Nativism Overseas:

Incorporations of Chineseness Serena Fusco, 2016-04-26 Divided into two parts the first a combination of historical introduction and theoretical analysis the second consisting of comprehensive in depth detailed close readings of representative literary works this book is a unique bridge connecting the fields of Comparative Literature Asian American Studies and Asian Studies Through a repositioning of the Chinese component of Asian America in relation to the transformations of Chinese identity in modern times it reads Asian American literature and Asian American literary studies in the context of the historical events and geopolitical changes that have informed the construction of Chineseness Drawing on feminist theory philosophy narratology and semiotics the book focuses on the body as a point of interchange between collectivity and individuality race and culture matter and discourse The body as argued here symbolically and narratively reflects in the texts the encounter between Chineseness and Americanness revealing it as a matter germane to the construction of American multiculturalism but simultaneously informed by the broader politics of the Chinese diaspora This book historicizes Chineseness from an ex centric perspective thus contributing to the understanding of its present and re focalizes Asian American literature from a non US perspective thus exploring the Asian American field with a comparative outlook Overall this work illuminates an aspect of the topical and inevitably contemporary dialogue of two major Pacific superpowers the US and China

The Chinese Overseas Hong Liu, 2006 Significant Other Claire

Conceison, 2004-08-31 Chinese views of the United States have shifted dramatically since the 1980s with changes in foreign relations increased travel of Chinese citizens to the U S and wide circulation of American popular culture in China Significant Other explores representations of Americans that emerged onstage in China between 1987 and 2002 and considers how they function as racial and cultural stereotypes political strategy and artistic innovation Based on fieldwork in Beijing and Shanghai it offers a unique view of contemporary Mainland Chinese spoken drama from the perspective of a Western academic who is both a Chinese studies scholar and a theatre practitioner Claire Conceison s close readings of recent plays take into account not only the texts of the plays themselves and other primary sources but also production contexts creative origins artistic collaboration and audience reception Identifying the American as China s significant Other Conceison introduces the complex cultural relationship between China and the United States situating it in both the long history of Sino Western relations and the present dynamics of post colonialism She then examines the emergent discourse of Occidentalism tracing its origins and recent circulation and repositioning it as a discursive strategy to analyze appearances of Americans on the Chinese stage Conceison maintains that Chinese staging of American characters often played by local actors made up and costumed as Americans and more recently played by foreigners themselves reveals cultural norms and attitudes regarding the United States reflects Sino American political relations articulates Chinese national and cultural identity and signifies innovation in spoken drama as an art form

Diasporic Representations Pin-chia Feng, 2010 In Diasporic

Representations author Pin chia Feng examines the stratification of various diasporic subjectivities through close reading fiction by Chinese American women writers of different social and class backgrounds Deploying a strategy of attentive reading Feng engages the intersecting issues of historicity spatiality and bodily imagination from diasporic and feminist perspectives to illuminate the dynamics of deterritorialization and reterritorialization in Chinese American novels in this transnational age The authors studied include Diana Chang Edith Eaton Yan Geling Nieh Hualing Gish Jen Shirley Geok lin Lim Aimee Liu Fae Myenne Ng Sigrid Nunez Han Suyin and Amy Tan

The Expanding Roles of Chinese Americans in U.S.-China Relations Peter Koehn,Xiao-Huang Yin,Xiao-huang Yin,2015-02-12 This book addresses the historical and contemporary involvement of Chinese Americans from diverse walks of life in U S China relations The contributors present new evidence and fresh perspectives on familiar and unfamiliar national and transnational networks including families businesspersons community newspapers students lobbyists philanthropists and scientists and consider the likely future impact of such contacts on the most important bilateral relationship at the start of the new millennium The volume makes a multidisciplinary contribution to understanding the extensive and vital roles and promise of Chinese Americans at this critical juncture in U S China relations and to revealing the importance of migrants as actors in contemporary global politics The assessments shared by the contributors suggest that the nature and scope of the Chinese American involvement particularly in global civil society networks increasingly will determine the outcome of state to state relations between the United States and the PRC

The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian

Literature Joshua S. Mostow, 2003-07-10 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay

Adapted for the Screen

Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30 Contemporary Chinese films are popular with audiences worldwide but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou s highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave s Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang s postrealism Hou Xiaoxian s new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture
