Dear Joseph, Love, Mom S.H. Harlow,2018-11-06 This is the story of Joseph s as well as his family s journey in the world of the disabled a world plagued by discrimination suffering isolation and cruelty It is also a story of the love determination bravery and kindness extended to Joseph by the people who were willing to see beyond his disabilities and allowed themselves to be entranced by his beautiful smile his contagious laugh his physical beauty and his amazing strength of spirit He was a valiant warrior who exceeded the low expectations set for him constantly encouraged by parents who loved him without conditions and believed in his ability to soar above those expectations given him by a world that failed to consider his amazing strength of spirit In the process he taught his parents many things that they never imagined would be a part of their journey in this life He taught them to be brave He taught them to be strong He taught them that the strength of the human spirit is something that should never be underestimated He taught them by example Sometimes the disabled achieve things considered to be great by the world s standards and sometimes they achieve things that are still great just not on the world stage The journey of my son Joseph was the latter He fought the smaller battles that might eventually lead to winning the war His was that proverbial one voice singing in the darkness My husband and I listened to his voice He made us better people by having known and listened to him It is now up to us to continue to spread his message until the whole world has heard it The disabled just by being themselves have the ability when given the opportunity to enable people to see their bravery their strength of spirit and the amazing grace with which they face their disabilities to effect a change in the hearts and minds of people ultimately making the world a better place one person at a time Ultimately isn t that the reason that we all come to this earth to become better people and leave the world a better place than we found it Check out our website Click Here
