Loom And Other Stories:

Free, and Other Stories Theodore Dreiser, 1918 The Loom and Other Stories Ruth A. Sasaki, 1991-09 The nine short stories in this collection reveal a portrait of three generations of Japanese Americans trying to fit themselves into the fabric of American society The author writes I wandered ghostlike amidst the mainstream of America treading unaware of the cultural amnesia inflicted on my parents generation by the internment and the atomic bomb These tales chronicle the pains and hopes of family members reaching out in individual ways to understand themselves their families and their community Ruth Sasaki writes with great self knowledge with a sensitivity born of examined experience and with a wonderfully humorous insight of the American ethnic experience Gus Lee author of China Boy Clever boys, and other stories Clever boys, 1848 More Stories I Lived Kenneth P. Campbell, Ken Campbell s first book of stories from his growing up years and early adult life Stories I Lived was so captivating that it left readers with an appetite for more More Stories I Lived will surely satisfy the palate and grab the imagination through the author s vivid folksy storytelling from a much simpler time when survival meant hard work and boys had the time to ride out on horseback and explore the rural wilderness Campbell writes with humor and purpose as he tells the stories he lived and the hard learned life lessons that survival gave him From picking his first tomatoes to raising a willful pet sheep from exploring a hidden cave to sledding uncontrolled down a steep hill from enduring a home style haircut to corralling a run away horse His stories will make you laugh and they will even make you wince Yet don t worry everything will come out all right in the end and you ll come away having enjoyed the journey and learned something with the author as well More wonderful tales from a true treasure Uncle Kenny takes us to a simpler time with smiles aplenty and great life lessons along the way Eric Brown Ministerial Director Upper Columbia Conference A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature Edgar Allan Poe's the Tell-tale Heart and Other Stories Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of

Heteromation, and Other Stories of Computing and Capitalism Hamid R. Ekbia, Bonnie A. Nardi, 2017-05-11 An exploration of a new division of labor between machines and humans in which people provide value to the economy with little or no compensation The computerization of the economy and everyday life has transformed the division of labor between humans and machines shifting many people into work that is hidden poorly compensated or accepted as part of being a user of digital technology Through our clicks and swipes logins and profiles emails and posts we are more or less willingly participating in digital activities that yield economic value to others but little or no return to us Hamid Ekbia and Bonnie Nardi call this kind of participation the extraction of economic value from low cost or free labor in computer mediated networks heteromation In this book they explore the social and technological processes through which economic value is extracted from digitally mediated work the nature of the value created and what prompts people to participate in the process Arguing that heteromation is a new logic of capital accumulation Ekbia and Nardi consider different kinds of heteromated labor communicative labor seen in user generated content on social media cognitive labor including microwork and self service creative labor from gaming environments to literary productions emotional labor often hidden within paid jobs and organizing labor made up of collaborative groups such as citizen scientists Ekbia and Nardi then offer a utopian vision heteromation refigured to bring end users more fully into the prosperity of capitalism

The Mechanics of Falling and Other Stories Catherine Brady, 2009-02-28 The stories in this collection explore those moments when the seemingly fixed coordinates of our lives abruptly give way when mother love fractures a faithful husband abandons his family a conscientious middle class life implodes or loyalty demands an excruciating sacrifice The characters share a fundamental predicament the struggle to name and embrace some faith that can break their fall In equal measure they hunger for and resist this elusive possibility and what it demands of them The Mechanics of Falling and Other Stories deals with a range of circumstances and relationships and with characters who must decide what they are willing to risk for the sake of transformation or for the right to refuse it The stories trace the effort to traverse the boundaries between one state and another between conviction and self doubt recklessness and despair resignation and rebellion And each story propels the reader to imagine what will happen next to register the unfinished and always precarious quality of every life
