Poemas Clandestinos Clandestine Poems:

Clandestine Poems Roque Dalton, 1990 Dalton was one of the most influential poets and political writers in Latin America In this book written just before his assassination he invents five poets who express their different concerns about the oppressive situation in El Salvador

Historias y poemas de una lucha de clases / Stories and Poems of a Class Struggle Roque Dalton, 2023-09-12 The revolutionary the dictatorship couldn't kill the trickster poet favored by the gods Ben Ehrenreich author of The Way to Spring Life and Death in Palestine Poems of revolution by one of Latin America's most beloved poets One of Latin America's greatest poets Roque Dalton was a revolutionary whose politics were inseparable from his art Born in El Salvador in 1935 Dalton dedicated his life to fighting for social justice while writing fierce tender poems about his country and its people In Poemas clandestinos Stories and Poems of a Class Struggle he explores oppression and resistance through the lens of five poetic personas each with their own distinct voice These poems show a country caught in the crosshairs of American imperialism where the few rule the many and the many struggle to survive and yet there is joy and even humor to be found here as well as an abiding faith in humanity In striking immediate exuberantly inventive language Dalton captures the ethos of a people as stirring now as when the book was first published nearly forty years ago I believe the world is beautiful he writes and that poetry like bread is for everyone

Literature and Politics in the Central American Revolutions John Beverley, Marc Zimmerman, 2014-02-19 This book began in what seemed like a counterfactual intuition that what had been happening in Nicaraguan poetry was essential to the victory of the Nicaraguan Revolution write John Beverley and Marc Zimmerman In our own postmodern North American culture we are long past

thinking of literature as mattering much at all in the real world so how could this be This study sets out to answer that question by showing how literature has been an agent of the revolutionary process in Nicaragua El Salvador and Guatemala The book begins by discussing theory about the relationship between literature ideology and politics and charts the development of a regional system of political poetry beginning in the late nineteenth century and culminating in late twentieth century writers In this context Ernesto Cardenal of Nicaragua Roque Dalton of El Salvador and Otto René Castillo of Guatemala are among the poets who receive detailed attention

Handbook of Latin American Literature (Routledge Revivals) David Foster, 2015-06-11 First published in 1987 this second edition in 1992 the Handbook of Latin American Literature offers readers the opportunity to explore this literary history in the English Language and constitutes an ideological approach to Latin American Literature It provides both concise information concerning particular authors works and literary traditions of Latin America as well as comprehensive material about the various national literatures of the area This book will therefore be of interest to Hispanic scholars as well as more general readers and non Hispanists

Sensing Decolonial Aesthetics in Latin American Arts Juan G. Ramos, 2018-03-06 This book proposes a critical reevaluation of antipoeetry nueva canción and third cinema in relation to decolonial theory and contemporary aesthetic inquiries A prime objective of the book as a whole is to bring these separate art forms into dialogue with each as collectively contributing to an archive of decolonial art forms

Remembering a Massacre in El Salvador Héctor Lindo-Fuentes,Erik Kristofer Ching,Rafael Lara Martínez,2007 The authors provide the first systematic study of the infamous massacre now regarded as one of the most extreme cases of state sponsored repression in modern Latin American history

Literary Culture and U.S. Imperialism John Carlos Rowe,2000 John Carlos Rowe considered one of the most eminent and progressive critics of American literature has in recent years become instrumental in shaping the path of American studies His latest book examines literary responses to U S imperialism from the late eighteenth century to the 1940s Interpreting texts by Charles Brockden Brown Poe Melville John Rollin Ridge Twain Henry Adams Stephen Crane W E B Du Bois John Neihardt Nick Black Elk and Zora Neale Hurston Rowe argues that U S literature has a long tradition of responding critically or contributing to our imperialist ventures Following in the critical footsteps of Richard Slotkin and Edward Said Literary Culture and U S Imperialism is particularly innovative in taking account of the public and cultural response to imperialism In this sense it could not be more relevant to what is happening in the scholarship and should be vital reading for scholars and students of American literature and culture

Uprooted Minds Nancy Caro Hollander,2014-04-08 In our post 9 11 environment our sense of relative security and stability as privileged subjects living in the heart of Empire has been profoundly shaken Hollander explores the forces that have brought us to this critical juncture analyzing the role played by the neoliberal economic paradigm and conservative political agenda that emerged in the West over the past four decades with devastating consequences for the hemisphere s citizens Narrative testimonies of progressive U S and Latin American psychoanalysts illuminate the psychological meanings of living under authoritarian political conditions and show how a psychoanalysis beyond the couch contributes to social struggles on behalf of human rights and redistributive justice By interrogating themes related to the mutual effects of social power and ideology large group dynamics and unconscious fantasies affects and defenses Hollander encourages reflections about our experience as social psychological subjects

Constructed Latinx(s) Identities José I. Lara,2025-09-09 Constructed Latinx s Identities Racialized Bodies in Visual and Textual Culture consists of ten interdisciplinary essays that discuss recent forms and interpretations of the histories and traditions of the Latinx communities present in film literature television and other cultural expressions Using specific case studies the authors of this collection delve into the intersections of identity in Latinx production and representation and challenge the colonial and modern power structures that have continuously racialized and gendered Latinx bodies In addition to deconstructing these power structures the chapters attempt to recover knowledge buried or shunned by colonialism and modernity as well as offer alternative and nonhierarchical forms of defining Latinx and forming pluri identitary and multivoiced communities The concept of Latinx continues to evolve to be renegotiated and to be embedded with new meanings and subjectivities As such all chapters not only encourage further debate about racialization and the interaction of the various historical political and social contexts in identity formation but also propel all scholars to question their positionality when approaching the concept of Latinx Poetry Criticism Elisabeth Gellert, 2001-12
