Losing It A Novel:

The Late Novels of Eudora Welty Jan Nordby Gretlund, Karl-Heinz Westarp, 1998 The Late Novels of Eudora Welty offers readings of two of the works considered to be Welty's most exciting both in innovative technique and postmodern existential statement Fourteen new essays by internationally distinguished critics of Southern literature provide focused appraisals of Welty's last two novels Losing Battles 1970 a provocative experiment in narration and Pulitzer Prize winning The Optimist's Daughter 1972 a profound comment on our time Losing It Emma Rathbone, 2017-07-18 It's part Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants part American Pie with a dry humor that'll keep you flipping The Skimm A poignant hilarious novel that Maggie Shipstead calls charming witty and insightful about a woman who still has her virginity at the age of twenty six and the summer she's determined to lose it and find herself A candid yet funny take on just what desire and love mean The Millions Julia Greenfield has a problem she's twenty six years old and she's still a virgin Sex ought to be easy People have it all the time But without meaning to she made it through college and into adulthood with her virginity intact Something's got to change To re-route herself from her stalled life Julia travels to spend the summer with her mysterious aunt Vivienne in North Carolina It's not long however before she unearths a confounding secret her 58 year old aunt is a virgin too In the unrelenting heat of the southern summer Julia becomes fixated on puzzling out what could have led to Viv's appalling condition all while trying to avoid the same fate For readers of Rainbow Rowell and Maria Semple and filled with offbeat characters and subtle wry humor Losing It is about the primal fear that you just might never meet anyone It's about desiring something with the kind of obsessive fervor that almost guarantees you won't get it It's about the blurry lines between sex and love and trying to figure out which one you're going for And it's about the decisions and non-decisions we make that can end up shaping a life Eudora Welty Pearl Amelia McHaney, 2005-03-31 Pulitzer Prize winning author Eudora Welty's writing and photography were the subject of more than one thousand reviews of which over two hundred are collected here From the first reviewers loved Welty's language and disparaged her lack of plot Their eager anticipation for the next book is rarely diminished by the shock of reading entirely different styles of writing Her work was admired even as it challenged its readers The reviews selected for reprinting here represent the diversity of Welty's reception and assessment Reviews from small towns urban centers noted fiction writers professional reviewers academics and everyday readers are included The comments of reviewing rivals such as the New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune Nation and New Yorker when read side by side reveal the nuances both of the reviewers and of the work of this important Southern writer

Eudora Welty Peggy Whitman Prenshaw, 1983-06 This collection of essays about the writings of Eudora Welty reflects a range of Welty criticism Themes forms and stylistic features in her work are given careful consideration by some of the most notable scholars on her work John Alexander Allen J A Bryant Jr Daniel Curley Julia L Demmin Albert J Devlin Chester E Eisinger Warren French Seymour Gross John Edward Hardy Robert B Heilman Michael Kreyling Barbara McKenzie Daniele

