Victims Svenja Goltermann,2024-02 Victimhood has become a shorthand for any injustice suffered Adopting a history of knowledge approach Victims takes a fresh look at this phenomenon of classifying people as victims It goes beyond existing narratives to provide a new and comprehensive explanation of the complex genealogy of modern concepts of victimhood

Foreign Security Policy, Gender, and US Military Identity E. Brunner,2013-07-09 Differentiation from the Self has been a unifying feature of war stories since they were first told highlighting that war stories are about the production of identity Based on analysis of military documents this book aims to unravel some of the gendered ideologies that underpin the link between state identity and foreign security policy Women and Spanish Fascism Kathleen J.L. Richmond,2003-09-02

Using forty five interviews with former members and sympathisers this book traces the development of the Women s section of the Franco government from its roots in the Spanish fascist party to its role in the dictatorship up to 1959 The study reveals that despite its anti feminist agenda the section was in some areas a catalyst for women s emancipation in post Franco Spain The Lonely Mirror Sandra Kemp,Paola Bono,2025-04-01

Contributing to a lively dialogue with Anglo American and French theorists The Lonely Mirror originally published in 1993 sets out to contextualize Italian feminist theory within the international debate The essays vividly illuminate the specific character of Italian feminism as a political and intellectual movement and expose the differences between the more institutionalized nature of women s studies in the United States and Britain It will be of vital interest both to general and academic readers who want to explore some of the most vibrant developments in European feminism Socio-Cultural and Religious Conflicts and the Future of Nigeria

Lotanna Olisaemeka,2022 With the prevailing violent conflict situation of our world perpetuated sometimes even in the name of religion humanity today faces extinction To reverse this ugly trend humanity has no choice than to build a society where every tribe and tongue can coexist in peace This work analyzed the violent conflicts from anthropological behavioral politico philosophical and theological perspectives and makes a demand on humanity to save herself through proper education and dialogue with all men and religions List of Serials and Monographs Indexed for Online Users ,1990

Documentation Sur la Recherche Féministe ,1990 Selected Writings of an Eighteenth-Century Venetian Woman of Letters Elisabetta Caminer Turra,2007-11-01 Elisabetta Caminer Turra 1751 96 was one of the most prominent women in eighteenth century Italy and a central figure in the international Republic of Letters A journalist and publisher Caminer participated in important debates on capital punishment freedom of the press and the abuse of clerical power She also helped spread Enlightenment ideas into Italy by promoting and publishing Voltaire s latest works and translating new European plays plays she herself directed to great applause on Venetian stages Bringing together Caminer s letters poems and journalistic writings nearly all published for the first time here Selected Writings offers readers an intellectual biography of this remarkable figure as well as a glimpse into her intimate correspondence with the most prominent thinkers of her day

But more important Selected Writings provides insight into the passion that animated Caminer's fervent reflections on the complex and shifting condition of women in her society the same passion that pushed her to succeed in the male dominated literary professions

The Fox Spirit, the Stone Maiden, and Other Transgender Histories from Late Imperial China Matthew H. Sommer, 2024-03-19 Co winner 2025 John Boswell Prize LGBTQ History Association In imperial China people moved away from the gender they were assigned at birth in different ways and for many reasons Eunuchs boy actresses and clergy left behind normative gender roles defined by family and procreation Stone maidens women deemed physically incapable of vaginal intercourse might depart from families or marriages to become Buddhist or Daoist nuns Anatomical males who presented as women sometimes took a conventionally female occupation such as midwife faith healer or even medium to a fox spirit Yet they were often punished harshly for the crime of masquerading in women's attire suspected of sexual predation even when they had lived peacefully in their communities for many years Exploring these histories and many more this book is a groundbreaking study of transgender lives and practices in late imperial China Through close readings of court cases as well as Ming and Qing fiction and nineteenth century newspaper accounts Matthew H Sommer examines the social legal and cultural histories of gender crossing He considers a range of transgender experiences illuminating how certain forms of gender transgression were sanctioned in particular social contexts and penalized in others Sommer scrutinizes the ways Qing legal authorities and literati writers represented and understood gender nonconforming people and practices contrasting official ideology with popular mentalities An unprecedented account of China's transgender histories this book also sheds new light on a range of themes in Ming and Qing law religion medicine literature and culture

Encyclopedia of Goddesses and Heroines Patricia Monaghan, 2009-12-18 This two volume set provides a comprehensive guide to the vast array of feminine divine figures found throughout the world Drawn from a variety of sources ranging from classical literature to early ethnographies to contemporary interpretations the Encyclopedia of Goddesses and Heroines provides a comprehensive introduction to the ways goddess figures have been viewed through the ages This unique encyclopedia of over thousands of figures of feminine divinity describes the myths and attributes of goddesses and female spiritual powers from around the world The two volume set is organized by culture and religion exploring the role of women in each culture's religious life and introducing readers to the background of each pantheon as well as the individual figures who peopled it Alternative names for important divinities are offered as are lists of minor goddesses and their attributes Interest in women's spirituality has grown significantly over the last 30 years both among those who remain in traditional religions and those who explore spirituality outside those confines This work speaks to them all

