambers, 1948 Housing Desegregation and Federal Policy John M. Goering, 2012-12-30 Housing desegregation is one of America's last civil rights frontiers Drawing on the expertise of social scientists civil rights attorneys and policy analysts these original essays present the first comprehensive examination of housing integration and federal policy covering the last two decades This collection examines the ambiguities of federal fair housing law the shifting attitudes of white and black Americans toward housing integration the debate over racial quotas in housing and the efficacy of federal programs Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 banned discrimination in federally assisted housing and Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 banned discrimination in most of the private housing market Housing Desegregation and Federal Policy shows that America has made only modest progress in desegregating housing despite these federal policies Providing a balanced assessment of federal policies and programs is complicated because of disagreement over the nature of the federal government's role in this area Disagreements over the meaning of federal law coupled with white and black disinterest in desegregation have compounded the difficulties in promoting residential integration The authors employ research findings as well as legal and policy analysis in examining these complex issues They consider a broad range of issues related to housing desegregation and integration offering new sources of evidence and ideas for future research and policymaking Originally published in 1986 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Jewish Veteran, 1945 EBOOK:

Experiencing Intercultural Communication: An Introduction Judith Martin, Thomas Nakayama, G.P. van Rheede van Oudtshoorn, Paul Schutte, 2013-07-16 The new Southern African edition of this popular introductory textbook offers students a practical and accessible framework for developing their intercultural communication skills It provides a global perspective on intercultural communication while allowing students to contextualise their knowledge with relevant examples applications and perspectives Recognising that students in Southern African come from diverse cultural ethnic and linguistic backgrounds it provides discussion of issues and perspectives they can apply to everyday life and to broader contexts Collaboration Morten T. Hansen, 2009 In Collaboration author Morten Hansen takes aim at what many leaders inherently know in today's competitive environment companywide collaboration is an imperative for successful strategy execution yet the sought after synergies are rarely if ever realized In fact most cross unit collaborative efforts end up wasting time money and resources How can managers avoid the costly traps of collaboration and instead start getting the results they need In this book Hansen shows managers how to get collaboration right through disciplined collaboration a practical framework and set of tools managers can use to Assess when and when not to pursue collaboration across units to achieve goals Identify and overcome the four barriers to collaboration Get people to buy into the larger picture even when they own only a small piece of it Be a T Shaped Manager collaborating across divisions while still working deeply in your own unit Create networks across the organization that are not large but nimble and effective Based on the author's long running research in depth case studies and company interviews Collaboration delivers practical advice and tools to help your organization collaborate for real results Educational Research Document Summaries Educational Research Information Center (U.S.),1966