Pitavy Souques and Ruth M Vande Kieft This edition selected from the twenty seven essays published in 1979 as Eudora Welty Critical Essays retains the breadth of subject and approach that marked the earlier volume Understanding Eudora Welty Michael Kreyling,1999 Kreyling instead reveals the dynamic growth in the depth and complexity of Welty s vision and literary technique over the course of her career BOOK JACKET Conversations with Eudora Welty Peggy Whitman Prenshaw,1984 Collections of interviews with notable modern writers Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton,Charles Edward Doble,James Sutherland Cotton,Charles Lewis Hind,William Teignmouth Shore,Alfred Bruce Douglas,Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett,Thomas William Hodgson Crosland,1908 Eudora Welty Suzanne Marrs,2005 In this definitive and authoritative account Suzanne Marrs restores Welty s story to human proportions tracing Welty s life from her roots in Jackson Mississippi to her rise to international stature The Dream of Arcady Lucinda Hardwick MacKethan,1999-03-01 This is a well organized gracefully written account of a significant aspect of Southern fiction and it contains information and incisive commentary that one can find nowhere else Thomas Daniel Young Many southern writers imagined the South as a qualified dream of Arcady They retained the glow of the golden land as a device to expose or rebuke to confront or escape the complexities of the actual times in which they lived The Dream of Arcady examines the work of post Civil War southern writers who criticize the myth of the South as pastoral paradise Sooner or later in all their idealized worlds the idyllic vision fades in an inescapable moment of awakening This moment which is central to MacKethan s study produces an atmosphere pastoral in mood and implications Her perspective analysis juxtaposes the responses of Sidney Lanier Joel Chandler Harris and Thomas Nelson Page who contributed to yet hope to transcend sectionalism with the ambivalent views of black writers Charles Chesnutt and Jean Toomer Considering the writings of the Agrarians William Faulkner and Eudora Welty MacKethan then concludes her study by questioning whether the Arcadian dream still serves the artist of our era as a frame for artistic and ideological purposes A Topography Plagued by Marginality in Victorian Novels Catalina Balinisteanu-Furdu,2022-04-12 The purpose of this book is to analyse how marginality is experienced by the Other women orphans children labourers in Victorian literature and how these individuals succeed in transgressing borders or attempt at doing this The Other uses many strategies to climb the social ladder and to preserve a certain social position marrying into a superior social class subverting the master s position and usurping him acquiring education and knowledge to become superior tempting the master into passionate love affairs approaching interpersonal communication or staying true to one s own self defending ones moral values accepting lessons of domesticity becoming an angel in the house travelling to unknown territories exchanging reality for fictional worlds and so on On their way of achieving their goals the Others are shown in different spaces which contribute to the construction of their identity Our survey unfolds the complexity of the marginalization experience of the Victorian Others their individual or collective mentality and their agency Drawing on Otherness from six Victorian novels our book takes an interpretative approach The analysis of spaces revealed how the positionality of women or orphans or labourers in social hierarchies of gender race and legal status influences and even affects their legitimacy or access to a superior position Their agency has not always overcome their marginalization embedded within the structure of society but at least temporarily and gradually it has improved the women s living conditions by being rewarded with a beautiful family or by earning a living thus eluding the dependency on a man By contextualizing the six novels into the Victorian Age our survey will hopefully contribute to the understanding of women and of their attempts at emancipation by demonstrating how their positionality impacts their agency and their personality

The Postsouthern Sense of Place in Contemporary Fiction Martyn Bone, 2014-01-13 For generations southern novelists and critics have grappled with a concept that is widely seen as a trademark of their literature a strong attachment to geography or a sense of place In the 1930s the Agrarians accorded special meaning to rural life particularly the farm in their definitions of southern identity For them the South seemed an organic and rooted region in contrast to the North where real estate development and urban sprawl evoked a faceless raw capitalism By the end of the twentieth century however economic and social forces had converged to create a modernized South How have writers responded to this phenomenon Is there still a sense of place in the South or perhaps a distinctly postsouthern sense of place Martyn Bone innovatively draws upon postmodern thinking to consider the various perspectives that southern writers have brought to the concept of place and to look at its fate in a national and global context He begins with a revisionist assessment of the Agrarians who failed in their attempts to turn their proprietary ideal of the small farm into actual policy but whose broader rural aesthetic lived on in the work of neo Agrarian writers including William Faulkner and Eudora Welty By the 1950s adherence to this aesthetic was causing southern writers and critics to lose sight of the social reality of a changing South Bone turns to more recent works that do respond to the impact of capitalist spatial development on the South and on the nation generally including that self declared international city Atlanta Close readings of novels by Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Richard Ford Anne Rivers Siddons Tom Wolfe and Toni Cade Bambara illuminate evolving ideas about capital land labor and class while introducing southern literary studies into wider debates around social cultural and literary geography Bone concludes his remarkably rich book by considering works of Harry Crews and Barbara Kingsolver that suggest the southern sense of place may be not only post Agrarian or postsouthern but also transnational