L. Allen, Jacob J. T. Doedens, 2022-08-01 This volume is written in the context of trauma hermeneutics of ancient Jewish communities and their tenacity in the face of adversity i e as recorded in the MT LXX Pseudepigrapha the Deuterocanonical books and even Cognate literature In this regard its thirteen chapters are concerned with the most recent outputs of trauma studies They are written by a selection of leading scholars associated to some degree with the Hungaro South African Study Group Here trauma is employed as a useful hermeneutical lens not only for interpreting biblical texts and the contexts in which they were originally produced and functioned but also for providing a useful frame of reference As a consequence these various research outputs each in their own way confirm that an historical and theological appreciation of these early accounts and interpretations of collective trauma and its implications perceived or otherwise is critical for understanding the essential substance of Jewish cultural identity As such these essays are ideal for scholars in the fields of Biblical Studies particularly those interested in the Pseudepigrapha the Deuterocanonical books and Cognate literature Violence and Resistance in Sikh Gendered Identity Jaspal Kaur Singh, 2020-04-30 This book examines the constructions and representations of male and female Sikhs in Indian and diasporic literature and culture through the consideration of the role of violence as constitutive of Sikh identity How do Sikh men and women construct empowering identities within the Indian nation state and in the diaspora The book explores Indian literature and culture to understand the role of violence and the feminization of baptized and turbaned Sikh men as well as identity formation of Sikh women who are either virtually erased from narratives bodily eliminated through honor killings or constructed and represented as invisible It looks at the role of violence during critical junctures in Sikh history including the Mughal rule the British colonial period the Partition of India the 1984 anti Sikh riots in India and the terror of 9 11 in the United States The author analyzes how violence reconstitutes gender roles and sexuality within various cultural and national spaces in India and the diaspora She also highlights questions related to women s agency and their negotiation of traumatic memories for empowering identities The book will interest scholars researchers and students of postcolonial English literature contemporary Indian literature Sikh studies diaspora studies global studies gender and sexuality studies religious studies history sociology media and films studies cultural studies popular culture and South Asian studies The New Evolutionary Paradigm Ervin Laszlo, 2019-07-18

Originally published in 1991 The New Evolutionary Paradigm provides an innovative and cross disciplinary look at evolution While Darwin s theory of evolution was originally restricted to the life sciences in recent years the same principles have been applied successfully to historical social and natural sciences The papers included in The New Evolutionary Paradigm analyse the facts observations and accumulated data from the significance of a general evolution theory cannot be overemphasised a new understanding of the cosmos and man s relationship to it could lead to the systemization of the irreversible change that takes place in society and nature This book will appeal to scientists sociologists and those interested in transdisciplinary evolution theories List of Serials Indexed for Online Users , Lived Experiences of Ideologies in Contextual Islam

Judy Wanjiru Wang'ombe,2024-02-29 There is a tendency within the study of Islam to prioritize religious ideology over the lived experiences of ordinary Muslims While affirming the significance of such ideology Dr Judy Wanjiru Wang ombe suggests that it is equally important to understand how Islamic teachings are actually lived out within Muslim communities Utilizing a cognitive anthropological framework and drawing from qualitative field data this study examines the phenomenon of spirit possession as experienced by Borana Muslims in Marsabit County Kenya Dr Wang ombe analyzes the practices and beliefs of the Ayyaana possession cult in light of stipulations provided by official Islamic texts specifically the Qur an and Hadith as taught by their Muslim teachers and explores the prominent gaps that often exist between tenet and practice An excellent resource for scholars and practitioners alike this study enhances anthropological understanding of contextual Islam as practiced in East Africa while offering insight into local perspectives on the spirit world Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham,2023-02-01 In Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham presents an understanding of life and death based on indigenous and black ways of knowing that he terms Mpondo theory Focusing on amaMpondo people from rural Mpondoland in South Africa s Eastern Cape Canham outlines the methodologies that have enabled the community s resilience and survival He assembles historical events and a cast of ancestral and living characters following the tenor of village life to offer a portrait of how Mpondo people live and die in the face of centuries of abandonment trauma antiblackness and death Canham shows that Mpondo theory is grounded in and develops in relation to the natural world where the river and hill are key sites of being and resistance Central too is the interface between ancestors and the living in which life and death become a continuity and a boundlessness that white supremacy and neoliberalism cannot interdict By charting a course of black life in Mpondoland Canham tells a story of blackness on the African continent and beyond Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Recipient Islamic Studies ,1994
