Louise Lawler And Others:

Louise Lawler and Others Louise Lawler, 2004 Louise Lawler subjects the concept of art to critical analysis by re photographing her own drawings paintings and sculptures and incorporating aspects of their immediate surrounding into these copies Viewed with a certain detachment her demystified reproductions also reveal the contextual and situational connotations of her artworks which recede to a certain extent into the background Lawler also applies these methods to the work of other artists photographing their art pieces particularly as they are mounted in private collections These contextualizing photographs retain fragments of their surroundings thus clarifying how the presentation and interpretation of artwork is never free of value judgment or environmental influence This publication offers the first retrospective overview of the artistic accomplishments of Louise Lawler over the past 20 years Included are a number of very recent works some of them created especially for this book

PaintingDigitalPhotography Carl Robinson, 2019-01-29 We live in a digital age where the mediums of art are inextricably bound to the binary code and painting and photography are redefined in their interconnected relationship through digital reconfiguration As digitisation unmoors these mediums from their traditional supports their modes of production display and dissemination shift These changes bring about new ways of creating and engaging with artworks Through this the innate qualities of the mediums previously anchored in their analogue nature are re evaluated through their connection with the digital Born out of the PaintingDigitalPhotography conference held at QUAD Derby UK in May 2017 this anthology of essays investigates aspects of

Camnitzer,2010-01-01 Artist educator curator and critic Luis Camnitzer has been writing about contemporary art ever since he left his native Uruguay in 1964 for a fellowship in New York City As a transplant from the periphery to the center Camnitzer has had to confront fundamental questions about making art in the Americas asking himself and others What is Latin American art How does it relate if it does to art created in the centers of New York and Europe What is the role of the artist in exile Writing about issues of such personal cultural and indeed political import has long been an integral part of Camnitzer s artistic project a way of developing an idiosyncratic art history in which to work out his own place in the picture This volume gathers Camnitzer s most thought provoking essays texts written to make something happen in the words of volume editor Rachel Weiss They elaborate themes that appear persistently throughout Camnitzer s work art world systems versus an art of commitment artistic genealogies and how they are consecrated and most insistently the possibilities for artistic agency The theme of translation informs the texts in the first part of the book with Camnitzer asking such questions as What is Latin America and who asks the question Who is the artist there and here The texts in the second section are more historically than geographically oriented exploring little known moments works and events that compose the legacy that Camnitzer draws on and offers to his readers Women Artists in the 20th and 21st Century Ilka Becker,2001 Taschen s inventive layout is effective in presenting the provocative works words and biographies of the nearly 100 women artists gathered here Grosenick a freelance art historian in Germany has selected women artists working in Germany the US South Africa Japan Poland France Scandinavia and Spain among other countries The entry for each artist is six pages with much of the space devoted to good quality color photos of her work c Book News Inc Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen,2015-08-21 How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965 1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films flexi disc records critical writings artists postage stamps and collectible chapbooks Avalanche 1970 1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979 1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content offers an Darsie Alexander, Charles Harrison, Robert Storr, 2005 Since the 1960s an international group of artists has embraced slide projection as a dynamic alternative to the tradition of painting blending aspects of photography film and installation art Slide Show is the first in depth examination of how slides evolved into one of the most exciting art forms of our time Essays by leading scholars and 200 color illustrations provide visual historical and critical insight into this unique medium Framed Spaces Monica E. McTighe, 2012 While earlier theorists held up experience as the defining character of installation art few people have had the opportunity to walk through celebrated installation pieces from the past Instead installation art of the past is known through archival photographs that limit define and frame the experience of the viewer Monica E McTighe argues that the rise of photographic based theories of perception and experience coupled with the inherent closeness of installation art to the field of photography had a profound impact on the very nature of installation art leading to a flood of photography and film based installations With its close readings of specific works Framed Spaces will appeal to art historians and theorists across a broad spectrum of the visual arts California.
