Nevada's Turbulent Yesterday Don Ashbaugh, 1963 Historic Resource Study, a History of Mining in Death Valley National Monument Linda W. Greene, 1981 Prehistory and History of the Winnemucca District Regina C. Smith, United States. Bureau of Land Management. Winnemucca District, 1983 Old Heart Of Nevada Shawn Hall, 1998-03-01 Elko County in the old heart of Nevada is rich in historic sites many of them hitherto uncharted and some verging on disappearing For the first time historian Shawn Hall identifies and locates the ghost towns and old mining camps of Elko County and recounts their colorful histories Following a guidebook format Hall divides the county into five easily accessible regions then lists the historic sites within each region and provides directions to reach them He offers a brief history of each site as well as a description of its extant structures and their present condition The result is a lively compilation of local history and mining and ranching lore that records the dramatic past of Nevada s northeast corner its pioneers and prospectors its towns and mines its outlaws ranchers merchants mining concerns and civic leaders The book offers never before available information about the old heart of Nevada and the people who settled there It will be of enduring value to tourists and weekend explorers historic preservationists and all those interested in the history and artifacts of this region The Historical Archaeology of Ghost Towns in the California- Nevada Borderlands Donald Scott Crull, 1993 Proceedings--shrublands under fire , 2008 Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter, 1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history Proceedings RMRS. , 1998 Paradise Valley, Nevada Howard W. Marshall, 1995 Stonemasons from the Alpine valleys of northwestern Italy shaped the architectural face of Paradise Valley in northern Nevada in the 1860s and 1870s Drawing on their own distinctive skills they constructed the constellation of granite and sandstone buildings that are the region s most visible landmarks Marshall s analysis of this architectural legacy illustrated with 229 photographs and 70 line drawings is not only a valuable resource for scholars in vernacular architecture folklore and cultural geography but also a verbal and visual treat for all who love the American West

Ghost Stories Janice Oberding, 2023-08-01 Time has all but forgotten the tragic tales of those who have passed through Nevada but their spirits remain As arguably the most haunted state in the nation Nevada has more than its share of ghosts with intriguing stories and historical connections Among them is the unfortunate gangster Bugsy Siegel who died in Beverly Hills only to return to his old stomping grounds the Flamingo Las Vegas Julia Bulette the ill fated prostitute who was slaughtered in her bed on a cold January morning in 1867 and the many haunted houses in Reno their owners forever tied to their homes refusing to depart Death Valley National Monument (N.M.), Natural and Cultural Resource Management Plan, Proposed (NV,CA), 1982 Regionalism and the Humanities Timothy R. Mahoney, Wendy J. Katz, 2008-12-01

Although the framework of regionalist studies may seem to be crumbling under the weight of increasing globalization this collection of seventeen essays makes clear that cultivating regionalism lies at the center of the humanist endeavor With interdisciplinary contributions from poets and fiction writers literary historians musicologists and historians of architecture agriculture and women this volume implements some of the most innovative and intriguing approaches to the history and value of regionalism as a category for investigation in the humanities In the volume s inaugural essay Annie Proulx discusses landscapes in American fiction comments on how she constructs characters and interprets current literary trends Edward Watts offers a theory of region that argues for comparisons of the United States to other former colonies of Great Britain including New Zealand Australia and Canada Whether considering a writer s connection to region or the idea of place in exploring what is meant by regionalism these essays uncover an enduring and evolving concept Although the approaches and disciplines vary all are framed within the fundamental premise of the humanities the search to understand what it means to be human Sand In A Whirlwind, 30Th Anniversary Edition Ferol Egan, 2016-06-01 Sand in a Whirlwind is a dramatic account of the events surrounding hostilities between settlers and Pyramid Paiutes in the spring of 1860 Thirty years after its publication Ferol Egan's now classic tale continues to enlighten and engage readers In Pursuit of Gold Sue Fawn Chung,2011-08-01

DeArment,2012-11-09

For every Wild Bill Hickok or Billy the Kid there was another western gunfighter just as deadly but not as well known Robert K DeArment has earned a reputation as the premier researcher of unknown gunfighters and here he offers twelve more portraits of men who weren't glorified in legend but were just as notorious in their day Those who think they already know all about Old West gunfighters will be amazed at this new collection Here are men like Porter Stockton the Texas terror who bragged that he had killed eighteen men and Jim Levy who killed a man for disparaging his Irish blood though he was also the only known Jewish gunfighter These stories span eight decades from the gold rushes of the 1850s to the 1920s Telling of gunmen such as Jim Masterson the brother of Bat Masterson or the real Whispering Smith the man behind the fictionalized persona whose career spanned four decades DeArment conscientiously separates fact from fiction to reconstruct lives all the more amazing for having remained unknown for so long The product of iron clad research this newest Deadly Dozen delivers the goods for gunfighter
