Obituaries For The London Times 1961 1970:

Obituaries from the Times ,1951 Including an index to all obituaries and tributes appearing in the Times A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index British Sport: Biographical studies of British sportsmen, sportswomen, and animals Richard William Cox,2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Turning Point in Africa R.D. Pearce,2023-05-03 The Turning Point in Africa 1982 is a significant study of British colonial policy towards tropical Africa during a critical decade from the complacent trusteeship of the inter war years to the strategy of decolonization inaugurated after the Second World War Charting a course through a wide variety of official sources and private papers the work assesses the importance for colonial policy of the Colonial Office the Colonial Service the Labour Party African nationalists and of ideological and moral preconceptions The revolution in African policy is investigated with a wide and yet detailed approach Special attention is devoted to the effects of the Second World War on Britain and its empire and to the importance of American anti imperialist pressure on the British Government The importance of three men the adviser Lord Hailey politician Arthur Creech Jones and civil servant Andrew Cohen receives attention and an assessment is made of their contribution to a policy which from 1948 onwards led to a rapid decolonization in large parts of Africa The significance of this policy is analysed in detail The British aimed at nation building indirect rule was to be replaced by the forms of English style local government while rapid constitutional progress at the centre was to be conceded in accordance with a preconceived model once powerful nationalist movements had arisen However as the book shows progress at the centre was introduced prematurely and outstripped reform in local government so that progress was not the balanced development the British had wished to see Decolonization had been given an irreversible momentum by British planning Great Warrior Leaders/thinkers ,1989 Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1987 German-Speaking Exiles in Great Britain ,2021-10-25 The Research Centre for German and Austrian Exile Studies was founded in 1995 basing itself at the Institute of Germanic Studies of the University of London Professor J M Ritchie became Chairman of the Research Centre whose members are Dr Charmian Brinson Professor Richard Dove Dr Marian Malet Dr Jennifer Taylor and Professor Ian Wallace with Dr Anthony Grenville as Honorary Secretary The aim of the Research Centre is to promote research in the field of German speaking exiles in Great Britain To this end it organises conferences and publishes their proceedings holds research seminars and publishes its own Yearbook Its members cooperate in the writing of scholarly studies including a book about the German speaking refugees from Hitler in Britain Home from Home and a study of the Austrian Centre in London 1939 47 Though the Research Centre has primarily concerned itself with the German speaking refugees from Nazism in Britain it aims to extend its scope to include German speaking exiles of other periods and comparable groups such as the Czech refugees from Hitler or Italian anti Fascists Given its location near the heart of the principal centre of settlement of the refugees from Germany the Research Centre readily provides advice and useful contacts to scholars and postgraduates working in the field

Watriama and Co Hugh Laracy,2013-10-01 WATRIAMA AND CO the title echoes Kipling's STALKY AND CO is a collection of biographical essays about people associated with the Pacific Islands It covers a period of almost a century and a half However the individual stories of first hand experience converge to some extent in various ways so as to present a broadly coherent picture of Pacific History In this politics economics and religion overlap So too do indigenous cultures and concerns together with the activities and interests of the Europeans who ventured into the Pacific and who had a profound widespread and enduring impact there from the nineteenth century and who also prompted reactions from the Island peoples Not least significant in this process is the fact that the Europeans generated a paper trail through which their stories and those of the Islanders who also contributed to their written record can be known Thus not only are the subjects of the essays to be encountered personally and within a contextual kinship but the way in which the past has shaped the future is clearly discernible Watriama himself features in various historical narratives So too certain of his confreres in this collection which is the product of several decades of exploring the Pacific past in archives by sea and on foot through most of Oceania

International Women in Science Catherine M.C. Haines,2001-11-20 A comprehensive biographical guide to the scientific achievements personal lives and struggles of women scientists from around the globe International Women in Science A Bibliographical Dictionary to 1950 presents the enormous contributions of women outside North America in fields ranging from aviation to computer science to zoology It provides fascinating profiles of nearly 400 women scientists both renowned figures like Florence Nightingale and Marie Curie and women we should know better like Rosalind Franklin who along with James Watson and Francis Crick uncovered the structure of DNA Students and researchers will see how the lives of these remarkable women unfolded and how they made their place in fields often stubbornly guarded by men overcoming everything from limited education and professional opportunities to indifference ridicule and cultural prejudice to outright hostility and discrimination Included are a number of living scientists many of whom provide insights into their lives and scientific times Those contributions plus additional previously unavailable material make this a volume of unprecedented scope and richness

Modern England, 1901-1984 Alfred F. Havighurst,2004-07-08 The most comprehensive bibliography of printed books articles and standard texts on twentieth century England

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,2023-11-15 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,

Searching for Lord Haw-Haw Colin Holmes,2016-07-28 Searching for Lord Haw Haw is an authoritative account of the political lives of William Joyce He became notorious as a fascist an anti Semite and then as a Second World War traitor when assuming the persona of Lord Haw Haw he acted as a radio propagandist for the Nazis It is an endlessly compelling story of simmering hope intense frustration renewed anticipation and ultimately catastrophic failure This fully referenced work is the first attempt to place Joyce at the centre of the turbulent traumatic and influential events through which he lived It challenges existing biographies which have reflected not only Joyce s frequent calculated deceptions but also the suspect claims advanced by his family friends and apologists By exploring his rampant increasingly influential narcissism it also offers a pioneering analysis of Joyce s personality and exposes its dangerous destructive consequences What a saga my life would make Joyce wrote from prison just before his execution Few would disagree with him

1872 1970 Women Editing/Editing Women Chanita Goodblatt,Ann Hollinshead Hurley,2009-01-14 This collection of essays links current research in the writings and editing of early modern women and in those women who were themselves early editors with a new methodology of editing currently titled the new textualism As such the collection seeks to solve two problems The first concerns the difficulty of editing the works of early modern women writers for whom there is little biographical data a challenging task when the standard life and works format is thus inhibited Second related but slightly different occurs because although we know that there were women who edited in the early modern and even later periods we know little about them as well The new textualism approach to editing which focuses on the material properties of the manuscript or book its print or performance history and records of its dissemination and the sociology of texts provides a fruitful solution to both problems by broadening the concept of agency and hence provides a richer context for the production of a given text The collection includes two sets of essays One set has been reprinted from seminal works in the field of new textualism These include writings by recognized figures like Jerome McGann Leah Marcus and Wendy Wall among others As such that set provides background for the reading of the second a group of six original essays by scholars now working in the field of early modern women writers who directly apply aspects of the new textualism in their research The fusion of the research field of retrieving early modern women writers with the practices of new textualist editing is thus the core of this collection of essays and is illustrative of what can be achieved in the field of editing when this new approach to texts is put into practice The British Studies Monitor ,1975 College and Research Libraries ,1977 Includes section
