Seeing Things Simply Color:

Color & Emotion Buddy Huang ,Evan Yanagi ,2015-10-01 By using the traditional Chinese theories of the Five Elements and Zi Wei Dou Shu we have explored the interrelationship between our personal elemental colors and their impact on our personal emotion In order to easily manage this relationship we have created the simple concept of a personal ID The personal ID does not represent citizens of a country but they are rather the number codes that derive precisely from the year month day hour and minute of our births and take into account the longitude and latitude of the birth place as well as the true solar time There are a total of nine numbers Through these nine numbers we can balance the five elemental energies to make us complete The same IDs are also attached to all products Therefore you can buy the products that match your elemental requirements The 109TM app helps you match the Yin and Yang attributes of the Five Elements and shop from our 109TM online shopping platform

Color behind Bars Scott W. Bowman,2014-08-11 A diverse critical analysis of racial and ethnic disparities within the American criminal justice system that encourages critical thinking by providing various sides to the issues Low income African Americans Latin Americans and American Indians bear the statistical brunt of policing death penalty verdicts and sentencing disparities in the United States Why does this long standing inequity exist in a country where schoolchildren are taught to expect justice for all The original essays in this two volume set not only examine the deep rooted issues and lay out theories as to why racism remains a problem in our prison system but they also provide potential solutions to the problem The work gives a broad multicultural overview of the history of overrepresentation of ethnic minorities in our prison system examining white black disparities as well as racism and issues of ethnic based discrimination concerning other ethnic minorities This up to date resource is ideally suited for undergraduate students who are enrolled in criminal justice or racial ethnic studies classes and general readers interested in the U S criminal justice system

The Creative Gardener Adam Frost,2022-05-24 Clever ideas and imaginative solutions from BBC Gardeners World host Adam Frost to help you transform your garden element by element into a personalized dream space Adam shows how small plantings design flourishes hands on creative projects and simple hard landscaping projects can help transform your garden Taking an artisan s approach to his own garden Adam emphasizes how you too can find inspiration and turn it into a garden feature how to personalize your ideas using what you already have and upcycling There s something to suit everyone s taste space and budget Each project starts with Adam s inspiration and then walks the reader through how he created the end product with clear step by step photography and instructions Adam shows that inspiration doesn t have to come from other gardens In fact for him it rarely does It could be a natural feature such as a heap of wood something you already own or a salvage yard item you can upcycle With a little work and a dash of imagination you can create something truly personal in the garden and create the atmosphere you want while developing your skills and enjoying the creative process Well known for his straightforward clear presentation and his award winning design ideas Adam combines these skills to offer realistic

Hawthorne,1960-06-01 Look around and select a subject that you can see painted That will paint itself Do the obvious thing before you do the superhuman thing It may have been accidental but you knew enough to let this alone The good painter is always making use of accidents Never try to repeat a success Swing a bigger brush you don t know what fun you are missing For 31 years Charles Hawthorne spoke in this manner to students of his famous Cape Cod School of Art The essence of that instruction has been collected from students notes and captured in this book retaining the personal feeling and the sense of on the spot inspiration of the original classroom Even though Hawthorne is addressing himself to specific problems in specific paintings his comments are so revealing that they will be found applicable a hundred times to your own work The book is divided into sections on the outdoor model still life landscape the indoor model and watercolor Each section begins with a concise essay and continues with comments on basic elements general character color form seeing posture etc It is in the matter of color that students will especially feel themselves in the presence of a master guide and critic Hawthorne's ability to see color and more important to make the student see color is a lesson that will aid student painters and anyone else interested in any phase of art. Although it does not pretend to be a comprehensive or closely ordered course, this book does have much to offer. It also represents the artistic insight of one of the finest painter-teachers of the twentieth century. An excellent introduction for laymen and students alike. Time to read these notes and comments is in itself an education. One cannot help but gain great help.

School Arts Simply Color Therapy Nina Ashby, 2007 Provides information on the practical and spiritual applications of color covering such topics as improving health with colored light, interpreting personalities through the colors they wear and decorating with color to create moods.

frequently and with evident pleasure at the merchant's face not in itself a handsome one with its hollow cheeks meagre beard and large aquiline nose for it was lighted up by a pair of bright eyes full of attractive thoughtfulness and genuine kindness But that this fragile looking man in whose benevolent countenance grief and infirmities had graven many a furrow could not only command but compel submission was legible alike in his thin firmly closed lips and in the zeal with which his following of truculent and bearded fighting men armed to the teeth obeyed his slightest sign His Egyptian attendant the head of the Hermeneutai the guild of the Dragomans of that period was a swarthy and surly native of Memphis whenever he accidentally came too close to the fierce looking riders of the dromedaries he shrunk his shoulders as if he expected a blow or a push while he poured out question and answer to the Merchant Haschim the owner of the caravan without timidity and with the voluble garrulity of his tribe
